WEST AFRICA EXAMINATION BOARD
ROYAL SOCIETY OF HEALTH

CONDITIONS OF ADMISSION TO THE SCHOOL OF HYGIENE

All candidates presenting themselves for the examination of the Royal Society of Health, West Africa Examination Board are hereby notified—

(i) that 1969 would be the last time when students without G.C.E. or West African School Certificate would be allowed to sit for the Royal Society of Health examinations. Students with G.C.E. qualification should possess passes in 5 subjects (including English) obtained at not more than two sittings;

(ii) that each country could set a local examination for students without G.C.E. or School Certificate who have completed the full 3-year course of training, but this would not entitle them to the R.S.H. Certificate;

(iii) that students who were admitted into Schools before 1969, without the School Certificate or G.C.E. may be given the opportunity to obtain either of these qualifications before they are due to sit the R.S.H. examination. Nobody without G.C.E. or School Certificate would be allowed to sit the R.S.H. examination after 1969.
