Government Notice No. 888

ANNOUNCEMENT OF FIELD POST VACANCY IN THE FOOD AND AGRICULTURE ORGANIZATION OF THE

UNITED NATIONS

Post title (Post No., Project).—FISH UTILIZATION AND DISTRIBUTION EXPERT PROJECT FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF SMALL-SCALE FISHERIES IN THE BAY OF BENGAL TF/RAS/40 (SWE).

Vacancy announcement.—No. FID-320.

Date issued.—6th June, 1978.

Closing date.—1st August, 1978.

Duty station.—Madras, Tamilnadu State, India.

Duration.—4 years.

Starting date.—As soon as possible.

Background.—The purpose of the project is to assist participating countries to improve the standard of living and the quality of life of their small-scale fisherman families and to increase supplies of fish.

The immediate objectives of the project are :

(i) improvement of existing technology and introduction of new technology ;

(ii) promotion of and direct assistance to research and development programmes of existing national institutions in support of (i) above ;

(iii) strengthening of existing extension services with special emphasis on improvement of training facilities for extension workers ;

(iv) training, in particular of medium-level management and operating staff of small fishery enterprises ;

(v) strengthening of fishermen's associations and, where appropriate, their role in fish marketing ;

(vi) data collection and analysis relevant to small-scale fisheries.

Duties.—Under the general supervision and direction of the Project Manager, the incumbent will be responsible for the co-ordination of all the work of the project in the field of fish handling, processing storage, distribution and marketing. In particular, the incumbent will :

be responsible for the design, construction and operation of village fish handling and storage systems set up as project activities ;

take the overall responsibility of liaison with and advice to manufacturers of suitable equipment in the project countries ;

travel extensively in the project area rendering advisory services to government agencies and private individuals on all aspects of fish handling, distribution and marketing ;

stimulate contacts between the project and national fish technology institutes in the project area and actively pursue the transfer of technology from the institutes to the fishing communities ; carry out other duties as directed.

Qualifications.—A university degree, or equivalent qualifications from a recognised institution, in food technology, engineering or a related science.

Experience.—Extensive professional experience of minimum 5 to 7 years in fish technology, including handling, storage and distribution of fresh fish in tropical countries.

Language.—An excellent knowledge of English.

Other.—Experience in fish processing, particularly in the production of dried fish, would be an advantage.

Ability to work as a member of a multidisciplinary team made up of a number of nationalities. The ability to write lucid reports is important but so is the ability to communicate findings both to government officers and members of fishing communities. The ability to live and work under difficult field conditions for a considerable proportion of the time is an essential qualification.

Emoluments.—Salaries and benefits are liberal, commensurate with the responsibilities of the post and in line with the depth and breadth of training and experience.

ALL ANNOUNCEMENTS OF VACANCY INVITE BOTH MALE AND FEMALE CANDIDATES.

Candidates may be requested to provide satisfactory evidence of the educational qualifications shown in their applications. Appointments to vacant positions may depend upon the candidate selected providing such evidence for inclusion in his official personnel file.
