Application.

3. (1) This order shall apply to all persons, other than articulated apprentices, employed in any undertaking or any part of an undertaking which carries on one or more of the following activities for gain-

- (a) Mining and Quarrying operations;
- (b) Winning of sand and gravel from any source;
or
- (c) Ancilliary work connected with the running of mineral extractions operations but;
- (d) Excluding contractors and suppliers to a mine or quarries.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) this order shall not apply to an employee who is in receipt of a basic remuneration aggregating E660.00 or more per month and who has authority to-

- (a) Give orders to employees under his control;
- (b) Recommend transfer, suspend discipline, discharge or promote workers under his control; and
- (c) Adjudge and make recommendations in connection with grievances of employees under his control.

Hours of work.

4. (1) The basic working week shall be a maximum of six days.
(2) Not withstanding subsection (1) where shifts are maintained.

The basic working week shall-

- (a) Consist of six-twelve hour shifts in the case of a Security guard; and
- (b) Six eight-hour shifts in all other cases.

Except That -

- (i) with the consent of his employer, an employee may extend his daily hours of work by up to one hour in order to reduce the hours of his last shift for his own convenience without the entitlement to overtime.
- (ii) Subject to section 10(2) where an employer requires an employee to work in excess of the hours specified in this section, an employee shall be paid for overtime in accordance with the provisions of section 9.

Work Stoppage.

5. (1) In the event of a temporary work stoppage of any employer's operations whether partial or complete, occasioned by circumstances beyond the control of the employer or of the employee, but excluding stoppage occasioned by a strike, lockout, sit-in or other form of labour action or dispute, concerted or individual; an employee who is present, available, capable and willing to work for the normal period during normal working hours at times appointed by the employer, shall be paid at the full rate applicable to the job-

- (a) In the case of watchman or security guard, for a minimum of 72 hours in any week; and
- (b) In the case of all employees for a minimum of 48 hours in any week.

Provided that:

- (i) An employee shall perform any task appointed by the employer;
- (ii) Such task shall not expose or subject an employee to perculiar risk or substantially more arduous conditions than those pertaining to his original or normal form of employment; and
- (iii) The provision of such alternative work shall not prejudice the employer's right to terminate the employee's contract of service in terms of his normal conditions of employment and in accordance with the law.

(2) Where the employer cannot appoint a productive task and the employee is present, available capable and willing to work, the employer shall pay the employee full daily wages for two days immediately succeeding the day upon which work was stopped and thereafter pay the employee half his daily rate until work is resumed or his employment is lawfully terminated.

Static and worsening conditions.

6. (1) The rates of pay and other conditions of employment set forth in this order are the minimum permitted by the government of Swaziland and shall not be represented as otherwise and no part of this order shall be construed as justifying non advancement or denying advancement to, or freezing the wages of an employee.

(2) No employer affected by this order shall reduce his remuneration or other conditions of service from those which were applicable to his employee at the effective date of this order, except where the nature of work has been changed.

Catagories of work.

7. Employees affected by this order shall be granted into catagories. A1, A2, B1, B2, B3, C1, and C2 as set out in the schedule hereto.

Basic minimum wage.

8. The basic minimum wage for the various categories set forth in section 7 shall be in respect of a shift of eight hours except in the case of watchman, where the shift shall be twelve hours and shall be as set out in the table hereunder.
