(a) Application forms and further detailed information should be obtained, in the case of schools presenting candidates for this examination for the first time, as follows :—

(i) Principals of Lagos State Schools and Schools in the East-Central State, Rivers and South-Eastern States wishing to enter candidates, should obtain application forms and information from the Principal of King's College, Lagos.

(ii) Principals of schools in the Western and Kwara States, should obtain such forms and information from the Principal of Queen's College, Lagos.

(iii) Principals of Schools in the Mid-Western State should obtain forms and information from the Principal, Federal Government College, Warri.

(iv) Principals of schools in the North-Western, North-Central, Kano, North-Eastern and Benue-Plateau States should obtain forms and information from the Principal, Federal Government College, Sokoto.

(b) In the case of schools which presented candidates for this examination in 1971, application forms and information will be sent for the 1972 examination without further demand. Such schools whose addresses have changed should notify the respective centres from which they should receive forms and papers as in (a) above. Any such schools which have received no forms by mid-January should request them.

(c) As in the past, each school will be responsible for incidental costs incurred in administering this examination on behalf of its candidates at the school centre.

(d) All completed application forms must be returned before 1st February, 1972, to the Principal of the Federal College from which they were obtained, in envelopes marked "HIGHER SCHOOL CERTIFICATE COURSE 1973-74". Late entries will not be entertained.

(e) Fees.—Each application form, must be returned as in (c) above with a Treasury Receipt for 10s (No postal order, money order, cheque or cash will be accepted.) All fees are to be credited to revenue Head 5 Fees—Sub-head 8 of the Federal Estimates.

2. The competition will consist of :

- (a) a qualifying written examination conducted by the West African Examinations Council ;
- (b) a series of tests and interviews conducted by the Public Service Selection Board ; and
- (c) an interview by the Public Service Commission.

Only candidates who attain the qualifying standard in the written examination will be invited for the tests and interviews to be conducted by the Public Service Selection Board. The Public Service Commission will subsequently select, in the light of the performances of such candidates, those who will be interviewed by the Commission.

3. Qualifications :

(a) Officers not yet in East-Central State Service.—To be eligible to enter for the competition a candidate, who is not already in the Public Service of the East-Central State of Nigeria, should either possess the following qualifications or be sitting for them in the course of the year, viz ;

(i) Administrative Class.—(a) First or Second-class Honours Degree, or a higher Degree, preferably in Arts, Economics, or other Social Sciences from a recognised University.

4. The purpose of the written examination is not to test the candidates in the subjects which they studied for their degrees, but to test their ability to think clearly, to understand and write English and also to test their knowledge of current affairs, particularly West African affairs. Notes for the guidance of candidates, drawn up by the West African Examinations Council will be issued to all candidates by the Council in due course.

5. The written examination will consist of the following papers :—

(i) English (Precis and Critical Appreciation).—This will consist of a fairly long and complex passage and candidates will be required to summarize it in their own words and to make critical comments on its central idea.

(ii) Current Affairs.—This will comprise two separate papers, one of which will be a paper of three compulsory questions of the traditional essay type and the other an objective test of fifty questions. The questions are designed to test the candidates' intelligent awareness of current affairs which any educated person may be presumed to possess.

(iii) General.—This will consist of two questions. The first, known as the "Logical Force Passage", will test the candidates' ability to detect dubious thinking and the second known as "Statistical Inference Question", will test their ability to draw correct inferences from a table of numerical data.

6. The written examination will be held at the following centres :

Lagos, Ibadan, Enugu, Benin-City, Onitsha, Zaria, Accra, Freetown, London, Washington and at such other centres as may be determined later.

The dates and centres of the sitting of the Public Service Selection Board will be announced later.

7. Candidates will be responsible for arranging and meeting the cost of their accommodation and transport.

8. Each candidate will be required to pay a fee of £5-5s-0d which will not be refundable. No responsibility will be accepted for money sent in any manner other than the one prescribed in paragraph 9 below.

9. Method of application.—Candidates who have already applied for appointment to any of the classes mentioned in paragraph 1 above should, if in Nigeria, send to the Secretary, Public Service Commission, Enugu, crossed Postal or Money Order for the examination fee of £5-5s-0d each. If outside Nigeria, the candidates should send the fee of £5-5s-0d each by crossed Money Order or crossed Postal Order to the authority to whom he addressed his application. The name of the applicant should be inscribed on the reverse side of the Money or Postal Order and the serial number(s) of such Postal or Money Orders should be recorded in the accompanying application form or letter.

