Right to trade

2. Subject to the provisions of sections 3 and 4 and any other act relating hereto, the business activities of street traders are freely permitted, except when it is prohibited by sections 5 to 12 as well as sections 14 and 15.

General Conduct

3. A person who is doing the business of street trader, vendor or hawker shall—
- (a) Not place his property on a verge or public place except for the purpose of commencing to trade;
 - (b) ensure that his property does not cover an area of a public road or public place which is greater in extent than three metres long or two metres wide;
 - (c) not place or stack his property in such manner that it constitutes a danger to any person or is likely to injure any person;
 - (d) place his property in such manner as not to obstruct any entrance to any service or fire hydrant;
 - (e) on concluding business for the day remove his property to a place which is not part of a public road or public place;
 - (f) not display his goods or other property on a building or other private property, without the consent of the owner, occupier or person in control of such building or property;
 - (g) on request by an employee or agent of the Council or any supplier of telecommunications or electricity or other services, move his property as to permit the carrying out of any work in relation to a public road, public place or any such service;
 - (h) not attach any object by any means to any building, structure, pavement, tree, parking metre, lamp-pole, electricity pole, telephone booth, post box, traffic sign, bench or any other street furniture in or on a public road or public place;
 - (i) not make a fire at place or in circumstances where it could harm any person or damage a building or vehicle or any street furniture referred to in paragraph (h);
 - (j) not store his property in a manhole or stormwater drain;
 - (k) not spend the night on the place of business;
 - (l) not erect any structure providing shelter (excluding an appliance which in appearance and functioning resembles an umbrella) without the prior approval of the Council.

Cleanlines of place of business and protection of public health

4. A person who is doing the business of a street trader, vendor or hawker shall—
- (a) keep the area or site occupied by him for the purpose of such business in a clean and sanitary condition;
 - (b) keep his property in a clean and sanitary condition;
 - (c) properly dispose of litter generated by his business through refuse bins supplied by the Council;
 - (d) not dispose of litter in a manhole, stormwater drain or other place not intended for the disposal of litter;
 - (e) ensure that on completion of business for the day, the area or site occupied by him for purposes of trade is free of litter, and in a hygienic condition;
 - (f) in the case of a vendor of foodstuffs, take such precautions as may be necessary to prevent the spilling onto a public place or any fat, oil grease in the course of conducting his business and to prevent any smoke, fumes or odours emanating from his activities from becoming a nuisance;
 - (g) on request by an employee or agent of the Council move his property so as to permit the cleansing of the surface of the area or site where he is trading;
 - (h) conduct his business in such a way not to cause any hazard to public health or safety.

Obstructions of pedestrians

5. No person shall trade at a place where—

- (a) it obstructs access to street furniture such as a bus passenger bench or shelter or queuing line, a refuse disposal bin or other facility intended for the use of the general public;
- (b) it obstructs the visibility or a display window in business premises, if the person carrying on business in the business premises concerned, objects thereto;
- (c) it obstructs access to an entrance to or exit from a building or a automatic bank teller machine;
- (d) it obstructs access to a pedestrian crossing;
- (e) it obstructs access to any vehicle;
- (f) it leaves less than 1,5 (one and a half) metres in width of a sidewalk clear for pedestrian use; or
- (g) it in any other manner substantially obstructs pedestrians in their use of a sidewalk.

Obstruction of vehicular traffic

6. No person shall trade at a place where—

- (a) it causes an obstruction on a roadway;
- (b) it limits access to parking or loading bays or other facilities for vehicular traffic;
- (c) it obscures any road traffic sign or any marking, notice or sign displayed or made in terms of these by-laws; or
- (d) it interferes in any way with any vehicle that may be parked alongside such place.

Trading restricted to specified hours in certain places

7. No person shall trade—

- (a) on a verge contiguous to any place of worship, national monument or public building; or
- (b) outside the area as specified in Schedule A or outside the hours specified in relation to such area.

No trading in stands or areas which have been let except by the lessee

8. If the Council has let or otherwise allocated any stand or area set apart or otherwise established for street trading purposes, as contemplated in section 6A (3) (c) of the Act, no person may trade on such stand or in such area if he is not in possession of proof that he has hired such stand or area from the Council or that it has otherwise been allocated to him.

No trading near public buildings, places of worship and national monuments

9. No person shall trade on a verge contiguous to any place of worship, national monument or public building.

No trading in prohibited areas

10. No person shall trade in any prohibited area.

Signs indicating restrictions and areas

11. The Council shall—

- (a) by resolution prescribe signs, markings or other devices indicating—
 - (i) specified hours, places, goods or services in respect of which street trading is restricted;
 - (ii) the location or boundaries of a restricted area;
 - (iii) the boundaries of a stand or area set apart for the purposes of the carrying on of the business of street trading under section 6A (3) (b) of the Act;
 - (iv) the location or boundaries of the prohibited areas;
- (b) display any such sign, marking or device in such a position and manner as will indicate the restriction or the location or boundaries of the area or stand concerned.

Trading near certain business premises

13. No person shall trade on a verge contiguous to that part of a building in which business is being carried on by a person other than a department store or supermarket or other large supplier of many different lines of goods, and who, as one of this principal lines, sells goods of the same nature as or of a similar nature to goods being sold by the first-mentioned person, without the consent of the second-mentioned person.

Removal and impoundment

14. (1) For the purpose of this article goods also means any holder, vehicle or movable structure.

