1. This is the ruling concerning the points in limine, which the Respondent raised at the outset of the hearing before this Court.

2. The complainant was represented by the Assistant Consumer Protector, Mr R Sedibane and the Respondent was represented by an attorney, Mr Q Olivier.

Factual background:

3. This dispute was initially instituted out of the Consumer Affairs Court for the Free State Province under Case Number FSAC 2003/8-7. However, that court concluded unanimously that it could not entertain the dispute because the full cause of action did not arise at Ficksburg in the Free State Province and recommended that the file be transferred to the office of the Consumer Protector in Gauteng.

4. The file was duly transferred and eventually came before this Court for hearing on 28 October 2004.

Statutory provisions:

5. It is convenient at this stage to set out the statutory provisions that form the parameters of the points in limine raised by the Respondent.

6. Section 5 (1) (a) of the Consumer Affairs (Unfair Business Practices) Act, 1996 (the Act) provides that:

Functions of office:

5. (1) the office shall:

6. Section 5 (1) (a) of the Consumer Affairs (Unfair Business Practices) Act, 1996 (the Act) provides that:

Functions of office:

5. (1) the office shall:

(a) receive and investigate complaints of alleged unfair business practices which have been lodged with the office as contemplated in section 6, and dispose of such complaints in terms of this Act;

7. Section 12 (1) (a) of the Act provides that:

Institution of proceedings after completion of investigation:

12. (1) Upon completion of an investigation, the Consumer Protector may institute proceedings in the court of the area concerned:

(a) against the person alleged to be responsible for the unfair business practice in question.

8. Section 18 (1) of the Act provides that:

Proceedings of Court:

18. (1) Proceedings before the court shall, except in cases contemplated in sections 12 and 20, be initiated by summons in the prescribed form which shall be served on the person concerned in any manner as may be prescribed, which may include service outside the Province.

9. Section 19 (1) (a) of the Act provides that:

Summoning of witnesses and production of documents:

19. (1) For the purpose of ascertaining any matter relating to proceedings before the Court, the Court may:

(a) by summons addressed to any person, including the person alleged to have performed the unfair business practice, in the prescribed form under the hand of the clerk of the Court, and served in the prescribed manner, require such person to appear before the Court at a time and place specified in such summons, to give evidence and to produce any book, document or object in the possession or custody or under the control of such person and which may be reasonably necessary, material and relevant in connection with those proceedings;

10. Regulation 3 of the Consumer Affairs (Unfair Business Practices) Regulations (the regulations) made under the Act provides that:

Notice of investigation to person allegedly responsible for unfair business practice:

3. (1) When the office institutes an investigation, whether on receipt of a complaint as contemplated in section 6 of the Act or of its own accord or at the instance of the responsible Member as contemplated in section 7 (1) and (2) respectively, or in terms of section 12 (1) (b) of the Act, the Office must give notice of the investigation and of the alleged unfair business practice to the person alleged or suspected to be responsible for the unfair business practice in question.

ORDERS OF THE COURT (continued) • ORDERS VAN DIE HOF (vervolg)

(2) The Consumer Protector must cause notice to be given:

(a) through delivery to the person to be notified; or

(b) by sending the notice to that person by electronic facsimile or prepaid registered post to his/her:

(i) business address; or

(ii) address last known to the office.

(3) A warning to the person allegedly implicated that a statement or explanation, which he/she may give, may be used against him/her in the proceedings before the court must accompany a notice referred to in subregulation (1).

(4) A notice as referred to in subregulation (1) must be sent regardless of whether the Office makes known the investigation in the Provincial Gazette as contemplated in section 7 (3) of the Act.

11. Regulation 14 provides that:

Form of summons initiating proceedings against person allegedly responsible for unfair business practice:

(2) The summons must:

(a) contain the substance of the allegations regarding the unfair business practice in question;

(b) specify a date, which will not be less than 10 working days and place on which the person summoned is required to appear before the court.

12. Regulation 15 sets out the manner in which a summons referred to in regulation 14 initiating proceedings against a person alleged to be responsible for an unfair business practice must be served. For the purposes of this ruling it is unnecessary to set out the provisions of regulation 15 (1).

13. Regulation 16 provides that:

Summoning by court of witnesses and producing documents to ascertain a matter relating to proceedings:

16. (1) Where the court issues an order requiring a person to appear before it to give evidence or to produce an object for the purpose of ascertaining a matter relating to proceedings before the court as contemplated in section 19 (1) (a), the court must issue a summons addressed to that person complying with Form 6 in Annexure A.

Summary of points in limineRespondent's contentions

14. Mr Olivier contended that this dispute was both prematurely and irregularly before this Court. In this regard, he submitted first, that the Office for the Investigation of Unfair Business Practices in Gauteng (the office) had not followed the procedure set out in regulation 3 before instituting these proceedings.

15. Second, this dispute is irregularly before this Court because it is based solely on a Summons To Appear Before The Consumer Affairs Court (the subpoena) which has been issued under section 19 (1) (a) of the Act and regulation 16 (1) of the regulations. The applicant should have initiated proceedings against the respondent through a Summons Initiating Proceedings Before the Consumer Affairs Court (the summons) under section 18 (1) and regulation 14 (1).

16. Third, the subpoena does not state precisely who the Respondent is in this dispute. The subpoena lists a Leon Brown (Brown), Amalgamated Engines and Spares as well as N12 Diesel Engines CC. Accordingly, the identity of the Respondent is unclear, especially since there was no instituting document in this dispute and one is led to assume that Brown is the Respondent.

