TRANSSVAAL CONSOLIDATED LAND AND EXPLORATION COMPANY LIMITED
(Incorporated in the Republic of South Africa)

NOTICE BY TRANSSVAAL CONSOLIDATED LAND AND EXPLORATION COMPANY LIMITED ("TCL") TO THE DISSENTIENT SHAREHOLDERS (INCLUDING HOLDERS OF SHARE WARRANTS TO BEARER) OF TRANSSVAAL AND DELAGOIA BAY INVESTMENT COMPANY LIMITED ("T & DB"), IN TERMS OF SECTION 103 ter OF THE REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA COMPANIES ACT, 1926, AS AMENDED

In terms of an offer dated 29 November 1968, TCL made an offer to the shareholders (including holders of share warrants to bearer) of T & DB to exchange all or some of their shares in T & DB for shares in TCL in the ratio of two TCL shares for every 15 shares held in T & DB. In terms of the offer shareholders of T & DB who, after acceptance of the TCL offer, found themselves holding odd lots of T & DB shares of one to 14 shares, and shareholders with a total holding of less than 15 T & DB shares, were entitled to offer those shares to Rand Mines Limited, as agents in South Africa for the consortium which had made a simultaneous alternative cash offer to shareholders of T & DB or to Charter Consolidated Limited as agents for the said consortium in the United Kingdom at a price of 520 cents per share, if paid in Johannesburg, or 60s. 8d., if paid in London, provided that, if at the date the completed lodgment form accepting the offer, complete with the relevant T & DB share certificate(s) was delivered to TCL's London Secretaries, the rate of exchange £ Sterling/S.A. Rand had, in the opinion of the consortium materially varied from the exchange rate of R1=11s. 8d. sterling, then payment would be made at the rate of exchange supplied by the British Treasury at the opening of business on the dates on which such acceptances were received by the London Secretaries. Any odd lots of less than 15 T & DB shares and any total holdings of less than 15 T & DB shares acquired by the consortium as aforesaid were subject to consolidation into lots of 15 shares and to exchange on the basis of 15 T & DB shares for two TCL shares.

The aforesaid offer opened on 17 December 1968, and, in terms of an extension of the offer, closed at 4 p.m. on Wednesday, 29 January 1969.

As at 29 January 1969, TCL became the registered holder of the following shares in T & DB in terms of acceptances of the offer made by TCL to the shareholders of T & DB and as a result of shares held by TCL in T & DB prior to the aforesaid offer:—

Name	Issued capital	Number of shares held by TCL prior to the offer	Number of shares acquired by TCL in terms of acceptances of the offer	Percentage of issued capital held by TCL
T & DB.....	1,114,750 ordinary shares of R2 each....	5,000	1,017,783	91.75

As at 29 January 1969, TCL had accordingly acquired more than nine-tenths of the issued share capital of T & DB. As at 31 March 1969, TCL has acquired 54,283 additional shares (4.87 per cent) in the capital of T & DB from shareholders who have exercised their rights in terms of section 103 ter (1) bis of the Companies Act, 1926, as amended.

Notice is hereby given that TCL has resolved to invoke the provisions of section 103 ter (1) of the Companies Act, 1926, as amended, for the purpose of effecting a compulsory acquisition of all the shares (including share warrants to bearer) in T & DB, which have not been acquired by TCL within one month from the date of this notice. Unless on application by any shareholder of T & DB (including any holder of a share warrant to bearer in T & DB) to the Supreme Court of South Africa within one month from the date of this notice, the Court deems fit to order otherwise, TCL will be entitled and bound to acquire such shares (including share warrants to bearer) in T & DB on the above-mentioned terms.

