WESTERN NIGERIA MARKETING BOARD
APPOINTMENT OF LICENSED BUYING
AGENTS UNDER THE 1977 PALM KER-
NELS AND PALM OIL MARKETING
SCHEME FOR ONDO STATE

It is notified for general information that the Board is prepared to consider applications from persons, firms, etc. in any of the three States of Oyo, Ondo and Ogun for appointment as licensed buying agents under the 1977 Palm Kernels and Palm Oil Marketing Schemes.

2. An applicant will be required to produce evidence that he is able to fulfil the minimum conditions set out in the following paragraphs, which are based on :—

(a) the normal functions which a licensed buying agent is required to perform under the existing marketing schemes ;

(b) ability to purchase with reasonable regularity throughout the duration of the scheme the following minimum quantities :—

Palm Kernels	600 tonnes
Palm Oil	175 tonnes

(c) stipulated conditions as regards storage, evacuation, etc,

3. FUNCTIONS OF LICENSED BUYING AGENTS

The main functions which licensed buying agents will be required to perform on behalf of the Board are :—

(i) to grade palm kernels and palm oil at gazetted buying stations ;

(ii) to bag and arrange for inspection in accordance with the regulations ;

(iii) to provide suitable storage until the time of evacuation to port ;

(iv) to make returns of gradings and stocks as the Board or its duly authorised executive may require ;

(v) to arrange for conveyance delivery of palm kernels and palm oil to VON and Apapa according to instructions which may be issued from time to time by the Board's Executive.

4. MINIMUM CONDITIONS

(a) Applicants will be required to produce acceptable evidence of their ability to provide the necessary capital to finance their purchases. The minimum capital requirements are as follows :—

Palm Kernels	₦8,000.00
Palm Oil	₦6,000.00

Applicants will be required to forward, as evidence of their ability to satisfy the minimum capital requirement, copies of their bank statement for the six months preceding the date of application, duly certified by their bankers. Only applications to which such bank statements have been attached will be considered.

(b) Applicants must show that they possess enough drums/casks to cover the minimum purchase requirements of palm oil.

(c) Applicants must produce evidence of necessary organisation to ensure proper performance of the duties of a licensed buying agent.

Other benefits.—Installation allowance, education grant for children, repatriation grant upon termination of assignment, 30 working days' annual leave, home leave travel with eligible dependants every 2 years, social security benefits.

Description of duties :

General.—Under the general supervision of the Chief Technical Adviser serves as a member of a team of international specialists in various fields of management and productivity. The team is responsible for developing members of the national professional staff of the Management Training and Advisory Centre in Kampala, who are allocated to serve as counterparts, so that the counterparts can eventually take over full responsibility of running the Centre.

Specific.—1. To assist the Head of the Consultancy Division and his team of national staff in assessing requirements for further management training and development at various supervisory, functional and management levels in enterprises, companies, industrial and commercial corporations, boards, agencies and government departments.

2. To assist in designing and executing an integrated programme of management training and consulting with an emphasis on tailor-made training courses, programmes and seminars for selected industrial sectors and specific organisations.

3. To assist in setting up training units in state agencies and institutions, larger corporations, boards, banks, enterprises, etc. as required. The training units will be staffed with qualified personnel, who, in co-operation with MTAC consultants, are capable of auditing the training needs of their enterprises and to establish and conduct training plans and programmes using internal and external resources.

4. To assist in the preparation of a Master Training Plan for designated priority enterprises and to undertake continuous revision and up-dating of such management development plans taking into account the potential of key personnel and the accelerating of their development and promotion through training. The Master Training Plan so developed should become a feature of the Staff Career Development Scheme of each large enterprise. It should encompass general, production, financial and personnel management for the training of senior and middle-level managers and supervisors.

5. To assist in the preparation and conducting of "sandwich" type training programmes, tailor-made to specific needs of enterprises as emerging from consultancy assignments defined and condensed as part of a master scheme or plan drawn up in co-operation with the management and the training units of the enterprises concerned.

6. To assist in organising "standard" courses for enterprises not yet exposed to consultancy assignments or unable to afford development and conduct of own training programmes. To assist in designing and implementing a system to cater for these needs.

7. To assist in establishing a MTAC "task force" of trainers/consultants capable of undertaking and implementing full-time consultancy assignments in larger enterprises. It is proposed to break up the task force into several teams, each with a leader responsible for operations in one enterprise.

8. To assist the "task force" in operations started in a few pilot enterprises and in increasingly extending its work as it gains experience and reaches its full strength. Each team should consist of trainers/consultants specialised particularly in management systems, enterprise structure and organisation, management accounting, production management and fully familiar with training methodology.

9. To assist in training approximately 20 "in-house" training personnel each year who would advise and assist their corporations, banks, boards, government agencies and departments, to set up and operate consultant units of their own.

10. To assist MTAC in setting up a section specialised in training trainers for government agencies, business and particularly industry with a view to encouraging them to set up and operate training units. To assist in preparing courses for training trainers.

11. To co-operate closely with other members of the team of experts and to complete other assignments in the field of management training and consultancy as may be required.

Qualifications required.—(a) University degree in Business Administration, Management or equivalent professional qualifications.

(b) Extensive experience in designing and conducting management consulting assignments.

(c) Experience in a professional capacity in preparing and implementing programmes of management development for various levels of managers and supervisors in industry and economic sectors.

(d) Teaching experience including a sound knowledge and practice in modern teaching methods for management development.

(e) A positive, healthy, adaptable personality, including ability to develop effective working relationships with people of different points of view and cultural backgrounds; above average tact, patience, diplomacy, courage and capacity for leadership.

Language.—English.
