Replacement of Rules 6,7,8, and 9.

3. Rules 6,7,8 and 9 of the principal Rules are hereby replaced with the following:

"Applications.

- 6. (1) Save where proceedings by way of petition are prescribed by law, every application shall be brought on notice of motion supported by an affidavit or affidavits as to the facts upon which the application relies for relief.
- (2) When relief is claimed against any person, or where it is necessary or proper to give any person notice of such application, the notice of motion shall be addressed to both the Registrar and such person, otherwise it shall be addressed to the Registrar only.
- (3) Every petition shall conclude with the form of order prayed for and be verified upon oath by or on behalf of the petitioner.
- (4) Every application brought ex parte by way of petition or notice of motion shall, save in matters of urgency, be filed with the Registrar and set down not later than midday on the court day preceding the day on which the application is to be heard.

(5) If such application is brought upon notice to the Registrar, it shall set forth the form of order sought, specify the affidavit or affidavits filed in support thereof, request him to place the matter on the Roll for hearing, and be as near as may be in accordance with Form 2 of the First Schedule.

(6) All documents for use in the Motion Court, including returns of service, affidavits of non-return in matrimonial matters, but excluding such original documents as are handed into court from the bar, shall likewise be filed with the Registrar not later than midday on the court day preceding the day on which the matter is to be heard.

(7) Any person having an interest which may be affected by a decision on an application being brought ex parte, may deliver notice of an application by him for leave to oppose, supported by an affidavit setting forth the nature of such interest and the ground upon which he desires to be heard, whereupon the Registrar shall set such application down for hearing at the same time as the application brought ex parte.

(8) At the hearing the court may grant or dismiss either of or both such applications or may adjourn the same upon such terms as to the filing of further affidavits or otherwise as to it seems fit.

(9) Every application other than one brought ex parte shall be brought on notice of motion as near as may be in accordance with Form 3 of the First Schedule and true copies of the notice, the supporting affidavit or affidavits and all annexures thereto, shall be served upon every party to whom notice thereof is to be given.

(10) In such notice the applicant shall appoint an address within five kilometres of the office of the Registrar at which he will accept notice and service of all documents in such proceedings, and shall set forth a day, not less than five days after service thereof on the respondent, on or before which such respondent is required to notify the applicant in writing whether he intends to oppose such application, and shall further state that if no such notification is given the application will be set down for hearing on a stated day, not being less than seven days after service on the respondent of the notice.

(11) If the respondent does not, on or before the day specified for that purpose in such notice, notify the applicant of his intention to oppose, the applicant may place the matter on the Roll for hearing by giving the Registrar notice of set down not later than two court days preceding the day assigned by the Registrar or directed by the Chief Justice upon which the same is to be heard.

(12) Any person opposing the grant of an order sought in the notice of motion shall:

- (a) within the time stated in the notice, give the applicant notice in writing that he intends to oppose the application, and in the notice appoint an address within five kilometres of the office of the Registrar at which he will accept notice and service of all documents;
- (b) within fourteen days of notifying the applicant of his intention to oppose the application, deliver his answering affidavit, if any, together with any relevant documents; and
- (c) if he intends to raise a question of law only he shall deliver notice of his intention to do so, within the time prescribed in paragraph (b) stating such question.

(13) Within seven days of the service upon him of the affidavit and documents referred to in sub-rule (12) (b) the applicant may deliver a replying affidavit but the court may in its discretion permit the filing of further affidavits.

- (a) no answering affidavit, or notice, in terms of sub-rule (12) (b) is delivered within the period referred to in that sub-rule, the applicant may within four days of the expiry thereof apply to the Registrar to allocate a date for the hearing of the application;
- (b) an answering affidavit or notice is delivered, the applicant may apply for such allocation within four days of the delivery of his replying affidavit or if no replying affidavit is delivered, within four days of the expiry of the period referred to in sub-rule 13.

(15) If the applicant fails to apply within the appropriate period specified in sub-rule (14), the respondent may do so immediately upon the expiry of such period.

(16) Notice in writing of the date allocated by the Registrar shall forthwith be given by applicant or respondent, as the case may be, to the opposite party.

