COMPETITION FOR ENTRY TO THE ADMINISTRATIVE AND SPECIAL DEPARTMENTAL CLASSES OF THE WESTERN STATE OF NIGERIA PUBLIC SERVICE, 1969

It is notified for the information of intending candidates that the 1969 competition for entry to the Administrative Class and the Special Departmental Classes of Auditors, Assistant Registrars of Co-operative Societies, Produce Officers and Inspectors of Taxes, all in Scale 'A', in the Western State of Nigeria Public Service will start in April 1969.

2. The competition comprises :

(a) a qualifying written examination, conducted by the West African Examinations Council ;

(b) a series of tests and interviews, known as an Extended Interview, conducted by the Public Service Selection Board ;

(c) an interview before the Public Service Commission.

Only those candidates who reach the qualifying standard in the written examination will be invited for tests and interviews by the Public Service Selection Board. The Public Service Commissioners will subsequently select, in the light of candidates' performance at the Selection Board, those whom they will themselves interview.

3. To be eligible for admission to the competition, a candidate who is not already a serving officer in the Western State of Nigeria Public Service must hold a First or Second Class Honours Degree from a recognised University, or alternatively in the case of the Special Departmental Classes of Auditors and Inspectors of Taxes, a recognised professional qualification, i.e., the Final Certificate or Associate Membership of any of the following Professional Bodies :

(i) Institute of Chartered Accountants ;

(ii) Association of Certified and Corporate Accountants ;

(iii) Institute of Cost and Works Accountants ;

(iv) Institute of Municipal Treasurers and Accountants.

Note.—(1) For the Special Departmental Classes of Assistant Registrars of Co-operative Societies, an Honours Degree in Economics is preferable and for the Class of Produce Officers, the Honours Degree must be either in Agriculture or Economics.

(2) 'Recognised' in the above context means 'recognised by the Government of Western State of Nigeria'.

4. Candidates who are sitting for any of the above qualifications in 1969 will also be eligible for admission to the competition on the understanding that if they fail to secure the appropriate qualifications, they will automatically drop out of the competition.

5. The written examination will not be designed to test candidates on the subjects in which they hold degrees, but, to test their ability to think clearly and to understand and write English and also their knowledge of current affairs, with particular reference to West African Affairs. Notes for the guidance of candidates drawn up by the West African Examinations Council will be issued to all candidates in due course. The Examination will comprise the following papers :

(i) English.—(Precis and Critical Appreciation). This paper will consist of a precis of a passage supplemented by a question asking candidates to comment critically on the central idea of the passage.

(ii) Current Affairs.—This will be in two parts. Paper I will consist of three questions of the traditional Essay type, all of which must be answered. Paper II, an objective test, will consist of fifty questions, all of which must also be answered. In both papers the range of questions will be such as will cater for the graduate, the University student as well as the non-graduate. The questions are intended to test the intelligent awareness of current affairs which any educated person may reasonably be presumed to possess.

(iii) General.—This will consist of two questions—one will test ability to detect dubious thinking, and will contain short passages of which the Logical Force is to be discussed critically. The other will test ability to draw Statistical Inferences from a table of numerical data.

UNESCO

SPECIAL FUND APPOINTMENT

VACANCY

1. Title of post.—Evaluation Specialist (Functional Literacy).

2. Location.—New Delhi (India).

3. Background and functions.—The United Nations Development Programme (Special Fund) has approved preliminary operations for a project for Assistance to the Government of India in the field of Farmer Training and Functional Literacy. The Food and Agricultural Organisation of the United Nations has been designated as Participating and Executing Agency for the project with UNESCO as a Participating Agency.

During the last 2 or 3 years there has been a remarkable agricultural development in India. This is the cumulative achievement of years of effort. The farmers are now keen to use new farm technology and particularly the High Yielding Varieties seeds as their usefulness has been amply demonstrated. Comparatively higher agricultural prices have also motivated the farmers to seek a breakthrough from the old subsistence economy.

