Case No. GCC 122/14/07/04

IN THE GAUTENG CONSUMER AFFAIRS COURT HELD AT JOHANNESBURG

In the matter between: PUSELETSO MIRRIAM NGOZO, Complainant, and D G KOLISANG trading as JEPPE AUTO BODY, Respondent*JUDGMENT*Introduction

1. This is the judgment concerning an alleged unfair business practice arising out of the Respondent's failure to deliver to the Complainant a Nissan Sentra motor vehicle (the vehicle) in accordance with an agreement the Complainant concluded with the Respondent on 3 March 2001.

ORDERS OF THE COURT (continued) • ORDERS VAN DIE HOF (vervolg)

2. The hearing took place on 10 August 2004. The Complainant was represented by the Consumer Protector, Mr F Manamela. The Respondent elected not to attend the hearing, which proceeded in the Respondent's absence.

Summary of evidence

3. Only the Complainant testified in support of her complaint. According to the Complainant, on or about 3 March 2001, she entered into a verbal agreement with the Respondent, in terms of which the Respondent sold the vehicle to the Complainant.

4. The purchase price of the vehicle was R28 000,00 payable as follows —

4.1 A deposit of R12 000,00 payable on 3 March 2001;

4.2 monthly instalments of R1 000,00, which were to commence upon the Respondent delivering the vehicle to the Complainant; and

4.3 payment of the balance of R4 000,00 was to be accelerated by making additional monthly payments to the monthly instalments of R1 000,00.

5. On or about 3 March 2001, the Complainant paid to the Respondent the full deposit and handed her identity document to the Respondent to enable the Respondent to register the vehicle in the Complainant's name. The Respondent undertook to deliver the vehicle to the Complainant the following week.

6. The following Friday, the Complainant called at the Respondent's premises to take delivery of the vehicle. The Respondent told the Complainant that the vehicle was not ready to be delivered to the Complainant. Thereafter, the Complainant repeatedly called at the Respondent's premises on Friday afternoons to collect both the vehicle and her identity document. Initially, the Respondent told the Complainant that he was still processing the vehicle's registration papers. Subsequently, he said that he was repairing the vehicle's engine.

7. In July 2001, the Respondent loaned the Complainant a Toyota Tazz motor vehicle to use until such time that the Respondent delivered the vehicle to the Complainant. The Complainant drove the vehicle for about 3 months before returning it to the Respondent.

8. On 10 October 2001, the Complainant paid the Respondent an amount of R1 000,00 to expedite delivery of the vehicle. Despite this, the Respondent failed to deliver the vehicle to the Complainant.

9. The Respondent eventually returned the Complainant's identity document to her. The Complainant offered to pay the balance of the purchase price but the Respondent refused to accept same because the Respondent had not delivered the vehicle to the Complainant.

10. In 2003, the Respondent attended a meeting with the Complainant at the office of the Consumer Protector. The Complainant requested her money back. Despite this request, the Respondent has not refunded any money to the Complainant.

11. The Respondent's failure to deliver the vehicle to the Complainant has prejudiced the Complainant. The Complainant lives in Lenasia South. She is an occupational health practitioner and bought the vehicle to use for work purposes. She is desperately in need of a vehicle to enable her to do her work.

Analysis of evidence

12. The Complainant is required to prove her case against the Respondent on a balance of probabilities. This standard means that the complainant's version must be more probable than the Respondent's version.

13. The Respondent, despite being subpoenaed to attend the Court hearing and having acknowledged receipt of the subpoena, elected not to do so. Accordingly, the uncontested evidence before the Court is that the Respondent accepted R13 000,00 from the Complainant towards payment for the vehicle and failed to deliver the vehicle to the Complainant. The Respondent's conduct has unfairly affected the Complainant and constitutes an unfair business practice under the Consumer Affairs (Unfair Business Practices) Act, 1996 (the Act).

14. The unfair business practice committed by the Respondent is aggravated by the Respondent's actions. The Respondent took R13 000,00 from the Complainant and failed to deliver the vehicle to her. He also failed to refund the Complainant that money after he had undertaken to do so. Moreover, the Respondent failed to attend the Court to explain his behaviour. It follows that the Respondent has acted grossly unreasonably.

Compensation

15. The Complainant has been clearly prejudiced. She paid an amount of R13 000,00 but did not receive the benefit of the motor vehicle from the Respondent, who held himself out to be in the business of car sales. Accordingly, she is entitled to be refunded this amount.

Costs

16. Section 17(1)(b) of the Act empowers the Court to award costs on a prescribed scale or in an amount determined by the Court against a person who is found to have acted, amongst other things, grossly unreasonably. The Court has found that the Respondent has acted grossly unreasonably and considers it appropriate to order the Respondent to pay towards the costs of the investigation by the Office for the Investigation of Unfair Business Practices and the sitting of the Court.

Order

17. Accordingly, the Court orders that —

17.1 the Respondent is, through the Office for the Investigation of Unfair Business Practices and within 21 days of this judgment having been served on the Respondent, to refund the Complainant the amount of R12 000,00 together with interest thereon at the prescribed rate from 3 March 2001 to date of payment;
