- Immovable property as will hereinafter be enumerated;
- Shareholdings in companies which own immovable property; and
- Negotiable instruments such as promissory notes, to the knowledge of the trustees.

I suggest in order to secure my offer to creditors and to safeguard their interest, that a company be registered in which the directors thereof to be appointed will consist of:—

- Two directors to represent the creditors and one director to represent myself, and to be able to act on my behalf and to deal with matters with the other directors, subject however to the condition that the trustee at all material times whilst my obligations in terms of the Offer of Composition submitted by me remains undischarged, shall have an undisputable overriding power over all directors in respect of, and in regard to the realisation of the assets in my estate. That all relative matters concerning the disposal on realisation of my assets through the instrumentality of the company, should at all times be referred to the trustees for their approval.
- That such assets in my estate as it will be possible to be transferred to the company to be registered. It is suggested by me that such immovable properties which are in my own personal name, should not be transferred to the company, by reason of its costliness. These assets should be under the direct control of the trustees and should only be disposed of in confirmation and in collaboration with the trustees subject to their approval.
- The objects of the company should be, in addition to finance the development of the land owned by—
 - Sebel Property, Limited, in which I have a 75 per cent shareholding interest; and
 - By Johannesburg Suburban Properties (Pty.), Ltd., in which company I have the total shareholding, for the purpose of having the land proclaimed as townships, and for the sale of the stands after their proclamation as such. In this connection the company known as Johannesburg Suburban Properties (Pty.), Ltd., is already proclaimed and is known as Windsor Park.

It is a condition of this offer that the assets in my estate shall be realised as soon as it is possible and expedient, and I require in all a period from three to four years within which to realise such assets, save and except that such assets as will be possible to be sold sooner, shall be done. The proceeds thereof are to be placed to the credit of the company, and interim dividends can be paid to creditors from time to time so soon thereafter as the full amount of my liabilities in terms hereof have been fully discharged, I shall be entitled to claim the balance of the assets of the estate, and shall be naturally permitted to deal with these assets as my own and exclusive property without let or hindrance.

I shall have the right to dispense with the company if I should so desire, and the trustees shall be discharged from office.

I would like to point out that the offer which I have made, would result in my creditors receiving 100 cents in the Rand and would be greatly to their advantage and solely for their benefit. Should the offer be declined, it will inevitably result in the creditors suffering a severe and substantial loss. The trustees would be obliged to sell the assets, and they would never be in a position to sell my assets in the same manner as I could, by developing the land and obtaining the best possible price in the sale of stands. In the course of time I would realise the fullest amount for my assets. This would enable me without difficulty to pay the amount I have offered, whereas if the trustees have to sell on a forced sale, there is not the slightest doubt that the price that they would realise would be infinitely less and would be to the great disadvantage of my creditors.

One of my assets is a third share in a company known as Blomoco Investments (Pty.), Ltd. These shares are not transferable, and could only be transferred with the consent of the remaining shareholders. If sold in the open market the only person who could buy these shares would be the remaining shareholders, and they would buy my share at their price, whereas if I realised this asset and developed jointly with the other shareholders, I will realise a sum practically sufficient to pay a substantial portion of my liabilities.

I would esteem it a favour if you were to place all the facts on the whole position before creditors, and for that purpose to convene a meeting in terms of the provisions of the Insolvency Act for that purpose. I have many creditors who have already indicated to me that they are prepared to accept my offer, and I have no doubt that if the true position be placed before creditors, that this position be acceptable to them.

I am prepared to amend this offer in accordance with the wishes of the trustees in such manner as will be satisfactory to all parties.

If in the alternative a committee of creditors is desired to be appointed in place of the registration of a company, that all its difficulties and implications, and the committee decides the manner in which it desires the offer to be made, I am fully prepared to accept this method of dealing with the present offer of Composition.

I shall be pleased if you will kindly give this matter your very earnest consideration.

Yours faithfully,
(Signed) J. D. BLOU.
