UNESCO VACANCY

POST DESCRIPTION

Ref. 123

Title of post.—Programme Specialist (Technical Education).

Post number.—EP-924.

Category and level.—Professional Category (P.5).

Organizational location.—Division of Educational Financing Department of Planning and Financing of Education.

Duties and responsibilities.—Unesco seeks to promote the practical realization of educational financing projects by co-operating with the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development and the International Development Association. Specifically, Unesco and the Bank* co-operate together in the following fields:

(1) assisting countries of common membership in the identification and preparation of educational projects of types which fall within Unesco's field of responsibility and which in the framework of its economic development objectives and general policies, the Bank is willing to consider for financing;

(2) appraising projects of the foregoing types;

(3) providing end-use supervision of the execution and operation of Bank-financed projects of the foregoing types;

(4) arranging for technical assistance required for the implementation of Bank-financed projects.

Members of the Educational Financing Division participate in the execution of the above-mentioned co-operative programme. They are expected to travel frequently, usually as members of a team, to countries in different parts of the world; the duration of each mission varies from one to six weeks. The preparation of concise and analytic reports on a national system of education or particular sectors of such assistance form an integral part of the work involved; this is normally done at Unesco's Headquarters in Paris.

Qualifications and experience required:

(a) Candidates for this post should have maturity, breadth and variety of educational experience over a period of more than ten years, having passed through successively more difficult and responsible assignments in education, including current or very recent experience in educational administration at a high level.

(b) Candidates should have an advanced degree in engineering, with practical experience of industrial training programmes. They should have experience of curriculum design in particular with regard to the relation of technical and vocational to general education.
