NOTE: The land affected by the expropriation of the said rights is depicted on the accompanying sketch plans.

2. The rights which are hereby expropriated are the following:

2.1. Servitudes to construct tunnels at minimum varying depths below the surface of the said land within areas as described above, and referred to as the servitude areas, for the purpose of accommodating railway lines as defined in section 1 of the Act, subject to the following terms,

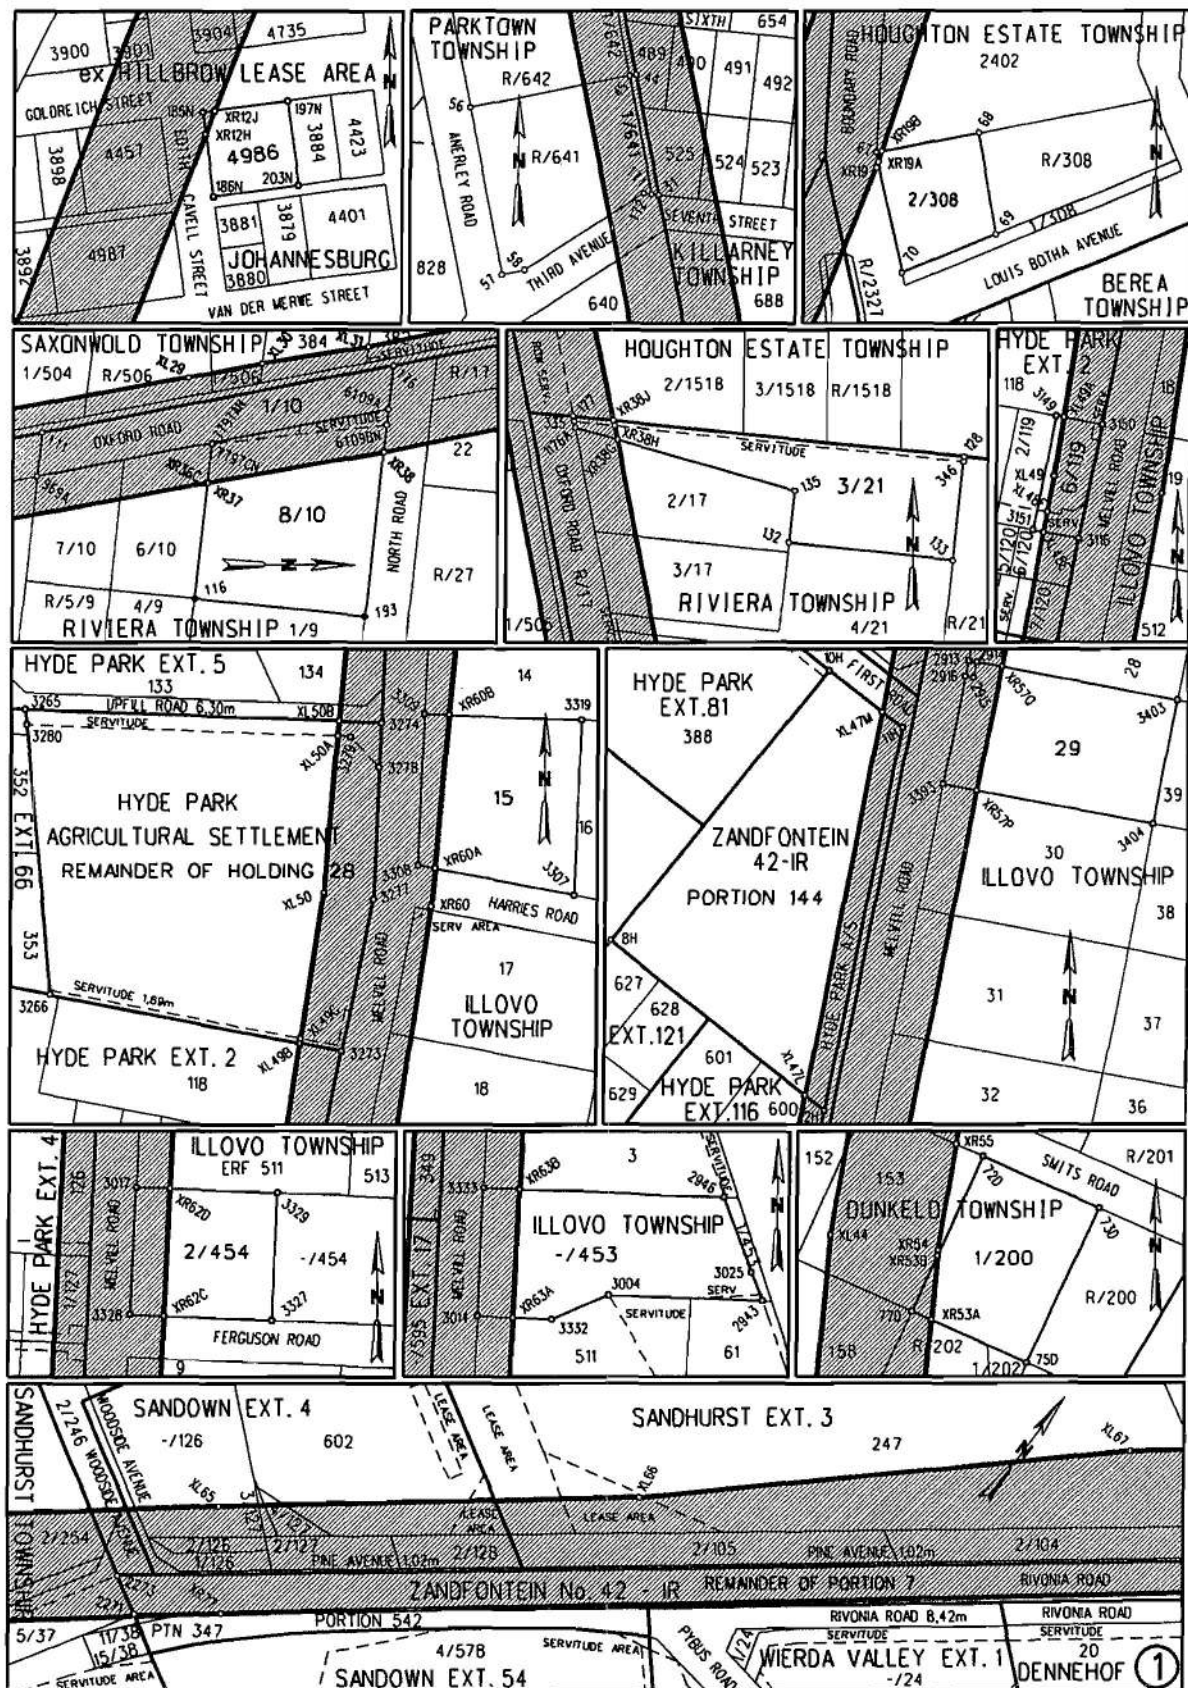

2.1.1. The MEC shall have the right to tunnel below the surface of the servitude area and to carry out such investigations and tests, for the purpose of geological investigations, as may be necessary for or in connection with the said tunneling.

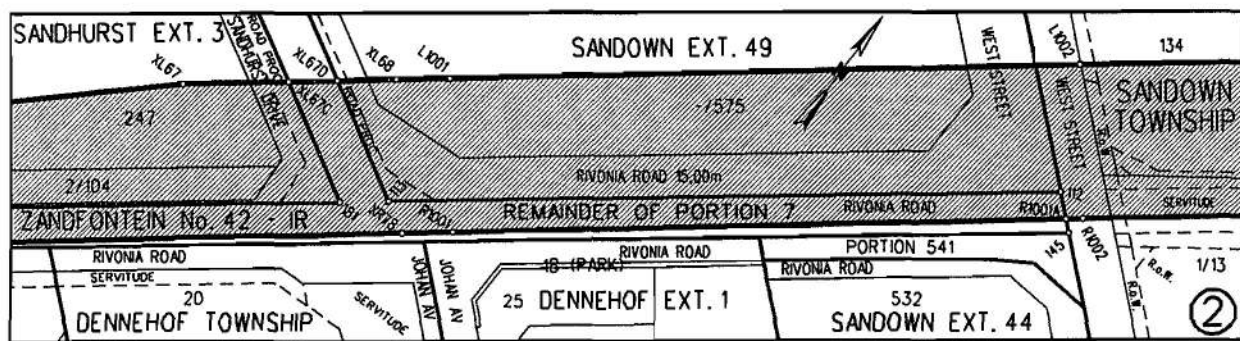

2.1.2. The surface of the servitude area may be used by the owner subject to the rights herein expropriated by the MEC, but none of the following activities may be conducted on or below the surface of the servitude area without the written permission of the MEC or his delegate first having been had and obtained and subject to such conditions as the MEC or his delegate may lay down:

- The sinking of boreholes.
- The construction of basements below the surface of the servitude area.
- Piling of foundations of any buildings or structures to be erected on the surface.
- The construction, laying or installation of any pipelines, electrical lines, cables or any structure of whatsoever nature at depths exceeding three meters below the surface of the servitude area.
- The use of explosives for any excavation of whatsoever nature below the surface of the servitude area.
- Any excavation of any nature deeper than three meters below the surface of the servitude area.