The Government of India has introduced a phased High Yielding Varieties Programme which until 1970-71 will cover an aggregate of 32 million acres, cultivated by 5 million farm families. The programme provides for comprehensive farmers' training, comprising appropriate water application, land management, tillage, fertilization, disease and weed control. Only literate farmers can make utmost use of the agricultural inputs and the farmers' training. They need literacy of a type which will enable them to solve farm and home problems in the context of agricultural changes referred to above. The programme provides for functional literacy instruction, group discussions, radio broadcasts, demonstration camps and short and medium duration courses.

The functional literacy component.—The functional literacy programme is being taken up in 3 districts in 1967-68, 10 in 1968-69, 75 in 1969-70, and 100 in 1970-71. Each district is to have 60 literacy centres; each centre will organize two six-month courses during a year for batches of about 30 participants.

The functional literacy programme will use a new type of primer and other reading materials based on farmers' interest, word lists and projected agricultural developments.

Evaluation.—Evaluation is conceived as a built-in programme of great importance. The project will have two international evaluation experts—one for functional literacy and another for farmers' training.

The evaluation specialist (functional literacy) will work with national evaluation experts and will be responsible for measuring—to the extent possible—the impact of functional literacy on agricultural productivity. The literacy inputs will have to be analysed and studied in relation to the outputs. Necessary emphasis will be laid on the study of educational achievements. A comparative study of alternative methods and media in education will be necessary. The following will be the functions of the evaluation specialist (functional literacy);

(1) To plan, organise, supervise and conduct continuing evaluation of the functional literacy programme in conformity with the methods and procedures laid down in the Guide and the other documents prepared or supplied by the UNESCO Secretariat from time to time.

(2) To co-operate very closely with the national evaluation staff, the evaluation specialist (farmers' training), other international experts working for the experimental project and international experts in similar projects in the area.

(3) To maintain close relationships with research and evaluation organisations in the country and to obtain their co-operation as needed from time to time for the evaluation of functional literacy and for any specific research studies in the field.

(4) To assist the international team of experts, national counterparts, etc., in collecting and interpreting data for programme planning, curriculum construction, material preparation, teacher training, etc.

(5) To offer needed guidance and assistance to the Chief Technical Adviser, the National Director of the Project, the national evaluation team and the staff entrusted with duties and responsibilities for evaluation, and thereby to ensure an effective evaluation of functional literacy.

(6) To help the national evaluation unit in improving competencies in research and evaluation.

(7) To undertake field work, collect data, tabulate and interpret them and prepare reports and working papers on evaluation.

(8) To advise the Chief Technical Adviser and, through him, UNESCO on all necessary measures for an objective and valid evaluation of the functional literacy project.

4. Qualifications required.—University degree or equivalent qualifications with advanced post-graduate training in Social Science including economics. Good knowledge of statistical methods and research design. Experience of research and project evaluation. If possible, some experience or knowledge in the field of education and agricultural (rural) development, preferably in developing countries.

5. Language qualifications.—Good knowledge of English.

6. Duration of appointment.—2 years, renewable (starting May 1969).

7. International salary and allowances.—(Net of national income tax—payable partly in the currency of the staff member's home or of the duty station).

Base salary per annum :

--	-----

Assignment allowance (expatriate allowance): the local equivalent of	$1,400
($1,100 if without dependants)

On separation from UNESCO, a repatriation grant is paid.

VACANCY

1. Title of post.—Expert in Librarianship.

2. Location.—The Higher Teachers' Training College, Kabul, Afghanistan.

3. Background and functions.—During the Second Five-Year Plan for the economic and social development of the Afghanistan, the Government, with the financial assistance of the United Nations Special Fund and with UNESCO as the Executing Agency, established in 1964 a co-educational Higher Teachers' College for training of teachers for middle schools, i.e., Grades 7, 8 and 9.

The College is providing a two-year course of studies in (a) a selected group of subjects related to the programme of the middle schools, and (b) professional subjects leading to the award, to those successfully completing the course, of a Diploma of Teaching (Middle schools).

Originally the project was planned to end in 1969 after an operational period of six years. In 1968, after the commencement of the Third Five-Year Plan, the Government requested and the UNDP agreed that a further two years should be added to the project life which now extends to 1971.

During this time, the Higher Teachers' College staff will work very closely with the Regional Educational Development Project which seeks to extend assistance in many fields of education in the provinces. One new Higher Teachers' College department will be established in Kandahar in 1968; and another is planned for Mazar-i-sharif in 1969.