(17) Where an application cannot properly be decided on affidavit, the court may dismiss the application or make such order as to it seems fit with a view to ensuring a just and expeditious decision.

(18) Without prejudice to the generality of sub-rule (17), the court may direct that oral evidence be heard on specified issues with a view to resolving any dispute of fact and to that end may order any deponent to appear personally or grant leave for him or any other person to be subpoenaed to appear and be examined and cross-examined as a witness or it may refer the matter to trial with appropriate directions as to pleadings or definition of issues, or otherwise.

(19) The provisions of sub-rule (11) and (14) shall mutatis mutandis apply to petitions.

(20) The court, after hearing an application whether brought ex parte or otherwise, may make no order thereon (save as to costs, if any) but grant leave to the applicant to renew the application on the same papers supplemented by such further affidavits as the case may require.

(21) (a) Any party to any application proceedings may bring a counter-application or may join any party to the same extent as would be competent if the party wishing to bring such counter-application or join such party were a defendant in an action and the other parties to the application were parties to such action. In the latter event Rule 10 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

(b) The periods prescribed for applications under this rule shall apply mutatis mutandis to counter-applications; but the court may on good cause shown postpone the hearing of the application.

(22) Any person against whom an order is granted ex parte may anticipate the return day upon delivery of not less than twenty-four hours' notice.

(23) A copy of every application to court in connection with the estate of a deceased person or a person alleged to be a prodigal, or under a legal disability, mentally or otherwise, shall, before such application is filed with the Registrar, be submitted to the Master for consideration and report; and if a person is to be suggested to the court for appointment as curator to property, such suggestion shall likewise be submitted to the Master for report:

Provided that the provisions of this sub-rule shall not apply to an application under rule 57 except where that rule otherwise provides.

(24) Notwithstanding the foregoing sub-rules, interlocutory and other applications incidental to pending proceedings may be brought on notice supported by such affidavits as the case may require and set down at a time assigned by the Registrar or as directed by a judge.

(25) (a) In urgent applications, the court or judge may dispense with the forms and service provided for in these Rules and may dispose of such matter at such time and place and in such manner and in accordance with such procedure (which shall as far as practicable be in terms of these Rules) as to the court or judge, as the case may be, seems fit.

7. (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-rules (2) and (3), a power of attorney to act need not be filed, but the authority of anyone acting on behalf of a party may, within ten days after it has come to the notice of a party that such person is so acting, or with the leave of the court on good cause shown at any time before judgment, be disputed, whereafter such person may no longer act unless he satisfies the court that he is authorised so to act, and to enable him to do so the court may postpone the hearing of the action or application.

(7) A party giving notice of amendment shall, unless the court otherwise orders, be liable to pay the costs thereby occasioned to any other party.

(8) The court may during the hearing at any stage before judgment grant leave to amend any pleading or document on such terms as to costs or otherwise as to it seems fit.

(9) Where any amendment is made it shall be made on a separate page to be added in an appropriate place to the pleading or the document amended."

Replacement of Rules 30, 31, 32, 33 and 34.

8. Rules 30, 31, 32, 33 and 34 of the principal Rules are hereby replaced with the following:

"Irregular Proceedings.

30. (1) A party to a cause in which an irregular step or proceeding has been taken by any other party may, within fourteen days after becoming aware of the irregularity, apply to court to set aside the step or proceeding:

Provided that no party who has taken any further step in the cause with knowledge of the irregularity shall be entitled to make such application.

(2) Application in terms of sub-rule (1) shall be on notice to all parties specifying particulars of the irregularity alleged.

(3) If at the hearing of such application the court is of opinion that the proceeding or step is irregular, it may set it aside in whole or in part, either as against all the parties or as against some of them, and grant leave to amend or make any such order as to it seems fit.

(4) Until a party has complied with any order of court made against him in terms of this rule, he shall not take any further step in the cause, save to apply for an extension of time within which to comply with such order.

(5) Where a party fails to comply timeously with a request made or notice given pursuant to these Rules the party making the request or giving the notice may notify the defaulting party that he intends, after the lapse of seven days to apply for an order that such notice or request be complied with, or that the claim or defence be struck out. Failing compliance within the seven days, application may be made to court and the court may make such order thereon as to it seems fit.

