NOTICE IN TERMS OF SECTION THIRTY (1) (a).

Attention is drawn to the following summaries of sections of the Wage Act, 1957:—

20 (1) It is an offence for any person, whether employer or employee, to contravene a determination or licence of exemption.
and
24 (1) (Maximum penalty £100 or one year's imprisonment or both, unless, in the case of an employer, underpayment exceeds £100, when fine may be increased.)

22 (1) Where an employee has been underpaid in terms of any determination or licence of exemption, the court has a discretion whether to make an order directing that the amount underpaid be paid to the employee or into the Consolidated Revenue Fund. THE ALIENS ACT, 1937.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO CHANGE NAME.

I, DANIEL FREDERIK KLOPPERS, of 3 Eitenne Court, Regents Park, Johannesburg, an emancipated minor, intend to apply to the Governor-General for authority, under Section 9 of the Aliens Act of 1937 to assume the surname of HERZBERG for the reason that my mother, with whom I reside, divorced my father when I was an infant and in whose custody I have been ever since, has reverted to her maiden name of HERZBERG. I previously also bore the name of HOLTZHAUSEN when my mother was married to one HOLTZHAUSEN, now deceased, and it is embarrassing and confusing for me to be known by a surname other than that of my mother, and to be referred to as HOLTZHAUSEN by some persons and as HERZBERG by others.

Any person who objects to my assumption of the said name of HERZBERG should, as soon as may be, lodge his objections in writing, with a statement of his reasons therefor, with the Magistrate of Johannesburg.—D. F. Kloppers, 5th July, 1957. 9251—26-2-9-16

I previously bore the names SILVIO PATRICK BOSWELL.

Any person who objects to my assumption of the said name of DAUBERT should as soon as may be lodge his objection, in writing, with a statement of his reasons therefore, with the Magistrate of Johannesburg.—S. Boswell, 22nd July, 1957. 9270—26-2-9-16

	£924	7	4

I am only able to make this offer of settlement, as someone has come forward who is willing to assist me and who is prepared to take over the immovable property at a figure of £1,850 to cover the suggested compromise. As the property is situated in the area designated for occupation by the Indian Group it is highly unlikely that such a price could be obtained under normal sale conditions. The apparent surplus would probably be absorbed by additional claims which generally crop up during the administration of an estate.

If the offer is refused, additional interest on the bonds and additional expense, pending the final liquidation of the estate, would probably result in nothing being available to concurrent creditors if the immovable property could not be sold at the favourable price offered. In addition, acceptance of the offer would mean that creditors would be paid possibly within one month of acceptance.

In the circumstances, I strongly advise that the offer be accepted and shall be glad to have your decision without delay.

Yours faithfully,
RENGEN MURUGEN.

(3) Proof of claims and to consider an offer of compromise submitted by the debtor:—

Messrs. A. Thal and A. de V. Joubert, Trustees,
Insolvent Estate Simon Davis,
85 St. George's Street,
Cape Town.

121 Bree Street,
Cape Town.
24th June, 1957.

Dear Sirs,

I hereby submit to you in terms of Section 119 of the Insolvency Act No. 24 of 1936, as amended, a written offer of composition. The details of such offer of composition are as follows:—

(1) The debtor offers to pay all secured and preferent creditors and administration charges in full.

(2) The debtor offers to pay concurrent creditors a compromise of 12s. 6d. in the £1 in full settlement of their concurrent claims.

(3) Of this compromise of 12s. 6d. in the £1, the sum of 10s. in the £1 to be secured as hereinafter set forth and the balance of 2s. 6d. in the £1 is to be unsecured.

(4) In view of the fact that certain creditors have already agreed in writing to waive their right to security in respect of the aforesaid compromise, the security hereinafter offered by the debtor shall not apply to those creditors.

(5) The security offered by the debtor of 10s. in the £1 to those creditors who have not signed the waivers aforementioned shall be—

(a) a notarial general bond hypothecating all the movable assets for the amount of security required under the afore said compromise, less the amount due to those creditors who have waived their right to security;

(b) All the immovable property owned by the debtor shall remain vested in the trustees, which the trustees shall realise in consultation with a committee of the larger creditors. I am to be advised of the highest offers and to be given a period of 14 days within which to submit an increased offer. The proceeds of all immovable property to be applied to the fourth payment of 2s. 6d. in the £1 in terms of paragraph 6 (iv) hereof.

(c) Of the claims of the Davis family, approximately £32,000 amounts totalling £28,500 are to be deferred and no dividends shall be paid thereon until such time as other creditors have received payment of the aforesaid compromised amount of 12s. 6d. in the £1 on their claims.

(d) The debtor's associated companies shall bind themselves as sureties and co-principal debtors for the amount due under this compromise, on the understanding that their own creditors shall first be paid 20s. in the £1.

(e) Until such time as the bond remains in existence, all cheques by the debtor in respect of his business, as well as all purchases made by him for the continuance of his business, shall be counter-signed by the trustees, who shall further be entitled to leave their representative at the business for as long as the trustees, acting in conjunction with the committee of the larger creditors, shall consider it necessary.

(6) The amount of the compromise aforementioned is to be discharged in the manner following:—

(i) An amount representing 2s. 6d. in the £1 within three months after formal acceptance of this offer.
(ii) A further amount representing 2s. 6d. in the £1 in the three months thereafter.
(iii) A further amount representing 2s. 6d. in the £1 three months after the preceding payment.
(iv) A further amount representing 2s. 6d. in the £1 three months after the preceding payment.
(v) A final payment representing 2s. 6d. in the £1 within a period of six months of the preceding payment.

(7) I undertake that, quite apart from any payments in terms of paragraph 6 hereof, any commitments entered into by the provisional trustees and trustees in respect of bills accepted, money loaned or otherwise, shall be paid by me before any payments are made to the creditors in terms hereof.

I shall be pleased if you will kindly circularise creditors in terms of Section 119 (2) of the Insolvency Act at your earliest convenience, and also convene a meeting in terms of Section 119 (5) of the said Act.

Yours faithfully,
(signed) SIMON DAVIS.
