 - a. the economic impact of the government action, although the fact that an action or series of actions by a Contracting Party has an adverse effect on the economic value of an investment, standing alone, does not establish that an indirect expropriation has occurred;
 - b. the extent to which the government action breaches the government's prior binding written commitment to the investor whether by contract, licence or other legal document; and

- c. the character of the government action, including its objective and whether the action is to the public purpose referred above.

Accordingly, a Contracting Party should not waive or otherwise derogate from, or offer to waive or otherwise derogate from, such measures as an encouragement for the establishment, expansion or retention in its territory of an investment of an investor, as long as such derogation or waiver diminish its public health, security, labour and environmental standards.