Judgment on Confession and by Default.

31. (1) Save in actions for divorce, restitution of conjugal rights, judicial separation or nullity of marriage, a defendant may at any time confess in whole or in part the claim contained in the summons.

(2) Such confession shall be signed by the defendant personally and his signature shall either be witnessed by an attorney acting for him, not being the attorney acting for the plaintiff, or be verified by affidavit, and furnished to the plaintiff, whereupon the plaintiff may apply in writing through the Registrar to a judge for judgment according to such confession.

(3) (a) Whenever a defendant is in default of delivery of notice of intention to defend or of a plea, the plaintiff may set the action down as provided in sub-rule (5) for default judgment and the court may, where the claim is for a debt or liquidated demand, without hearing evidence, oral or documentary, and in the case of any other claim, after hearing such evidence as the court may direct, whether oral or documentary, grant judgment against the defendant or make such order as to it seems fit.

(b) A defendant may, within twenty-one days after he has had knowledge of such judgment, apply to court upon notice to the plaintiff to set aside such judgment and the court may upon good cause shown and upon the defendant furnishing to the plaintiff security for the payment of the costs of the default judgment and of such application to a maximum of E200, set aside the default judgment on such terms as to it seems fit.

(4) Where a plaintiff has been barred from delivering a declaration the defendant may set the action down as provided in sub-rule (5) and apply for absolution from the instance or, after adducing evidence, for judgment, and the court may make such order thereon as to it seems fit.

(5) The proceedings referred to in sub-rules (3) and (4) shall be set down for hearing not less than two court days preceding the day assigned by the Registrar or as directed by a judge on which the matter is to be heard upon not less than three court days notice to the party in default; provided that notice of set down need not be given to any party in default of delivery of notice of intention to defend by such party.

Summary judgment.

32. (1) Where in an action to which this rule applies and a combined summons has been served on a defendant or a declaration has been delivered to him and that defendant has delivered notice of intention to defend, the plaintiff may, on the ground that the defendant has no defence to a claim included in the summons, or to a particular part of such a claim, apply to the court for summary judgment against that defendant.

- (2) This rule applies to such claims in the summons as is only –

- (a) on a liquid document;
- (b) for a liquidated amount in money;
- (c) for delivery of specified movable property; or
- (d) ejectment;

together with any other claims for interest and costs.

- (3) (a) An application under sub-rule (1) shall be made on notice to the defendant accompanied by an affidavit verifying the facts on which the claim, or the part of the claim, to which the application relates is based and stating that in the deponent's belief there is no defence to that claim or part, as the case may be, and such affidavit may in addition set out any evidence material to the claim.
- (b) Unless the court otherwise directs, an affidavit for the purposes of this sub-rule may contain statements of information or belief with the sources and grounds thereof.
- (c) The notice of application, a copy of the affidavit in support and any annexures thereto shall be delivered to the defendant not less than ten court days before the date of the hearing.
- (4) (a) Unless on the hearing of an application under sub-rule (1) either the court dismisses the application or the defendant satisfies the court with respect to the claim, or the part of the claim, to which the application relates that there is an issue or question in dispute which ought to be tried or that there ought for some other reason to be a trial of that claim or part, the court may give such judgment for the plaintiff against that defendant on that claim or part as may be just having regard to the nature of the remedy or relief claimed.
- (b) The court may order, and subject to such conditions, if any, as may be just, stay execution of any judgment given against a defendant under this rule until after the trial of any claim in reconvention made or raised by the defendant in the action.
- (5) (a) A defendant may show cause against an application under sub-rule (1) by affidavit or otherwise to the satisfaction of the court and, with the leave of the court, the plaintiff may deliver an affidavit in reply.
- (b) Sub-rule (3)(b) applies for the purposes of this sub-rule as it applies for the purposes of that sub-rule.
- (c) The court may give a defendant against whom such an application is made leave to defend the action with respect to the claim, or the part of a claim, to which the application relates either unconditionally or on such terms as to giving security or time or mode of trial or otherwise as it thinks fit.
- (d) On the hearing of such an application the court may order a defendant showing cause or, where that defendant is a body corporate, any director, manager, secretary or other similar officer thereof, or any person purporting to act in any such capacity –
 - (i) to produce any document;
 - (ii) if it appears to the court that there are special circumstances which make it desirable that he should do so, to attend and be examined on oath.

