9.4 Special events

9.4.1 Council may permit or prohibit informal trading for purposes of special events on such terms and conditions as it may deem fit, notwithstanding the terms of any trading plan or any permits issued in respect of the relevant trading area.

9.4.2 Permits issued for a special event will be for the duration of the special event.

9.4.3 If the special event is organised by a third party such third party must consent to informal trading taking place during the event.

10. FEES AND CHARGES

10.1 Council may levy a fee or charge on any Informal trader, as it may determine and as may be sufficient to recoup the costs in connection with Informal trading including:

10.1.1 The collection, removal and disposal of refuse and litter, or other services rendered to Informal traders

10.1.2 The provision of storage facilities

10.1.3 The hire of tables or other equipment;

10.1.4 The cleaning of the trading area in which Informal trading takes place insofar as such cleaning is necessitated by informal trading.

10.1.5 The reasonable administrative or other costs in connection with administering informal trading

10.2 Council may levy different charges and fees in respect of different areas of trade depending on the profitability of such areas.

10.3 Nothing contained herein prevents Council from subsidising any aspect of informal trading.

11. GENERAL PROHIBITIONS ON INFORMAL TRADING

11.1 No trading in certain gardens and parks, except if it falls within the informal trading plan.

11.2 No person shall trade on a verge contiguous to any public building, place of worship or national monument.

11.3 No person shall trade in any prohibited or restricted area.

11.4 No person shall trade at a place where -

11.4.1 It causes an obstruction on a roadway;

11.4.2 It limits access to parking or loading bays or other facilities for vehicular traffic;

11.4.3 It obscures any road traffic sign or any marking, notice or sign displayed or made in terms of these bylaws; or

11.4.5 It is on or alongside a public road inside an urban area, within 180 metres of a railway level crossing or any road traffic sign denoting a blind corner or rise thereon or within five metres from any intersection thereon, provided that this subsection does not prohibit the trade inside an urban area on a roadway within five metres from any intersection of the goods or services.

12. APPEALS PROCEDURE

12.1 A person whose rights are affected by a decision taken by the Municipality in terms of this By-law may appeal against that decision in terms of the Appeals provision contained in the Local Government: Municipal Systems Act, 2000 (Act No. 32 of 2000) by giving written notice of the appeal and reasons to the municipal manager within 21 days of the date of the notification of the decision.

13. ENFORCEMENT

13.1 An officer may issue a person with a written warning if, in the opinion of the officer, that person has traded in goods or provided services in contravention of this By-Law or that person has contravened this By-Law in any other manner, including but not limited to, in violation of a permit condition, or any other applicable law.

13.2 In the event of a person continuing or repeating a contravention in respect of which two (2) written warnings have already been issued to that person, then an authorised official shall impound, any property used by the informal trader in conducting the informal trade, any property, including but not limited to, goods, equipment, structures and motor vehicles, in which case an authorised official shall –

13.2.1 Complete a full inventory of all the property that has been impounded and such inventory must include information on the consequences of such 17 impoundment should the person fail to pay the impoundment costs and collect the goods;.

13.2.2 Provide the person with a copy of the inventory; and

13.2.3 Immediately store the impounded property in an area designated by the Municipality for the storage of impounded property.

13.3 Property which has been impounded from a person may be released after the presentation by the person of the inventory contemplated in section 13.2 and the payment of the impoundment costs, provided that the Municipality is reasonably satisfied that the relevant person will not, upon the release of the property, continue to commit any contravention which led to the goods being impounded; provided further that, where the Municipality is not so satisfied, it may withhold the goods for up to 30 (thirty) days after payment of any fine and/or impoundment costs.

13.4 Perishable goods that have been impounded may, at any time after the impoundment, be sold or otherwise disposed of by the Municipality. The Municipality may destroy the goods if the condition of those goods renders them unfit for human consumption.

13.5 Impounded property other than perishable goods, may be sold by the Municipality if the owner does not, or is unable to, pay the impoundment costs within 1 (one) month from the date of impoundment of that property.

13.6 In the event of the impounded property being sold by the Municipality in terms of sections 13.4 or 13.5, and upon the presentation of the inventory as contemplated in section 13.2.2 by the owner, the Municipality must pay to that owner -

13.6.1 The proceeds of the sale less the impoundment costs; or

13.6.1 If the owner has previously paid the impoundment costs, the proceeds must be paid to the owner free of any such deduction.

13.7 If the owner does not claim the proceeds derived from the sale of the impounded goods within 3 (three) months from the date of impoundment, then the proceeds will be forfeited to the Municipality.

13.8 If in the reasonable opinion of an officer, an informal trader is suspected of trading in illegal goods, then such goods may be immediately confiscated. In the event of such a confiscation, the officer must:

13.8.1 Complete a full inventory of all the property that has been confiscated;

13.8.2 Provide the informal trader with a copy of the inventory; and

13.8.3 Immediately surrender the suspected illegal goods to the possession of the South African Police Service.
