Government Notice No. 594

KINSHASA INTERNATIONAL TRADE FAIR 24TH
JUNE TO 11TH JULY, 1971

The Federal Military Government has approved official Nigerian participation in the forthcoming Kinshasa International Trade Fair. The Fair is being organised by the Government of the Democratic Republic of the Congo and its duration will be from 24th June to 11th July, 1971. A number of African and European countries are expected to take part in the Fair.

In their brochure the Kinshasa Fair Authorities have stated that the Fair will be geared to the promotion and development of commercial as well as cultural exchanges between the Democratic Republic of the Congo and friendly countries. Apart from strengthening the existing friendly relations between Nigeria and Congo-Kinshasa, the Kinshasa Fair evidently offers a tremendous opportunity to exporting Nigerian firms and manufacturers in further developing their business contacts with the Congo.

In order to secure suitable exhibits in sufficient quantities and ensure full participation of the private sector, manufacturing firms, merchants and producers of various types of goods are invited to forward free samples of their products to the Foreign Trade Division of the Federal Ministry of Trade, Yakubu Gowon Street Building, 4th Floor, Room 408, Lagos, not later than Saturday, 15th May, 1971. It is to be stressed that, where possible, samples should be forwarded with their prices, catalogues, and display materials to mount up the samples.