(2) An officer may remove and impound any goods—

- (a) which he reasonably suspects is being used or intended to be used or has been used in or in connection with street trading, vending or hawking;
- (b) which he finds at a place where street trading is restricted or prohibited in terms of sections 4 to 12 inclusive and which, in his opinion, constituted an infringement of any such section.

(3) The disposal of any goods, article, receptacle, vehicle or structure removed and impounded as contemplated in subsection (1), and the liability of any person for the expenses incurred in connection with such removal, impoundment or disposal, shall be in accordance with the regulations prescribed by the Administrator under section 6 (1) (b) of the Act.

(4) Any officer acting in terms of subarticle (2) has to—

- (a) issue a receipt to the person conducting the business of street trading, vending or hawking, in terms of any goods thus removed or impounded; and
- (b) without delay turn in such goods at the local authority in which area of jurisdiction such goods were found.

Presumptions

15. (1) In any prosecution for an offence under these by-laws, an allegation in the charge concerned that—

- (a) any goods with which a business was carried on were or were not of a particular kind, class, type or description;
- (b) any goods were sold or offered for sale;
- (c) any place was situated in a public road or public place or within a particular area;
- (d) any person carried on the business of street trading and in a manner and place alleged, shall be presumed to be correct unless the contrary is proved.

(2) In any criminal proceedings for a contravention of these by-laws, where it is shown that—

- (a) any goods were displayed in a public road or public place, such goods shall be presumed to have been offered for sale;
- (b) any property used in the provision of any services was available in a public road or public place, such services shall be deemed to have been offered for supply.

Vicarious responsibility of persons carrying on business

16. When an employee of a person conducting the business of street trading does or omits to do any act which would be an offence in terms of these by-laws for that person to do or omit to do, that person shall be deemed himself to have done or omitted to do the act, unless he satisfies the court that—

- (a) he neither connived at or permitted the act or omission by the employee concerned;
- (b) he took all reasonable steps to prevent the act or omission; and
- (c) an act or omission, whether lawful, of the nature charged on no condition or under circumstance fell within the scope of the authority or employment of the employee concerned, and the fact that the said person issued instructions whereby an act or omission of that nature is prohibited, shall not in itself be sufficient proof that he took all reasonable steps to prevent the act or omission.

Vicarious responsibility of employees

17. When a person carrying on the business of street trading is by virtue of section 16 liable for an act or omission by an employee of that person, that employee shall also be liable therefore as if he were the person carrying on the business concerned.

Offences and penalties

18. Any person who—

- (a) contravenes any of the provisions of the by-laws or neglects to adhere to any conditions stated; or
- (b) threatens, resists, bothers or impedes any official or employee of the council in the execution of his or her duties or work in accordance or in virtue of these by-laws; or
- (c) with intention misleads or gives false information to an official or employee of the council, is guilty of an offence and is punishable when convicted with a fine of not more than one thousand rand (R1 000,00) or confinement for not more than three (3) months or both.

Appeals

20. (1) Any person who feels him/herself aggrieved by a decision of the Council may appeal against such decision to an Appeal Committee in accordance with the Provisions set out herein.

(2) Any person who feels him/herself aggrieved by the decision of the Council shall notify the Council of his/her intention to Appeal the decision in writing within 10 days of having received notification of the Council's decision.

Constitution of an Appeal Committee

21. (1) The member of Executive Council of Economic Affairs may, with the concurrence of the Council, Representatives of the Informal Traders and any other interested person, designate persons as members and alternative members of the Appeal Committee.

(2) The Appeal Committee shall consist of a maximum of 7 (seven) members with at least 1 (one) member from the relevant sector.

(3) The members of the Appeal Committee shall appoint a member to act as a Chairperson and Deputy Chairperson respectively.

(4) When the Chairperson is unable to perform the function of Chairperson, the Deputy Chairperson shall perform the function of Chairperson.

(5) If the Chairperson is of the opinion that a particular person is able to assist the Appeal Committee, he/she may co-opt that person for that purpose.

(6) A person so co-opted shall not be entitled to vote at any meetings of the Committee.

(7) The Chairperson shall notify the aggrieved person of the date, time and place of the meeting of the Appeal Committee at which his/her presence is required within 10 days of receipt of one Notice of Appeal.

(8) The aggrieved person who has received notice in terms of provision 21 (7) shall personally appear at the meeting or appoint a Legal Representative or any other person to appear on his/her behalf.

(9) The Council concerned may be represented by an authorized official or a legal representative.

Procedure at Appeal Meetings

22. (1) The Chairperson shall determine the procedure of the meeting provided:

- (a) Such procedures adhere to the audi alteram partem principle;
- (b) all parties are advised seven days prior to the hearing of the hearing and the procedures to be observed.

(2) All members shall be present at the meeting of the Appeal Committee.

(3) Any person present at the meeting may—

- (a) be called upon by the Chairperson to give evidence;
- (b) be called upon by the Chairperson to produce to the Committee any document or any other property which is in his possession or under his control; or
- (c) be questioned by the Committee on the matter before it.

(4) The Appeal Committee shall review the decision of the Council and make a finding having regard to the following considerations:

- (a) whether the decision of the council was fair and equitable in the circumstances;
- (b) the effect of the decision on the ability to trade of the aggrieved person; and
- (c) whether alternative measures may be adopted to facilitate the continued business of the aggrieved person.

(5) A decision of the Committee shall be taken by a majority of votes of the members present at the meeting and in the event of an equality of votes, the Chairperson shall have a casting vote in addition to his/her deliberative vote.