The holders of the shares (including share warrants to bearer) which are liable to be compulsorily acquired by TCL will receive on compulsory acquisition—

(a) shares in TCL in the ratio of two TCL shares for every 15 shares in T & DB. A certificate in respect of the shares in TCL to which shareholders (including holders of share warrants to bearer) of T & DB will become entitled as a result of the aforesaid compulsory acquisition, will be delivered by TCL to T & DB on or about 10 June 1969, in trust in terms of section 103 ter (3) of the Companies Act, 1926, as amended, for the benefit of the persons entitled thereto;

(b) for any odd lot of less than 15 T & DB shares or for any total holding of less than 15 T & DB shares, 520 cents per T & DB share, if paid in Johannesburg or 60s. 8d. if paid in London provided that if on 10 June 1969, the rate of exchange £ Sterling/S.A. Rand, has, in the opinion of the consortium, materially varied from the exchange rate of R1=11s. 8d., payments to be made in London will be at the rate of exchange supplied by the British Treasury on 10 June 1969. Any cash payment to which shareholders (including holders of share warrants to bearer) will become entitled as a result of the aforesaid compulsory acquisition will be paid to T & DB on or about 10 June 1969 in trust, in terms of section 103 ter (3) of the Companies Act, 1926, as amended, for the benefit of the persons entitled thereto. The aforesaid payments in respect of shares on the South African section of the share register of T & DB will be made to T & DB, in Johannesburg, by Rand Mines Limited, as agents in South Africa for the consortium. Likewise the aforesaid payments in respect of shares registered on the United Kingdom section of the share register of T & DB and in respect of outstanding share warrants to bearer issued by T & DB will be made in London by Charter Consolidated Limited as agents in the United Kingdom for the consortium.

Upon surrender to T & DB by the registered holder of certificates for shares and/or, where applicable, by the holders of share warrants to bearer in T & DB of such share certificate(s) and/or share warrant(s) to bearer in T & DB that company will transmit to you a registered certificate(s) for the shares in TCL and/or, subject to the requirements of the South African Exchange Control Authorities, any cash payment to which you will have become entitled.

Notices have been sent by registered post to all outstanding shareholders of T & DB registered as such at the close of business on 9 May 1969, specifying the number of shares registered in such shareholders' names, and advising them of TCL's decision to invoke the provisions of section 103 ter (1) of the South African Companies Act, 1926, as amended, for the purpose of compulsorily acquiring their shares and drawing their attention to the ruling of the South African Exchange Control Authorities that payments made in South Africa to or for the benefit of non-residents of the Republic of South Africa can only be made to them in blocked rand.

CHAIRMAN'S INTERIM REPORT

The estimated results for the half year ended 31 December 1968, are set out below together with the figures for the corresponding period of 1967, and for the financial year ended 30 June 1968.

	July to Dec. 1968	July to Dec. 1967	July 1967 to June 1968
	R	R	R
Net profit before tax.....	1,050,000	720,000	1,295,000
Less: Provision for taxation.....	362,000	289,000	543,000
Net profit after taxation.....	R688,000	R431,000	R752,000

In preparation for the change in the financial year of the Company, of which I gave notice in my last statement, no stock was taken at 31 December 1968. However, the present estimated figures include adequate provisions for adjustments which might become necessary following the outcome of the stocktaking at 28 February 1969.

These results which are subject to audit, are encouraging and reflect a general improvement in trading, aided by the more positive direction and tighter controls increasingly applied to your Company's activities. Shareholders are reminded that the second half of the financial year is never as profitable as the first; nevertheless, these comparative profits can be considered satisfactory, and if the present trend is maintained, a profit improvement for the whole year, compared with last, will result.

The effect of the new budget provisions announced by the Minister of Finance last month on your Company's progress cannot be reliably forecast at this stage. Clearly, earnings will be marginally reduced by the inclusion of the loan levy in the new rate of corporate tax, but is too early to assess the impact of sales tax on our various divisional trading activities.

In my statement to shareholders last year I set out your directors policy on dividends and reviewed the reasons persuading them to reduce the rate of total annual dividends on the issued Ordinary shares from 25 per cent to 20 per cent. I said: "The profits made by your Company in the last three or four years have not been sufficient to provide for the payment of dividends at the rate of 25 per cent a year, and at the same time generate sufficient funds for the development of your Company. In the result your Company has been compelled to resort to heavy short-term borrowings from which to provide essential moneys for capital and development expenditure". After presenting further facts and figures I concluded my review with these words, "Until profits provide adequate funds for our business it will be necessary in the long-term interests of the Company to resist the temptation to pay shareholders dividends at a rate the Company cannot afford."

Applying these considerations and the policy enunciated, your directors consider that the interests of the Company and of the shareholders will be served best by maintaining a rate of 10 per cent for the interim dividend.

25 April 1969.

A. H. MACINTOSH, Chairman.