- (6) (a) Where a defendant to an action has delivered a claim in reconvention, then, subject to paragraph (c) the defendant may, on the ground that the plaintiff has no defence to a claim made in the counterclaim, or to a particular part of such a claim, apply to the court for summary judgment against the plaintiff on that claim or part.
- (b) Sub-rule (3), (4) and (5) shall apply in relation to an application under this sub-rule as they apply in relation to an application under sub-rule (1) but with the following modifications:
 - (i) references to the plaintiff and defendant shall be construed as references to the defendant and plaintiff respectively;
 - (ii) the words in sub-rule (4)(b) "any claim in reconvention made or raised by the defendant in" shall be omitted; and
 - (iii) the reference in sub-rule (5)(c) to the action shall be construed as a reference to the claim in reconvention to which the application under this sub-rule relates.
- (c) This sub-rule shall apply only to a claim in reconvention which is a claim as referred to sub-rule (2).

(7) If the plaintiff makes an application under sub-rule (1) where the case is not within this rule or if it appears to the court that the plaintiff knew that the defendant relied on a contention which would entitle him to unconditional leave to defend, then, without prejudice to any other powers, the court may dismiss the application with costs and may require the plaintiff to pay the costs forthwith.

(8) The court shall have the same power to dismiss an application under sub-rule (6) as it has under sub-rule (7) to dismiss an application under sub-rule (1), and sub-rule (7) shall apply accordingly with the necessary modifications.

(9) Where on an application under sub-rule (1) the plaintiff obtains judgment on a claim or part of a claim against any defendant, he may proceed with the action as respects any other claim or as respects the remainder of the claim or against any other defendant.

(10) Where on an application under sub-rule (6) a defendant obtains judgment on a claim in reconvention or part of such a claim against the plaintiff, he may proceed with the claim in reconvention as respects any other claim or as respects the remainder of the claim or against any other defendant to the claim in reconvention.

(11) Any judgment given against a party who does not appear at the hearing of an application under sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (6) may be set aside or varied by the court on such terms as it thinks just.

Special cases and adjudication upon Points of Law.

33. (1) The parties to any dispute may, after institution of proceedings, agree upon a written statement of facts in the form of a special case for the adjudication of the court.

- (2) (a) Such statement:
 - (i) shall set forth the facts agreed upon, the questions of law in dispute between the parties and their contentions thereon;
 - (ii) shall be divided into consecutively numbered paragraphs;
 - (iii) there shall be annexed thereto copies of documents necessary to enable the court to decide upon such questions; and
 - (iv) shall be signed by counsel on behalf of each party or, where a party sues or defends personally, by such party.

- (b) Such special case shall be set down for hearing in the manner provided for trials or opposed applications, whichever may be more convenient.
- (c) If a minor or person of unsound mind is a party to such proceedings the court may, before determining the questions of law in dispute, require proof that the statements in such special case so far as concerns the minor or person of unsound mind are true.

(3) At the hearing thereof the court and the parties may refer to the whole of the contents of such documents and the court may draw any inference of fact or of law from the facts and documents as if proved at a trial.

(4) If it appears to the court mero motu or on the application of any party that there is, in any pending action, a question of law or fact which it would be convenient to decide either before any evidence is led or separately from any other question, the court may make an order directing the trial of such question in such manner as it may deem fit and may order that all further proceedings be stayed until such question has been disposed of.

(5) When giving its decision upon any question in terms of this rule the court may give such judgment as may upon such decision be appropriate and may give any direction with regard to the hearing of any other issues in the proceeding which may be necessary for the final disposal thereof.

(6) If the question in dispute is one of law and the parties are agreed upon the facts, the facts may be admitted and recorded at the trial and the court may give judgment without hearing any evidence.

