MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE KWAZULU-NATAL LOCAL GOVERNMENT LAWS REPEAL BILL, 20041. GENERAL BACKGROUND

A fundamental change in the structure of local government introduced by the Constitution which included the notion of co-operative governance and the creation of local government as a sphere of government in its own right with significant executive and legislative powers, created an awkward relationship between the post 1994 ("new order") legislation and founding provincial ordinances ("old order") legislation.

A host of new order legislation has been passed since 1994 and the time constraints experienced then made it impractical to assess the impact thereof on old order legislation. A rationalization of local government laws exercise has therefore been conducted with a view to removing a great deal of confusion that has arisen with regards to the application of old order legislation within the new local government dispensation.

This exercise culminated in the drafting of this Bill which repeals all redundant provisions of old order legislation, thereby clearing the statute book of all obsolete provisions.

2. MAIN OBJECT OF THE BILL

The Bill seeks to repeal all redundant provisions of the old order legislation applicable in the province specified in Parts A, B, C, D and E of the Schedule to the Act to the extent indicated in the third column of the Schedule, so as to remove all provisions of the old order legislation that have become obsolete as a result of local government laws that have been enacted since 1994.

3. CONSTITUTIONAL IMPLICATIONS

The Bill will bring local government legislation in line with the present Constitutional dispensation, giving effect to the aims and objects of the Constitution with regards to local government.

MEMORANDUM OOR DIE OOGMERKE VAN DIE KWAZULU-NATAL WETSONTWERP OP DIE HERROEPING VAN PLAASLIKE REGERINGSWETTE, 20041. ALGEMENE AGTERGROND

'n Fundamentele verandering in die struktuur van plaaslike regering deur die Grondwet teweeggebring, wat die idee van koöperatiewe regering en die daargestelling van plaaslike regering as 'n regeringsvlak in eie reg met betekenisvolle uitvoerende en wetgewende magte ingesluit het, het 'n ongemaklike verhouding tussen wetgewing ná 1994 (wetgewing van die "nuwe bedeling") en die eertydse provinsiale (stigtings)ordonnansies (wetgewing van die "ou bedeling") geskep.

'n Groot aantal wette (wetgewing van die nuwe bedeling) is sedert 1994 aangeneem, maar tydsbeperkings destyds het dit onprakties gemaak om die invloed daarvan op wetgewing uit die ou bedeling te bepaal. 'n Rasionaliseringsproses van plaaslike regeringswette is gevolglik onderneem om die verwarring wat ontstaan het, met betrekking tot die toepassing van wetgewing uit die ou bedeling in die nuwe bedeling vir plaaslike regering, uit die weg te ruim.

Dié oefening het gelei tot die opstel van hierdie wetsontwerp wat alle oortollige bepalings van wetgewing uit die ou bedeling herroep om die wetboek te suiwer van uitgediende bepalings.

2. BELANGRIKSTE OOGMERK VAN DIE WETSONTWERP

Die Wetsontwerp is daarop gemik om alle oortollige bepalings van wetgewing uit die ou bedeling wat in die provinsie van toepassing is, en wat in Deel A, B, C, D en E van die Bylae tot die Wet gespesifiseer word, in die mate te herroep wat in die derde kolom van die Bylaag aangedui is, om sodoende alle bepalings van wetgewing uit die ou bedeling, wat in onbruik geraak het as gevolg van plaaslike regeringswette wat sedert 1994 aangeneem is, te verwyder.

3. GRONDWETLIKE IMPLIKASIES

Die Wetsontwerp sal wetgewing oor plaaslike regering in ooreenstemming bring met die huidige Grondwetlike bedeling en uitvoering gee aan die oogmerke van die Grondwet met betrekking tot plaaslike regering.
