INTERNATIONAL LABOUR OFFICE
TECHNICAL CO-OPERATION PROGRAMME
ANNOUNCEMENT OF VACANCY

Country.—Iran.

Project Code.—PAK/

Date issued.—September 1978.

Closing date for applications.—No fixed date.

General field.—Industrial Management.

Title of post.—Managerial Manpower Adviser.

Duty station.—Islamabad, with travel elsewhere in Pakistan.

Duration of appointment.—6 months.

Desirable starting date.—1st January, 1979.

Terms of appointment.—On the basis of international agreements or national law relating to presence or residence abroad, ILO salaries and emoluments are generally tax exempt. In the absence of exemption, tax paid will be reimbursed in accordance with an ILO document which will be supplied upon request. Although quoted in US dollars, the salaries and emoluments are payable partly in the currency of the home country and partly in the currency of the duty station.

Net monthly salary.—Between US $2,024.83 and US $2,400.75. (The initial salary of the appointee will be fixed in accordance with his/her qualifications and experience).

Daily subsistence allowance.—Rupee 420 per day during the first 60 days, Rupee 315 per day thereafter.

Other benefits.—2½ working days' leave per month, social security benefits.

Description of duties.—The adviser will be attached to the Board of Industrial Management (BIM), and will report directly to the Chairman of BIM.

The overall purpose of the adviser's assignment in Pakistan is :

(i) to review and evaluate in detail the present status of manpower development in the public corporations falling under BIM's jurisdiction, with particular reference to their management training and development requirements in the light of the Government's objectives for industrial development ;

(ii) on the basis of this review and evaluation, to draw up an outline manpower development scheme for both the short and medium-term, laying particular emphasis on (a) priority functions (e.g. production management, personnel management) ; (b) training of new entrants and retraining/upgrading of existing managers ;

(iii) to determine, in consultation with training and development institutions in Pakistan and in particular the Pakistan Institute of Management, the available resources for implementing the manpower development plan, and on that basis to (a) establish the requirement for building up/enhancing management training competence within BIM ; (b) develop a network collaborating institutions and programmes to meet the plan's objectives ;

(iv) to implement, to the extent possible within this initial assignment, orientation and training programmes responding to the most urgent needs of public corporations ;

(v) to design and, if appropriate, implement an overseas group training programme for senior BIM officials concerned with manpower development to enable them to study training systems employed in public sector corporations elsewhere and to establish professional contacts that might be fruitful in a TCDC or "twinning" context ;

(vi) to determine the nature and scope of further ILO and other external assistance beyond the six months of the consultancy assignment, and to prepare and obtain approval of a project to give effect to that assistance, ensuring that there is no loss of continuity (note : such follow-up assistance may not necessarily be restricted to strengthening directly the training capability of BIM since other institutions in the network drawn up to meet the public corporations' manpower development needs may themselves require assistance to discharge their function effectively).

The adviser will be at the disposal of the BIM and, where appropriate, other departments of the Government for advice and assistance on all matters concerning manpower (and, particularly, management) development in the public sector.

A further anticipated output from the adviser's assignment will be a much clearer picture of the resources and potential available in Pakistan for satisfying present and future managerial manpower needs, leading to a more co-ordinated and cohesive approach to the problem.

Qualifications required.—Superior academic and professional qualifications in business administration and management training ; extensive experience in planning and conducting management development programmes ; broad experience in management consultancy and institution building for management development ; broad knowledge of management practice and theory in industrialised and in developing countries.

Language.—Excellent knowledge of English.

Applications from both men and women will be equally welcome.