(7) The provisions of this rule in so far as they relate to adjudication on any question of law, shall mutatis mutandis apply, whenever by virtue of any law a tribunal or public officer, or any party to any matter before a tribunal or public officer, is required or entitled to submit a stated case to the court for decision on any question of law.

Offer to settle.

34. (1) In any action in which a sum of money is claimed, either alone or with any other relief, the defendant may at any time unconditionally or without prejudice make a written offer to settle the plaintiff's claim, and such offer shall be signed either by the defendant himself or by his attorney if the latter has been authorised thereto in writing.

(2) Where the plaintiff claims the performance of some act by the defendant, the defendant may at any time tender, either unconditionally or without prejudice to perform such act, and unless such act must be performed by the defendant personally, he shall execute an irrevocable power of attorney authorising the performance of such act which he shall deliver to the Registrar together with the tender.

(3) Any party to an action who may be ordered to contribute towards an amount for which any party to the action may be held liable, or any third party from whom relief is being claimed in terms of rule 13, may, either unconditionally or without prejudice, by way of an offer of settlement –

- (a) make a written offer to that other party to contribute either a specific sum or in a specific proportion towards the amount to which the plaintiff may be held entitled in the action; or
- (b) give a written indemnity to such other party, the conditions of which shall be set out fully in the offer of settlement.

(4) One of several defendants, as well as any third party from whom relief is claimed, may, either unconditionally or without prejudice, by way of an offer of settlement make a written offer to settle the plaintiff's or defendant's claim or tender to perform any act claimed by the plaintiff or defendant.

(5) Notice of any offer or tender in terms of this rule shall be given to all parties to the action and shall state –

- (a) whether the same is unconditional or without prejudice as an offer of settlement;
- (b) whether it is accompanied by an offer to pay all or only part of the costs of the party to whom the offer or tender is made, and further that it shall be subject to such conditions as may be stated therein;
- (c) whether the offer or tender is made by way of settlement of both claim and costs or of the claim only;
- (d) whether the defendant disclaims liability for the payment of costs or for part thereof, in which case the reasons for such disclaimer shall be given, and the action may then be set down on the question of costs alone.

(6) A plaintiff or party referred to in sub-rule (3) may within fourteen days after the receipt of the notice referred to in sub-rule (5), or thereafter with the written consent of the defendant or third party or order of court, on such conditions as may be considered to be fair, accept any offer or tender, whereupon the Registrar, having satisfied himself that the requirements of this sub-rule have been complied with, shall hand over the power of attorney referred to in sub-rule (2) to the plaintiff or his attorney.

(7) In the event of a failure to pay or to perform within seven days after delivery of the notice of acceptance of the offer or tender, the party entitled to payment or performance may, on five days' written notice to the party who has failed to pay or perform, apply through the Registrar to a judge for judgment in accordance with the offer or tender as well as for the costs of the application.

(8) If notice of the acceptance of the offer or tender in terms of sub-rule (6) or notice in terms of sub-rule (7) is required to be given at an address other than that provided in rule 19(3), then it shall be given at an address, which is not a post office box or poste restante, within five kilometres of the court.

(9) If an offer or tender accepted in terms of this rule is not stated to be in satisfaction of a plaintiff's claim and costs, the party to whom the offer or tender is made may apply to the court, after giving notice of not less than five days, for an order for costs.

(10) No offer or tender in terms of this rule made without prejudice shall be disclosed to the court at any time before judgment has been given, and no reference to such offer or tender shall appear on any file in the office of the Registrar containing the papers in connection with the case.

(11) The fact that an offer or tender referred to in this rule has been made may be brought to the notice of the court after judgment has been given as being relevant to the question of costs.

(12) If the court has given judgment on the question of costs in ignorance of the offer or tender and it is brought to the notice of the Registrar, in writing, within five days after the date of judgment, the question of costs shall be considered afresh in the light of the offer or tender:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-rule shall affect the court's discretion as to an award of costs.

(13) Any party who, contrary to this rule, personally or through any person representing him, discloses such an offer or tender, to the judge or the court shall be liable to have costs given against him even if he is successful in the action."

Insertion of new Rule 34A.

9. There is hereby insertion immediately after Rule 34 of the principal Rules the following new Rule:

"Interim Payments.

