Other benefits.—Installation allowance, education grant for children, repatriation grant upon termination of assignment, 30 working days' annual leave, home leave travel with eligible dependants every two years, social security benefits.

Description of duties.—A Workshop organised jointly by the ILO, the ECA and the YWCA on the participation of women to handicrafts and small industries will be held late in 1974 for the English speaking countries of Africa in an East African country.

The Workshop will focus on planning training programmes and strategies for income-generating activities which are geared to actual or potential markets.

The consultant would be responsible, under the direction of the ILO and ECA, for the production of a handbook and reference materials for the project leaders and trainers in handicrafts and small-scale industries in African countries. The teaching material to be prepared by the consultant would deal with non-vocational skills as may be required for self or group employment in handicraft and small industries (fundamentals of economics, costing, book-keeping, quality requirements, co-operatives, marketing, management and other supporting knowledge, possible for the application of a modular training system).

The main tasks of the consultant would be:

1. To review as far as possible the material available from ILO, World YWCA and other appropriate sources.
2. To adapt the material for use by trainers of illiterate women and school-leaver girls and for these students themselves as possible.
3. To advise and assist in the methods to be applied for the production of new teaching material (where gaps exist) and if possible to prepare guidelines for such material.

Qualifications required.—University degree or equivalent recognised formal professional training to a level appropriate for the assignment in pedagogy applied preferably to handicrafts training. Experience in the training of teachers of handicrafts would be desirable.

Extensive knowledge of and experience in the field of handicrafts and small industries, and production of teaching material, preferably in developing countries.

Language.—Good knowledge of English.
