For the Applicant - Mr. M. Dwamena

RULE NISI

Having heard Martin Dwamena, counsel for the Applicant, and having read the papers filed of record, IT IS ORDERED:

1. That the usual forms and procedures relating to the institution of proceedings in this Court be dispensed with, and the matter be adjudicated upon as one of urgency.
2. That a Rule Nisi is hereby granted, and that the Swaziland Federation of Trade Unions be joined as the Respondent and further that the said Swaziland Federation of Trade Unions is ordered to appear before this Court at 9.30 a.m. or so soon thereafter on 23 October 1997 to show cause why an order should not be granted:
 - a) interdicting and restraining the said Swaziland Federation of Trade Unions and its members from taking a strike action (or "Rolling Mass Action") on 13 October 1997 or on any other date before or immediately after that date.
 - b) interdicting and restraining the said Swaziland Federation of Trade Unions through its office-bearers and other of its members from inciting, organising, instigating, or calling for the taking of the strike action (or "Rolling Mass Action") referred to in para. 2 hereof.
 - c) declaring the threatened strike action (or "Rolling Mass Action") referred to in para. 2 hereof to be unlawful and/or to be a threat to the national interest and/or to be capable of harming the national interest.
 - d) granting the applicant further or alternative relief.
3. It is further ordered that this Rule Nisi shall operate forthwith as an interim interdict in terms of paras. 2 (a), 2 (b) and 2 (c) hereof.

DATED AT MBABANE THIS 9TH DAY OF OCTOBER 1997.