34A. (1) In an action for damages for personal injuries or the death of a person, the plaintiff may, at any time after the expiry of the period of the delivery of the notice of intention to defend, apply to the court for an order requiring the defendant to make an interim payment in respect of his claim for medical costs and loss of income arising from his physical disability or the death of a person.

(2) Subject to the provisions of rule 6, the affidavit in support of the application shall contain the amount of damages claimed and the grounds for the application, and all documentary proof or certified copies thereof on which the applicant relies shall accompany the affidavit.

(2) Notwithstanding the grant or refusal of an application for an interim payment, further such applications may be brought on good cause shown.

(4) If at the hearing of such an application, the court is satisfied that –

- (a) the defendant against whom the order is sought has, in writing, admitted liability for the plaintiff's damages; or
- (b) the plaintiff has obtained judgment against the respondent for damages to be determined, the court may, if it thinks fit but subject to the provisions of sub-rule (5), order the respondent to make an interim payment of such amount as it thinks just, which amount shall not exceed a reasonable proportion of the damages which in the opinion of the court are likely to be recovered by the plaintiff taking into account any contributory negligence, set off or counterclaim.

(5) No order shall be made under sub-rule (4) unless it appears to the court that the defendant is insured in respect of the plaintiff's claim or that he has the means at his disposal to enable him to make such a payment.

(6) The amount of any interim payment ordered shall be paid in full to the plaintiff unless the court otherwise orders.

(7) Where an application has been made under sub-rule (1), the court may prescribe the procedure for the further conduct of the action and in particular may order the early trial thereof.

(8) The fact that an order has been made under sub-rule (4) shall not be pleaded and no disclosure of that fact shall be made to the court at the trial or at the hearing of questions or issues as to the quantum of damages until such questions or issues have been determined.

(9) In an action where an interim payment or an order for an interim payment has been made, the action shall not be discontinued or the claim withdrawn without the consent of the court.

(10) If an order for an interim payment has been made or such payment has been made, the court may, in making a final order, or when granting the plaintiff leave to discontinue his action or withdraw the claim under sub-rule (9) or at any stage of the proceedings on the application of any party, make an order with respect to the interim payment which the court may consider just and the court may in particular order that:

- (a) the plaintiff repay all or part of the interim payment;
- (b) the payment be varied or discharged; or
- (c) a payment be made by any other defendant in respect of any part of the interim payment which the defendant, who made it, is entitled to recover by way of contribution or indemnity or in respect of any remedy or relief relating to the plaintiff's claim.

(7) If it appears from any medical examination carried out either by agreement between the parties or pursuant to any notice given in terms of this rule, or by order of a judge, that any further medical examination by any other person is necessary or desirable for the purpose of giving full information on matters relevant to the assessment of such damages, any party may require a second and final medical examination in accordance with the provisions of this rule.

(10) The party called upon to submit such property for examination may require the party requesting it to specify the nature of the examination to which it is to be submitted and shall not be bound to submit such property to such examination if this will materially prejudice such party by reason of the effect thereof upon such property.

(11) In the event of any dispute as to whether the property should be submitted for examination as required under sub-rule (9), such dispute shall be referred to a judge on notice delivered by either party stating that the examination is required and that objection is taken in terms of this sub-rule, and in considering any such dispute the judge may make such order as to him seems fit.

(12) Any party causing an examination to be made in terms of sub-rules (1) and (9) shall –

- (g) Payment of the amount due under and in respect of any writ, and all costs and the like, incidental thereto, shall entitle the person paying to a withdrawal thereof.

(2) The notice shall be as near as may be in accordance with Form 25 in the First Schedule and shall contain -

 - (b) the period of notice of set down which the parties have agreed shall be given of the date of the hearing, or if no agreement has been reached, a statement to that effect; provided always that such period where so agreed shall be not less than ten days.
- (3) This rule and rule 56 shall apply to the following causes -

(4) Within a reasonable time of receipt of such notice the Registrar shall allocate a date for hearing."

18. Rule 56 of the principal Rules is hereby replaced with the following:

"Set Down.

