Case No. 2000/12886
P/H No. 1000

IN THE HIGH COURT OF SOUTH AFRICA

(Witwatersrand Local Division)

Johannesburg, 7 July 2000, before the Honourable Judge Stegman

In the matter between NATIONAL DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC PROSECUTIONS, Applicant, and COLE PETER MICHAEL, 1st Applicant, DAVIS HILTON CHARLES, 2nd Applicant, and KENNEDY TRACY, 3rd Applicant

Having read the documents filed of record and having considered the matter:

It is Ordered:

A. That the following notice in terms of Section 39 (1) of the Prevention of Organised Crime Act, 1998 (Act No. 121 of 1998) ("the Act") is to be served and published forthwith under the heading and Case number set out above:—

"Take notice that:—

1. A preservation of property order, of which a copy is attached to this notice, was issued in the High Court of South Africa (Witwatersrand Local Division) under Case No. 2000/4186, by direction of the Honourable Mr Justice Joffe on 29 February 2000, in terms of Section 38 (2) of the Prevention of Organised Crime Act, 1998 (Act No. 121 of 1998) ("the Act in respect of the immovable property known as Erf 174, Lonehill, situated at 31 A Morgenser Crescent, Lonehill, Johannesburg, Gauteng Province ("the property").

2. If you have an interest in the property, you should understand that it is now at risk. You would be well advised to obtain legal advise on whether your interest can be protected and, if so, on how to protect it.

3. In terms of Section 40 of the Act, a preservation of property order expires 90 (ninety) days after the date of publication in the Government Gazette of notice of that order unless one or other of the steps mentioned in Section 40 is taken. In the present matter, notice of preservation of property order was published in the Government Gazette on the 24 March 2000.

4. Pursuant to the preservation of property order, and on 8 June 2000, the Applicant launched an application to this Court, in terms of Section 48 of the Act, for an order in terms of Section 53, read with Section 50, of the Act, declaring the property forfeit to the State on the grounds that notice of the preservation of property order had been duly served and published in accordance with Section 39 (1) and (2) of the Act and the preservation of property order itself, that all interested persons were in default, and that facts justifying the issue of a forfeiture order in respect of the property had duly been proved. The court did not accept that interested and potentially interested persons had been given notice in accordance with the provisions of the Act. The purposes of this notice are to rectify the shortcomings of the earlier notice, to permit all persons who have, or who claim to have, an interest in the property to enter an appearance to resist the Applicant's claim for a forfeiture order, or to apply for the exclusion of their respective interests from the operation of any forfeiture order that may be made, and to permit the Applicant to proceed with his application, either on an opposed basis if interested persons enter an appearance, or on a default basis if no-one enters as appearance.

5. Any person who has an interest in the property and who intends to resist the making of a forfeiture order, is hereby afforded the opportunity to enter an appearance in terms of Section 39 (3) of the Act giving notice of his or her intention:—

(a) to oppose the making of a forfeiture order.

(b) to apply for an order excluding his or her interest in the property from the operation of any forfeiture order that may be made.

6. If this notice has been served on you, you must, in terms of Section 39 (4) (a) of the Act, enter an appearance within fourteen (14) days after the date of service of the notice on you, failing which you will receive no further notice, and your interest in the property may be defeated by the forfeiture order granted by default in terms of Sections 50 and 53 of the Act.

ORDERS OF THE COURT (continued) • ORDERS VAN DIE HOF (vervolg)

7. If this notice has not been served on you, it will in any event be published in the Government Gazette, and you must, in terms of Section 39 (4) (b) of the Act, enter an appearance within fourteen (14) days after the date of publication in the Government Gazette, failing which you will receive no further notice, and your interest in the property may be defeated by a forfeiture order granted by default in terms of Sections 50 and 53 of the Act.

8. To enter an appearance validly, you must, within the time specified in paragraph 6 and 7 above:

8.1 serve on the State Attorney, Johannesburg (Ref: 111/00/P14), at 95 Market Street, Johannesburg, a true copy of a written notice of appearance that:

(a) contains as address within 8 (eight) kilometres of the Court, as which you will accept notice and service of all documents in the proceedings.

(b) complies with the requirements of section 39 (5) of the Act, quoted in paragraph 8.3 below.