- 2.2. The right to construct, use and operate a railway line as defined in section 1 of the Act below the surface of the servitude area in the said tunnel and to exercise all such rights and powers in respect of such railway line as are conferred upon the MEC by the Act subject to the observance of all duties set out in the Act with respect to such construction, use and operation.
3. The date of this notice is the date of expropriation.
4. Inasmuch as they may have claims for compensation, land owners concerned are requested in terms of section 26(1) of the Act, to claim the amount for the expropriated rights and how the amounts are made up and full particulars of improvements, which in their opinion, are affected by the expropriation. Section 28 (1) (b) of the Act sets out the basis of compensation to which the land owners are entitled to in consequence of the said expropriation. The address to which the land owners desire further documents to be sent in connection with the expropriation must be indicated.
5. The MEC may extend the period of 60 days, once only and must do so for a further 60 days if required by the land owner.
6. The attention of the land owners' is furthermore directed to the provision of section 28(4) (a) (11) of the Act in terms whereof, if they do not comply with the provisions of section 26 (1) (b) of the Act to which their attention have been drawn above, no interest will be payable on any outstanding portion of the compensation payable to them until the date on which they comply with the said section 26 (1).
7. In terms of section 26(4) of the Act, a person who willfully furnishes false or misleading particulars under section 26 of the Act or who fails to comply with a request in terms of the last mentioned section, commits an offence.
8. Any written statement in terms of section 26(1) of the Act as well as all correspondence must be directed to the following address: Head: Department of Roads and Transport, Private Bag X83, Marshalltown 2107, Attention: Deputy Director: Design: Ms N Buitendag or by Fax 011 355 7235