56. (1) (a) When the Registrar has allocated a date of hearing of a civil cause in terms of rule 55A he shall notify the party who made the request in writing of the date and time of the hearing and that party shall deliver a notice of set down accompanied by one set of copy pleadings and all other documents to be used by the court, the pages of which shall be numbered seriatim, bound bookwise and have attached thereto an index showing the title of every pleading included in the set and the page number thereof:

Provided that, where the circumstances so require, the notification by the Registrar may be verbal, or by telephone or telegram or telex and subsequently confirmed in writing:

Provided further that such notification shall be given at such time as will enable the party notified to give the period of notice of set down between the parties or in the absence of such agreement not less than ten days notice.

- (b) If such notice of set down or book of pleadings is not received by the Registrar not less than ten days before the date allocated for hearing of the matter, the allocation shall no longer be of force or effect and the matter shall be deleted from the roll.

(2) A matter which is not reached on the date on which it was set down for hearing shall be heard at the conclusion of the hearing of the matter immediately preceeding such matter, or on a date to which it is ordered by the court or by the Registrar on the instruction of the court, or a judge, to be postponed.

- (3) (a) A matter which has been set down may, with the consent of all parties, be withdrawn from the roll by notice in writing addressed to the Registrar.

- (b) Except as provided in paragraph (a) and subject to sub-rule (1)(b), not case shall be withdrawn from the roll save, on cause shown, with the consent of the court and on such terms as to the court may seem just.
- (c) A matter which has been withdrawn from the roll may subsequently be reinstated thereon mutatis mutandis in terms of rule 55A, without prejudice however to the provisions of rule 41".

Replacement of Rules 62, 63 and 64.

19. Rules 62, 63 and 64 of the principal Rules are hereby replaced with the following:

"Filing, Preparation and Inspection of Documents.

62. (1) Where a matter has to be heard by more than one judge, or by a judge and assessors, a copy of all pleadings and all other documents to be used by the court shall be filed for the use of each additional judge or assessor.

(2) All documents filed with the court, other than exhibits or facsimiles thereof, shall be clearly and legibly printed or typewritten in permanent black or blueblack ink on one side only of paper of good quality and of A4 standard size.

(3) A document shall be deemed to be typewritten if it is reproduced clearly and legibly on suitable paper by a duplicating, lithographic, photographic or any other method of reproduction.

(4) Stated cases, petitions, affidavits, grounds of appeal and the like shall be divided into concise paragraphs which shall be consecutively numbered.

(5) Every affidavit filed with the Registrar by or on behalf of a respondent shall, if he is represented, on the first page thereof bear the name and address of the attorney filing it.

(6) The Registrar may reject any document which does not comply with the requirements of this Rule.

(7) Any party to a cause, and any person having a personal interest therein, with leave of the Registrar on good cause shown, may at his office, examine and make copies of all documents in such cause.

Destruction of Documents.

63. In any matter which has not been adjudicated by the court or a judge, and has not been withdrawn, the Registrar may, after the lapse of five years from the date of the filing of the last document therein and upon giving notice to the parties at their last known address, authorise the destruction of the documents filed in his office relating to such matter.

Superannuation.

64. (1) After the expiration of three years from the day whereon a judgment has been pronounced, no writ of execution may be issued unless the debtor consents to the issue of the writ or unless the judgment is revived by the court on notice to the debtor, but in such case no new proof of the debt shall be required, and in the case of judgment for periodic payments, the three years shall run, in respect of any payment, from the due date thereof.

(2) Writs of execution of a judgment once issued remain in force and may at any time be executed without being renewed until judgment has been satisfied in full."

Replacement of Rule 66.

20. Rule 66 of the principal Rules is hereby replaced with the following:

"Tariff of Court Fees.

66. (1) Save as provided in this rule, and subject to rule 40, the court fees prescribed in the Second Schedule shall be paid and such fees shall be collected by means of adhesive stamps duly approved as revenue stamps for use under the Stamp Duty Act, 1970.

(2) Every such stamp shall be affixed to the document in respect of which the court fee is payable and shall be defaced by the public officer responsible for so affixing it.

