(g) by the insertion before the definition of "headquarters" of the following definition :

" "Head of Community Corrections" means a correctional official in charge of community corrections and who is directly responsible to the Area Manager for the management thereof;";

(h) by the substitution for the definition "household" of the following definition :

" " household " -

(a) the spouse of a married correctional official: Legal marriages as well as marriages solemnised in terms of customary- or religious law, are acknowledged for this purpose. In the case of a marriage solemnised in terms of customary- or religious law, the spouse is the person whom the official indicated the spouse of such official and who is permanently part of the household, on condition that only one person is indicated as spouse; or

(b) the necessarily dependent child of an official or of the spouse of such official who is permanently part of the official's household, on condition that, if such a child studies at an institution for post-school education, whether intramurally or extramurally, the child may be deemed to be a member of the household, but only -

- (i) if the child did not take up any permanent full-time employment (including any type of vocational training to which remuneration is attached) after leaving school, i.e. excluding compulsory military service which the child had to undergo after leaving school or work during vacations or temporary full-time employment which the child had taken up between -
 - (aa) leaving school and the commencement of the academic year; or
 - (bb) leaving school and the commencement of such military service; or
 - (cc) the completion of such military service and the commencement of the academic year, and the child had commenced with studies at such an institution at the commencement of the academic year following the completion of the child's schooling or military service; and

(ii) until -

- (aa) the child attains the minimum post-school qualification (or minimum combination of post- school qualifications) which will enable such child to take up employment in the field of study for which the child originally intended to qualify himself or herself; or
 - (bb) the normal duration of the study course, as prescribed by the institution concerned, plus one academic year, expires, if it takes the child longer than such period to attain the relevant qualification as a result of poor academic performance; or
 - (cc) the child discontinues the relevant course of study; or
 - (dd) the child changes course of study, whichever of the said four events occurs first; or
- (c) a relative of an official who is permanently part of the household of such official and necessarily dependent on such official and whose income, from any source, does not exceed the sum of -

- (i) the appropriate maximum basic social pension ; and
- (ii) the maximum allowance for a war veteran to whom a social pension has been awarded; and
- (iii) the maximum allowance paid to a person as a result of a late application for a social pension, and if the relative concerned is a social pensioner, then any allowances other than those mentioned in subparagraphs (ii) and (iii) above, which such relative may receive in terms of the relevant regulations referred to above, e.g. an attendant's allowance, should be ignored for the purposes of this paragraph, on condition that where two relatives so reside with and are dependent on such relative and where the one relative would normally have been a dependant of the other relative, for instance a father and a mother, both such relatives may be regarded as members of the household only if half of their joint income, from any source, does not exceed, the sum of the maximum basic social pension in question and the allowances contemplated in subparagraphs (i) to (iii) above ; and

- (d) not more than two servants (including nurse-maids) who are employed in a full-time capacity by a correctional official or temporary correctional official;"
 - (i) by the deletion of the definition of "member" ;
 - (j) by the deletion of paragraph (c) of the definition of "service";
 - (k) by the deletion of the definition of "South West Africa" ;
 - (l) by the substitution for the definition of "uniform" of the following definition:

"uniform" means buttons, distinctive badges and other badges, articles or uniform and equipment, clothing and accoutrement of any nature whatsoever prescribed in terms of regulation 11."
