BLOCKS OF OFFICES FOR FEDERAL MILITARY GOVERNMENT OF NIGERIA SECRETARIAT
PROJECT, LAGOSAIR-CONDITIONING AND ELECTRICAL INSTALLATIONS

The Federal Military Government proposes to build multi-storey blocks of offices in Ikoyi, Lagos, through international tendering procedure which allows companies/firms in Nigeria or overseas to tender for this project on a competitive bidding basis. Contractors registered in Category B of the Mechanical and Electrical Register of the Federal Works Registration Board who wish to be considered for the issue of the tender documents should indicate their interest by forwarding letters of intent clearly marked "THE SECRETARIAT PROJECT" and addressed to the Permanent Secretary, and marked for the attention of the Director of Mechanical and Electrical Services, to reach him not later than Saturday, 25th November, 1972.

2. An architect's representation of the blocks of offices may be seen at the office of the Chief Project Architect, Room 130, Federal Ministry of Works and Housing, Race Course, Lagos, during office hours.

3. Letters of intent should contain amongst other things the following details which would be used as criteria for pre-qualification of tenderers :—

(a) Experience of previous air-conditioning and/or electrical installation projects of a similar nature and similar magnitude undertaken, indicating the name and address of client. A vivid description of the project(s) should be given together with photographs, if available.

(b) Executive capacity in respect of experienced and qualified personnel, equipment and plant.

(c) Financial capacity to undertake the project successfully.

4. The Federal Military Government is not bound to execute this project through the international or any other tender procedure and reserves to itself the right to execute the project in any manner which it considers most satisfactory.

Post title (Post No., Project).—TICK ECOLOGIST OPAS). Improvement of Tick Control, URT/72/109/A/01/12.

Vacancy announcement.—No. 785-AGA-270-A.

Date issued: 22nd May, 1972.

Closing date.—17th July, 1972.

Duty station.—Mwanza or Iring.

Duration.—3 years.

Starting date.—As soon as possible.

Background.—It is recognized in Tanzania that tickborne diseases, in particular East Coast Fever, are among the most serious constraints to the Animal Industry. They are reported to have caused 16,000 deaths in 1966, not counting the numerous unrecorded casualties which no doubt are attributable in a large part to these diseases as well. Therefore, the Government has initiated a comprehensive tick control scheme, and in fact has made dipping compulsory on a national basis by law. The Government has requested UNDP to assist with this scheme by providing 3 experts, e.g. one tickborne diseases epizootologist, one tick ecologist, and one acaricide chemist.

Duties.—He will be responsible for:

carrying out an ecological study of the tick problem in Tanzania with a view to:

determining optimal dipping regimes and the possibility of restricting dipping activities to certain periods of the year;

studying the effect of dipping on the tick population;

conducting training courses for technicians in tick ecology and tick identification;

in collaboration with other workers, undertaking investigations into tick resistance to acaricides, and advising the Government on means to overcome this problem.

Qualifications.—University degree in zoology; post-graduate qualification in entomology and ecology.

Experience.—Seven years' experience in tick studies, preferably in Africa.

Language.—Good knowledge of English.

Emoluments.—Salaries and benefits are liberal, commensurate with the responsibilities of the post and in line with the depth and breadth of training and experience.

Method of application.—Applications to reach Central Recruitment (Professional) Personnel Division, FAO, via delle Terme di Caracalla, 00100-Rome, Italy, by 17th July, 1972. Quote : 785-AGA-270-A.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF FIELD POST VACANCY IN THE FOOD AND AGRICULTURE ORGANIZATION OF THE UNITED NATIONS

Post title (Post No., Project).—AGRICULTURAL AGROMETEOROLOGIST Development of Oil Palm Product (MALAYSIA 29).

Vacancy announcement.—No. 879-AGP-152.

Date issued.—4th September, 1972.

Closing date.—30th October, 1972.