Complaint's submissions:

17. Mr Sedibane submitted first, that this dispute concerns an unfair business practice and therefore this Court has jurisdiction to hear the dispute. Without entering the merits of this dispute, the office will show that the complainant has been prejudiced by the Respondent's actions.

18. Second, an investigation was instituted by the Office for the Investigation of Unfair Business Practices in the Free State Province (the Free State Office) and the Respondent is aware that an investigation was instituted against him concerning an alleged unfair business practice. Although the Free State Consumer Court lacks jurisdiction to determine this dispute an investigation has nevertheless been instituted and completed.

19. Third, as appears from the Sheriff's return of service, the subpoena to appear before this Court on 24 August 2004 was served on the Respondent on 19 August 2004. The subpoena constitutes a notice to the Respondent and the Respondent has had about 2 months to communicate with the office and informally respond to the allegations against him. The Respondent did not do so.

20. Fourth, the subpoena was correctly addressed to the Respondent. At all relevant times the complaint dealt with Brown on the understanding that Brown was the representative of Amalgamated Engines and Spares, which 'called themselves' N12 Diesel Engines CC.

ORDERS OF THE COURT (continued) • ORDERS VAN DIE HOF (vervolg)Analysis of submissions:

21. The first string to Mr Olivier's bow was that the office failed to comply with regulation 3 by giving the Respondent notice of the investigation. To his credit, Mr Sedibane readily conceded that the office had not instituted an investigation against the Respondent and had not sent the Respondent notice of the investigation.

22. Regulation 3 specifically states that the office "must" give notice of both the investigation and the alleged unfair business practice to the person alleged or suspected to be responsible for the unfair business practice in question. The question arises whether or not the use of the word "must" in regulation 3 is peremptory and requires exact compliances or whether it is merely directory and requires substantial compliance. In South African law, the purpose of the relevant legislation remains the deciding factor when determining whether or not a particular provision is peremptory or directory.

23. In our view, a reading of the Act and regulations taken as a whole indicates that the provisions of regulation 3 are peremptory. The Act provides for, amongst other things, the "investigation, prohibition and control of unfair business practices". Section 5 (1) (a) of the Act specifically states that the office "shall", amongst other things, "receive and investigate complaints". Section 12 (1) (a) provides that the Consumer Protector "may" institute proceedings "upon completion of an investigation". Clearly, the use of the words "shall" in section 5 (1) (a) and "must" in regulation 3 have an imperative or affirmative character. The notice in regulation 3 clearly aims to notify a person in the respondent's position of the complaint concerning an alleged unfair business practice, that the office has instituted an investigation and to give that person an opportunity to respond to the allegation. Regulation 3 (4) requires that the notice "must be sent regardless of whether the office makes known the investigation in the Provincial Gazette as contemplated in section 7 (3) of the Act".

24. It does not help the complainant to suggest, as Mr Sedibane did in argument, that an investigation by the Free State office amounts to an investigation by the office. The Free State and Gauteng offices are governed by different legislation and clearly have separate jurisdictions. It follows that an investigation concerning an alleged unfair business practice falling within the jurisdiction of the office must be conducted by the office and not the Free State office and that the Consumer Protector may, as envisaged by section 12 of the Act, only institute proceedings once an investigation is complete.

25. It follows that the office's failure to strictly comply with the provisions of regulation 3 renders the initiation of these proceedings both premature and irregular.

26. The next string to Mr Olivier's bow was that the proceedings before this court had not been initiated by a summons under section 18 (1) of the Act and regulation 14 (1) of the regulations but by the subpoena under section 198 (1) (a) and regulation 16 (1).

27. In our view, the Act and the regulations clearly require proceedings before this Court to be initiated by a summons under section 18 (1) of the Act and regulation 14 (1) of the regulations. The office erred in not doing so, which renders these proceedings fatally defective.

28. The last string to Mr Olivier's bow was that the subpoena does not state precisely who the Respondent is in this dispute and one is led to assume that Brown is the Respondent. In our view the subpoena clearly states that Brown is summoned to appear before this Court. Brown's appearance at the hearing, where he was duly represented, reveals that the subpoena is not as ambiguous as Mr Olivier would have the court believe and that Brown appreciated the necessity of being at Court. Mr Olivier's submission on this ground must therefor fail.

Order:

29. Accordingly, the court orders that:

29.1 The Office for the Investigation of Unfair Business Practices has prematurely and irregularly initiated these proceedings before this Court; and

29.2 The office for the Investigation of Unfair Business Practices is to follow the procedure set out in the Act and regulations when initiating proceedings in this dispute before this Court:

Members, K Madlala, A Mayet, I Jones and A Makwetla Concur with this judgment of Chairperson T Bailey.

Trevor Baily, Chairperson.

8. If the property is not surrendered to the curator bonis or seized and placed in her custody in accordance with this order, the curator bonis is authorised to require the person who holds or who held such property to disclose on affidavit, within a reasonable time specified by the curator bonis, full details of the whereabouts of such property.

9. The curator bonis shall file a report with the Registrar of this Honourable Court within 30 days of the granting of the preservation order which shall contain an inventory of the property taken into her custody in terms of this order, and wherein she shall set out the steps that have been taken by her to give effect to this Order, and make such further recommendations as she may deem fit with regard to any other steps she might be required to take in order to give effect to such order, and the curator bonis shall file supplementary reports containing additional relevant information as and when such reports become necessary.

Fees and expenditure of curator bonis

10. The fees and expenditure of the curator bonis shall in terms of section 42 (2) of the Act be paid from the forfeited property and, in the event of no forfeiture order being granted, then such fees and expenditure shall be paid by the State: Provided further that interest on expenditure incurred by the curator bonis shall be paid by the State at the legal rate of interest from the date of expenditure until the date of final payment.
