Other benefits.—Installation allowance, education grant for children, repatriation grant upon termination of assignment, 30 working days' annual leave, home leave travel with eligible dependants every two years, social security benefits.

Description of duties.—1. To make an actuarial analysis and evaluation of the social security (social insurance) scheme, which has been in operation since 1953 under the Law of 21st January, 1953 as modified by the Laws of 16th July, 1955 ; 11th May, 1960 ; 7th and 27th January, 1969 and 7th July, 1970. This scheme is to be modified again by a law to be passed early in 1975 and of which the draft Bill has been submitted to Parliament.

2. To include in the analysis of the said scheme actuarial estimates with a view to fixing appropriate contribution rates to ensure the financial equilibrium of the scheme.

3. To make recommendations and advise on the financial organisation of the scheme, to draw up financial regulations and to advise on the management and control of investments of the assets of the scheme.

4. To prepare cost estimates of the existing and proposed medical care benefits provided by the scheme and which are to be financed wholly or partly by the contributions of insured persons.

5. To design and advise on the establishment, within the Ministry of Social Welfare, on a programme of social security statistics so as to facilitate future evaluations of the scheme.

Background information.—In June 1974 the Ministry of Social Welfare was established and assigned a wide range of responsibilities for social security, both cash benefits and medical care as well as social welfare and rehabilitation. The enlargement of the coverage and the benefits, both cash benefits and medical services made by the draft Bill which is shortly to be enacted (see paragraph 1 above) are not envisaged as final and further modification will be under preparation during the course of actuarial adviser's assignment. These further modifications are expected to be enacted within a further period of approximately two years. The actuarial adviser may be required to advise on the financial aspects of these further modifications. On all aspects of the above assignment relating to medical care the Actuarial adviser is expected to collaborate closely with the advisers to the Ministry of Social Welfare appointed by the World Health Organisation.

The Adviser will be one of a joint ILO/WHO team which will include a Social Security General Adviser (Co-ordinator of the Project) ; a Social Security Adviser in Procedures and Organisation ; a Social Security Actuarial Adviser ; a Social Security Accountant ; an Expert in Electronic Data Processing ; a Medical Care Expert and an Expert in Health Insurance Planning and Evaluation.

Qualifications required.—Recognised actuary.

Language.—English.