Duty station.—FLDA Res. Centre, Tekam, 150 miles north-east of Kuala Lumpur.

Duration.—2 years.

Starting date.—As soon as possible.

Background.—The Federal Land Development Authority plans to develop new settlements for palm oil production in some 59 areas comprising 250,000 acres throughout West Malaysia during the period 1971-75. The location of these settlements, which will be exploited by farmers receiving 10 acres each, will be based on suitable soil and climate conditions.

Detailed studies on palm production will have to take particularly into account the influence of meteorological factors on palm behaviour as well as soil physics in relation to water and fertilizer movements; the amount of information to be gathered will require for its analysis and interpretation modern computation methods.

Duties.—The agrometeorologist to be recruited will have to act as team leader of the three specialists already provided by the Malaysian Government, and who work in the following disciplines:

Agricultural biometeorology;

Hydrology and soil physics;

Systems analysis and data processing.

Besides his general mission of co-ordinating the above studies, his function will be to provide climatological advice and biometeorological interpretation for use in connection with land use planning, management of settlement schemes and day-to-day operating and marketing decisions.

This work will include the establishment of a central station and of network of substations throughout Malaysia, and the analysis of the biometeorological data in relation to palm development growth and yield.

Qualifications.—Degree in agronomy with specialisation in agricultural meteorology.

Experience.—7 years in tropical areas.

Post title (Post No., Project).—FISHING TECHNOLOGIST (TRAINING) (Scheduled in Country Programme).

Vacancy announcement.—No. 885-FID-88.

Date issued.—15th September, 1972.

Closing date.—10th November, 1972.

Duty station.—Kingston, Jamaica.

Duration.—3 years.

Starting date.—January 1973.

Background.—The best prospect for expansion of the fishing industry is felt to be in the exploitation of snapper on the off-shore and Central American bank. This will necessitate the use of gulf-type vessels and some 30 of these have been planned over the next 5 years. The establishment of a fishing terminal with storage and marketing facilities will be essential. Drydock facilities for boats up to 100 ft. are under construction. Crews for the new vessels will require training. Assistance is needed in organizing and conducting courses in navigation, fishing techniques and the maintenance and operation of electronic instruments.

Duties.—Working with a large degree of independence, to plan and implement a programme of demonstration fishing ; advise officials on operation and maintenance of Government vessels and equipment, to conduct fishermen's training and to advise industry and Government personnel on fishing vessels, gear and operations.

Qualifications.—Not essential.

Experience.—8 years' commercial fishing experience using a variety of fishing gear and methods.

Language.—English.

Other.—Experience in training and fleet management desirable.

Emoluments.—Salaries and benefits are liberal, commensurate with the responsibilities of the post and in line with the depth and breadth of training and experience.

Method of application.—Applications to reach Central Recruitment (Professional) Personnel Division, FAO, via delle Terme di Caracalla, 00100-Rome, Italy, by 10th November, 1972. Quote : 885-FID-88.

Date issued.—15th September, 1972.

Closing date.—10th November, 1972.

Duty station.—La Ceiba, Honduras.

Duration.—Two years.

Starting date.—January 1973.

Background.—As part of the endeavour to restructure the fisheries sector, it is thought necessary to train the artisanal fishermen in the use of modern equipment, in the use of motorized boats, and in the improved handling of the catch both at sea and onshore.

Duties.—Working with a large degree of independence, to demonstrate to local fishermen construction and operation of improved fishing gear and methods; to train fishermen in the use of these methods; to identify areas and suitable fishing gear for expansion of local fisheries; to identify training needs and recommend means for meeting them; and to identify major constraints to expansion of production and recommend solutions.

Qualifications.—Academic not essential.

Experience.—Seven years' commercial fishing experience using a variety of gear and methods.

Language.—Spanish.

Other.—Experience working with Artisanal fishermen desirable.

Emoluments.—Salaries and benefits are liberal, commensurate with the responsibilities of the post and in line with the depth and breadth of training and experience.
