INTERIM REPORT OF CHAIRMAN.

I have to inform you that although Christmas trade was brisk, sales in the opening months of the financial year were at a lower level. As a result of the upswing during December, sales till the end of February were lower by 12 per cent only than for the first 8 months of the previous year. Overhead expenses have been held in check.

I think the full effect of Government monetary restrictions to curb inflation has not yet passed although import restrictions have been eased. Magnificent new stocks of jewellery and other lines are arriving and I hope sales will be stimulated. The firming of the diamond market overseas is leading to a renewed demand for fine gemstones.

The interim dividend is maintained at 5% (five per cent) and although the profits for the year will be affected by the reduced turnover I anticipate that the final dividend will be the same as for the previous year.—Arnold Katz, Chairman.