(3) Every such stamp shall be defaced by writing or impressing in ink on or across the stamp the name or initials of the public officer affixing it to the document together with the true date of defacement in such manner as effectually and permanently to render the stamp incapable of being used for stamping any other document.

(4) In the circumstances and subject to the conditions mentioned in section 33 of the Stamp Duty Act, 1970 the Accountant-General with the approval of the Registrar, may make a refund of any court fee payable under this rule, as if such court fee was a duty payable under the Stamp Duty Act, 1970.

Replacement of Rule 68.

21. Rule 68 of the principal Rules is hereby replaced with the following:

"Taxation and Tariff of Fees of Attorneys and Advocates.

68. (1) Subject to sub-rule (2), the scale of fees payable to attorneys and advocates shall as far as possible be in accordance with the tariff contained in the Fourth Schedule to these Rules (hereinafter referred to as the "tariff").

(2) Where the court or the judge is satisfied, on application being made, that having regard to the nature of the case or any exceptional circumstance the costs allowable under section H of the tariff (costs of counsel) may be inadequate, the court or judge may direct that the taxing master on taxation is not to be bound by the amounts set out in that section, and where such a direction is given the taxing master may, if he thinks fit, allow on taxation such larger sums as he thinks reasonable.

(3) It shall be competent for any taxing master to tax all bills of costs for services actually rendered by an attorney in his capacity as such, whether in connection with litigation or not. In the latter event the taxing master shall nevertheless be guided as far as possible by the scale of fees fixed by the tariff:

Provided that the taxing master shall not tax costs in instances where some other official is empowered so to do; for example he shall not tax such costs as are referred to in section 73(2) of the Insolvency Act of 1955, in so far as these do not relate to litigation to which a trustee is a party.

(4) At the taxation of any bill of costs the taxing master may call for such books, documents, papers or accounts as in his opinion are necessary to enable him properly to determine any matter arising upon such taxation.

(5) With a view to affording the party who has been awarded an order for costs a full indemnity for all costs reasonably incurred by him in relation to his claim or defence and to ensure that all such costs shall be borne by the party against whom such order has been awarded, the taxing master shall, on every taxation, allow all such costs, charges and expenses as appear to him to have been necessary or proper for the attainment of justice or for defending the rights of any party, but save as against the party who incurred the same, no costs shall be allowed which appear to the taxing master to have been incurred or increased through over-caution, negligence or mistake, or by payment of a special fee to an advocate, or special charges and expenses to witnesses or to other persons or by other unusual expenses.

(6) (a) The taxing master shall not proceed to the taxation of any bill of costs unless he is satisfied that the party liable to pay the same has received due notice as to the time and place of such taxation and notice that he is entitled to be present thereat, but such notice shall not be necessary –

(i) if the party against whom costs have been awarded has not appeared at the hearing either in person or by his counsel;

(ii) if the person liable to pay costs has consented in writing to taxation in his absence; and

(b) In all cases where a notice of taxation is necessary, such notice shall be delivered, together with a copy of the bill of costs to be taxed, not less than four clear days before the date of taxation.

(7) The taxing master shall be entitled in his discretion, at any time, to depart from any of the provisions of the tariff in extraordinary or exceptional cases, where strict adherence to such provisions would be inequitable.

(8) (a) In order to diminish as much as possible the costs arising from the copying of documents to accompany the briefs of advocates, the taxing master shall not allow the cost of any unnecessary duplication in briefs.

(9) Fees for copying shall be disallowed to the extent by which such fees could reasonably have been reduced by the use of printed forms in respect of bonds, hire-purchase agreements or other documents.

(10) Where in the opinion of the taxing master, more than one attorney has been necessarily engaged in the performance of any of the services covered by the tariff, each such attorney shall be entitled to be remunerated on the basis set out in the tariff for the work necessarily done by him.

(11) Save where the court authorises fees consequent upon the employment of more than one advocate to be included in a party and party bill of costs, only such fees as are consequent upon the employment of one advocate shall be allowed as between party and party.

(12) Where fees in respect of more than one advocate are allowed in a party and party bill of costs, the fees to be permitted in respect of any additional advocate shall not exceed two-thirds of those allowed in respect of the first advocate.