8.2 file the original notice of appearance with the Registrar of this Court.

8.3 Section 39 (5) of the Act provides:—

"39.(5) An appearance under subsection (3) shall contain full particulars of the chosen address for the delivery of documents concerning further proceedings under this Chapter and shall be accompanies by an affidavit stating:—

(a) full particulars of the identity of the person entering the appearance.

(b) the nature and extent of his or her interest in the property concerned.

(c) the basis of the defence upon which he or she intends to reply in opposing a forfeiture order or applying for the exclusion of his or her interests from the operation thereof.

9. If you enter an appearance validly and in good time, you will be entitled in terms of Section 48 (2) of the Act to 14 (fourteen) days' notice of the application to be made by the Applicant for a forfeiture order, and such notice will have to be served on you in terms of Section 48 (3). In terms of Section 48 (4) you will then be entitled to appear at the hearing of the application, to oppose the making of forfeiture order, or to apply for an order either excluding your interest from the operation of any forfeiture order, or varying the operation of the order in respect of the property, and to adduce evidence relevant to your case.

10. If you should fail to enter an appearance validly and in good time, or if you should not have received or become aware of this notice, you may yet have grounds to apply, in terms of Section 49 of the Act, for the leave of this Court to enter your appearance late.

11. A forfeiture order can only be made while a preservation of property order is in force (Section 48 (1). In terms of Section 47 (1) (a) of the Act, any person affected by a preservation of property order may apply to this Court to rescind that order in the circumstances there mentioned. In addition, this Court is obliged by the provisions of Section 47 (1) (b) of the Act to rescind the preservation of property order when the proceedings against the Defendant concerned are 'concluded'. However, section 50 (4) also provides that the validity of a forfeiture order is not affected by the outcome of criminal proceedings in respect of an offence with which the property is associated.

12. The preservation of property order, being in respect of immovable property, may be rescinded by this Court in terms of Section 47 (3) of the Act, on the application, at any time, of any person affected by the order.

13. A forfeiture order is also required to be published in the Government Gazette in terms of Section 50 (5) of the Act. If a forfeiture order should have been made before you become aware that it is to be applied for, you may have grounds on which to apply to this Court in terms of Section 54 of the Act for the exclusion of your interest from the operation of the forfeiture order already made, or for an varying the operation of the forfeiture order in respect of the property. You will then have to comply with the procedural requirements of section 54. You will then only 45 (forty five) days from the date of publication of the forfeiture order in the Government Gazette in which to make an application to this Court for relief.

14. If a forfeiture order, or any other order under Section 53 (1) (b) of the Act, should be made by default, any person whose interest in the property concerned is affected by the order will have the right, within twenty twenty (20) days after acquiring knowledge of the order, to set the matter down for variation or rescission of the order by the Court, and the Court is empowered, upon good cause shown, to vary or rescind the default order or to give some other direction on such terms as it deems appropriate (Section 53 (3) and (4) of the Act)".

B. 1. The Applicant is directed to comply with the requirements of Section 39 (1) and (2) of the Act, and to give the notice in A above, including a copy of the preservation of property order issued by the Honourable Mr Justice Joffe on 29 February 2000, to all persons known to him to have an interest in the property, including all persons reflected in the Deeds Registry as having an interest in the property.

2. The whole of this order (including Parts A and B and a copy of the preservation of the property order dated 29 February 2000) must be served in the manner specified in Section 39 (2) of the Act on:—

2.1 Peter Michael Cole

2.2 Hilton Charles Davis

2.3 Tracy Kennedy

2.4 First National Bank of Southern Africa Limited.

2.5 Every person reflected in the Deeds Registry as having an interest in the property.

ORDERS OF THE COURT (continued) • ORDERS VAN DIE HOF (vervolg)

3. This whole of this order (including Parts A and B and a copy of the preservation of property order dated 29 February 2000) must be published in the Government Gazette in compliance with Section 39 (1) (b) of the Act.

4. In accordance with paragraph 6.3 of the preservation of property order made on 29 February 2000, that order must forthwith be affixed in a prominent place on or near the entrance to the property, and an affidavit proving compliance with that direction must be filed of record as soon as practicable.