10. Candidates who have not yet applied, but who wish to do so, should send their fees in the manner described above, together with their applications on the official forms, to the Secretary, Public Service Commission, Enugu, if they are in West Africa or to the Nigeria High Commission (Recruitment Section), 9 Northumberland Avenue, London, W.C. 2, if they are in Europe, or to the Chancery, Embassy of Nigeria, 1333, Sixteenth Street, N.W. Washington, D.C. 20036, if they are in the United States of America or Canada.

11. Closing date.—In all cases, applications and fees will be accepted up to and including, 15th December, 1971, but not after. Intending candidates who had earlier submitted applications, but who for some reason may be in doubt about whether or not they will be accepted on the basis of such applications on the payment of the prescribed examination fee of £5-5s-0d are advised to submit fresh applications along with their fees.

12. Instructions as to the date, time and place of the examination will be sent direct to candidates by the West African Examinations Council.

Duties.—(a) To serve as Scientific Adviser to the Commonwealth Secretariat and to assist it to maintain effective liaison with the Commonwealth Scientific Committee and with other Commonwealth and international scientific and technological organisations.

(b) To act as Secretary to both the Commonwealth Scientific Committee and its Consultative Committee and to organise the meetings of these bodies and prepare their Agenda.

(c) To implement the policies and decisions of the Commonwealth Scientific Committee as determined at its biennial meetings.

(d) To establish and maintain through frequent visits and other means, personal contact with the scientific organisations of member countries.

(e) To encourage greater contact between scientific institutions and between scientists working in related fields.

(f) To provide member countries with information to assist them in developing their own scientific policies and scientific structures.

(g) To provide developing countries with information about the various sources of Commonwealth and international assistance in science and the channels through which bilateral or multilateral assistance may be sought.

(h) To recommend to the Commonwealth Scientific Committee on useful Commonwealth activities and on further opportunities for scientific collaboration.

To carry out these duties, it will be necessary for the appointee :—

(a) to co-operate with the Directors of Divisions and other senior officers in the Commonwealth Secretariat to explore ways and means by which science and technology can support the other professional and development programmes, and vice versa ;

(b) to acquaint himself with the scientific organization and broad lines of research in Commonwealth countries and gain a knowledge of sources of more detailed information ;

(c) to make regular visits to Commonwealth countries, particularly those where scientific effort is in its early stages of development, and to acquaint himself with the individuals and organizations responsible for the scientific effort and with the problems being encountered ; and

(d) to become familiar with existing assistance schemes and with relevant consultants and advisers in Commonwealth countries and international agencies.

The terms of the appointment are :

(i) Salary £2,750-150-3,650 per annum, net of tax.

(ii) Overseas allowance of £1,250 per annum, net of tax.

(iii) Allowance for furnished residential accommodation of up to a maximum of £2,340 per annum for a married man with 4 or more children.

(iv) Accountable entertainment allowance of up to £400 a year.

(v) An educational allowance as provided for in the Staff Rules which will not exceed £400 per year per dependent child in the case of attendance at a day school and £500 per year per dependent child in the case of attendance at a boarding school.

(vi) One-time installation grant of £300.

These emoluments, and those of other senior officers of the Secretariat are currently being reviewed by a Committee of Experts drawn from Commonwealth Governments.

The officer selected will be entitled to travel expenses to London for himself and the dependent members of his family. He will enjoy the status of a Director of a Division of the Commonwealth Secretariat and will have diplomatic immunities and privileges. The Secretariat will be pleased to take steps to safeguard his pension rights if he is a beneficiary in any existing pension scheme.

The appointment will be for a minimum period of four years.

If the candidate selected is a career member of a government service, which is not of course a necessary condition of appointment, his position in that service could be retained and he could be seconded to the Commonwealth Secretariat, if his Government is agreeable, either on leave without pay, when he would be entitled to the emoluments mentioned above, or on leave with pay. In the latter case, his government would pay him appropriate salary and allowances and the Secretariat would reimburse his government the emoluments paid to him, up to the maximum limit of the Secretariat scale.

Methods of application.—Applications should be addressed to the Secretary, Federal Public Service Commission, P.M.B. 12586, Lagos, to reach him not later than 22nd January, 1972.

(ii) Applications from candidates in Government Service should be submitted through the applicant's Head of Department and in the case of State Officers they should be routed through the appropriate Public Service Commission. Applications from serving officers should be accompanied by confidential reports on the prescribed form.
