Case No. GCC133/10/08/04

IN THE GAUTENG CONSUMER AFFAIRS COURT HELD AT JOHANNESBURG

In the matter between: MICHAEL SERONGOANE, Complainant, and PIETER BYLEVELDT trading as RAND GEARBOXES, RespondentJudgmentIntroduction*

1. This is the judgment concerning an alleged unfair business practice arising out of the Respondent's failure to convert and fit an engine and gearbox in the Complainant's Mazda truck in accordance with an agreement the complainant concluded with the Respondent in or about June 2003.

2. The hearing took place on the 24 August 2004. The complainant was represented by the Consumer Protector, Mr F Manamela. The Respondent elected not to attend the hearing, which proceeded in the Respondent's absence.

Summary of evidence

3. Only the complainant testified in support of his Complainant. According to the Complainant, in or about June 2003, he entered into a verbal agreement with the Respondent, who was represented by one Pieter Byleveldt (Byleveldt) in terms of which the Respondent would convert the engine and gearbox from the Complainant's Toyota Dyna truck (the Toyota) and fit same in the complainant's Mazda truck (the Mazda) for an amount of R3 500.00.

4. In or about June 2003, the complainant paid the Respondent an initial amount of R500.00. Byleveldt's son, Marthinus Byleveldt, acknowledged receipt of this payment by recording it in an invoice book in the presence of the Complainant and Byleveldt. Marthinus Byleveldt did not furnish the Complainant with a receipt for this payment.

5. The Complainant personally removed the engine and gearbox from the Toyota and delivered same to the Respondent to fit in the Mazda.

6. The Toyota's gearbox had a specifically moulded bell housing (the bell housing), which fitted a Toyota engine. In terms of the agreement—

6.1 the Respondent was required to separate the bell housing from the Toyota's gearbox; and

6.2 the complainant was to supply the Respondent with another gearbox to replace the gearbox which had been separated from the bell housing.

7. The Respondent separated the bell housing from the Toyota's gearbox and returned the Toyota's gearbox to the complainant.

8. However, contrary to the agreement and on 2 July 2003, Byleveldt demanded that the Complainant pay a further amount of R2 000.00 to the Respondent for the Respondent to replace the Toyota's gearbox.

9. The Complainant then paid the amount of R2 000.00 to the Respondent. The Respondent gave the complainant a receipt for this payment. However, the Respondent failed to replace the gearbox.

10. To encourage the Respondent to replace the gearbox in accordance with the agreement, the Complainant paid a further amount of R700.00 to Byleveldt sometime before 16 July 2003. Byleveldt gave the complainant a receipt for this payment.

11. On 16 July 2003, the Complainant paid the Respondent a further amount of R410.00 for stripping the engine and petrol costs.

12. Despite this further payment, the Respondent failed to replace the gearbox. Since the complainant had 2 spare Toyota gearboxes, he took these gearboxes to the Respondent to determine if either of them fitted the Mazda. The Respondent told the Complainant that they did not fit and returned them to the complainant.

13. Subsequently, the Respondent obtained a similar gearbox to the 2 gearboxes the Complainant had supplied to the Respondent. However, this gearbox did not fit the bell housing and Byleveldt insisted that the Complainant find someone else to complete the work.

14. When the complainant declined to take the gearbox, the Respondent had provided, Byleveldt threatened the Complainant that should the Complainant not take the gearbox then the Respondent should not set foot on the Respondent's premises again. The Complainant then left the Respondent's premises with the engine and other miscellaneous parts but left the Respondent's gearbox on the Respondent's premises.

15. Despite the demand, the Respondent refused to refund the Complainant the monies the Complainant paid to the Respondent. The complainant then complained to the City Press newspaper "Hotline", who referred the Complainant to this Court.

Analysis of Evidence

16. The Complainant is required to prove his case against the Respondent on a balance of probabilities. This standard means that the Complainant's version must be more probable than the Respondent's version.

17. The Respondent, despite being summoned to attend the Court hearing and the summons having been duly served on him, elected not to do so. Accordingly, the uncontested evidence before the Court is that the Respondent accepted R3 610.00 from the Complainant to convert and fit an engine and gearbox in the Complainant's Mazda vehicle but failed to do so. The Respondent's conduct has unfairly affected the Complainant and constitutes an unfair business practice under the Consumer Affairs (Unfair Business Practices) Act, 1996 (the Act).

ORDERS OF THE COURT (continued) • ORDERS VAN DIE HOF (vervolg)

18. The unfair business practice committed by the Respondent is aggravated by the Respondent's actions. The Respondent took R3 610.00 from the complainant and failed to comply with his side of the agreement. He also threatened the Complainant that should the Complainant not take the gearbox supplied by him, then the Complainant should not set foot on his premises again. The Respondent failed to attend Court to explain his behaviour. It follows that the Respondent has acted grossly unreasonably.

Compensation

19 The Complainant has been clearly prejudiced. He paid an amount of R3 610.00 but did not receive the benefit of the refurbished gearbox and engine from the Respondent, who held himself out to be in the business of dealing in gearboxes. Accordingly, the Complainant is entitled to be refunded this amount.

Costs

20. Section 17(1)(b) of the Act empowers the Court to award costs on a prescribed scale or in an amount determined by the Court against a person who is found to have acted, amongst other things, grossly unreasonably. The Court has found that the Respondent has acted grossly unreasonably and considers it appropriate to order the Respondent to pay towards the costs of the investigation by the Office for the Investigation of Unfair Business Practices and the sitting of the Court.

Order

21. Accordingly, the Court orders that—

21.1 The Respondent is, through the Office for the Investigation of Unfair Business Practices and within 21 days of this judgment having been served on the Respondent, to refund the Complainant the amount of R3 610.00 together with interest thereon at the prescribed rate from 16 July 2003 to date of payment.

21.2 The Respondent is to pay the Office for the Investigation of Unfair Business Practices and within 21 days of this judgment having been served on the Respondent the amount of R3 000.00 towards the costs of the investigation of this complaint by the Office for the Investigation of Unfair Business Practices and sitting of the Court.
