AMENDMENT ACT, 1976.

12. Section 22 of the principal Act is hereby amended—

- (a) by the substitution for subsection (1) of the following subsection:

“(1) The Minister may for the purpose of the sale or export of any wine or brandy with an indication of the estate upon or the area of production in which it was produced or manufactured, by notice in the Gazette and after a relevant application has been granted in terms of subsection (4), define any estate or area of production and assign a name to any such area of production.”;

- (b) by the substitution for subsection (2) of the following subsection:

“(2) (a) Any such notice may relate to wine or brandy in general or to any specified class, type or grade of wine or brandy only, and any area of production so defined for any purpose may include any area of production so defined for any other purpose, or any portion of such last-mentioned area of production or consist of such a portion.

(b) An area of production may in terms of subsection (1) be defined in such manner as the Minister may think fit, and may be so defined by reference to any area under vines.”;

- (c) by the substitution for paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of the following paragraph:

“(a) Any person desiring an estate or area of production to be defined in terms of subsection (1), shall apply therefor to the Wine and Spirit Board referred to in section 19, furnishing such particulars in connection with his application as may be required by the said Board.”;

- (d) by the substitution for paragraph (aB) of subsection (3) of the following paragraph:

“(aB) Such notice shall contain such details of the said application as may be so stipulated, and call upon all persons who object to the estate or area of production concerned being defined, or to the name of such estate or the proposed name for such area of production, to lodge their objections in writing with the said Board within such period as may be so stipulated.”;

- (e) by the substitution for paragraph (b) of subsection (3) of the following paragraph:

“(b) The said Board shall as soon as possible after such period has expired submit the said application and particulars received by it in terms of paragraph (a), as well as any objection received by it in terms of paragraph (aB), to the Minister together with its recommendation thereon, including any recommendation that consideration of the application be postponed for a specified period.”;

- (f) by the substitution for subsection (4) of the following subsection:

“(4) The Minister may grant or refuse an application submitted to him in terms of subsection (3) (b) or refer it back to the said Board for further investigation or, in accordance with a recommendation of the said Board to that effect, postpone consideration thereof, and may thereafter grant or refuse the application, and shall not reconsider any application granted or refused.”;
