3. The central theme of the Exhibition is "Progress and Harmony for Mankind". This theme has been chosen by the Japanese organisers to convey the accomplishments of the human mind irrespective of national boundaries in the fields of thought, economic affairs, technology, science, arts, culture, hygiene and modern living.

4. It is generally agreed that Universal and International Exhibitions play an important role in advancing the civilization of man. The Japan World Exposition for 1970 is being organized in conformity with the Convention Relating to International Exhibitions of 1928.

In step with the Federal Military Government's policy of promoting the external trade relations and the cultural image of Nigeria, arrangements are now being made by the Federal Ministry of Trade, in conjunction with the Ministry of External Affairs for the erection of Nigeria's National Pavilion at the "Africa International Plaza" in the Expo' 70 and national exhibits would be on display to portray Nigeria's historical, social, cultural and economic achievements and aspirations consistent with those expected to be displayed at World Exhibitions. By means of photo-montages, arts and crafts, illustrative maps, charts, literature, locally produced goods, pamphlets and other visual aids, the Nigerian pavilion shall be geared specifically to attracting a very large number of visitors to the Exposition.

6. Nigerian scientists, social workers, authors, artists, craftsmen, export merchants, industrialists and businessmen generally who wish to have their works of art, books, pamphlets, social, cultural and investment proposals, and export products displayed at the Japan World Exposition, or businessmen who intend to visit the Expo' 70, at their own expense, in order to explore trade and investment possibilities in Japan, are cordially invited to furnish samples of
