PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that this is essential for the proper management of the organization's finances and for ensuring compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

2. The second part of the document outlines the specific procedures that should be followed when recording transactions. This includes the use of standardized forms and the requirement that all entries be supported by appropriate documentation.

3. The third part of the document discusses the importance of regular audits and reviews of the financial records. It notes that these activities are necessary to identify any errors or irregularities and to ensure that the records are accurate and complete.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining the confidentiality of financial information. It notes that this information is often sensitive and that its disclosure could have serious consequences for the organization.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining the integrity of the financial records. It notes that this requires the use of secure systems and the implementation of strict controls to prevent unauthorized access or modification of the data.

6. The sixth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining the accuracy of the financial records. It notes that this requires the use of reliable data and the implementation of strict controls to ensure that all transactions are recorded correctly.

7. The seventh part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining the completeness of the financial records. It notes that this requires the use of appropriate controls to ensure that all transactions are recorded and that no entries are omitted.

8. The eighth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining the timeliness of the financial records. It notes that this requires the use of appropriate controls to ensure that all transactions are recorded as soon as they occur.

THE CASINO (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1986

(Bill No. 16 of 1986)

(To be presented by the Minister for Commerce, Industry and Tourism)

MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The object of this Bill is to amend the Casino Act, 1963 so as to provide for a casino which could be operated or managed separately from the hotel to which it is attached or within whose premises it is situate and to provide for the manner in which the casino levy shall be determined and to effect other amendments to that Act and to provide for matters incidentally thereto.

D.P. MAKANZA
Attorney—General

A BILL entitled

An Act to amend the Casino Act, 1963.

ENACTED by the King and the Parliament of Swaziland.

Short title and commencement.

1. This Act may be cited as the Casino (Amendment) Act, 1986, shall be read as one with the Casino Act, 1963 (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Act") and shall come into operation on such date as the Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, appoint.

Amendment of section 2.
