THE STERNS DIAMOND ORGANISATION LIMITEDINTERIM REPORT 1984*RESULTS

As expected, the general economic situation involving extraordinarily high interest rates, high ad valorem excise duty, as well as severe constraints imposed on hire purchase agreements, has impacted on the group's performance. Although turnover has improved through aggressive marketing, the increased level of borrowing combined with the increase in interest rates to 25 % has detrimentally affected the results.

As the LIFO tax benefit has been withdrawn and to assist comparability with other listed companies, the results for both this year and the previous year have been reflected on a FIFO basis.

JOINT FINANCE COMPANY

The Board of Directors have reassessed the advantages of forming the joint finance company to finance installment debtors, and have determined them to be minimal. Consequently, the formation of this company has been shelved.

INSURANCE CLAIM

The insurance company was finally summonsed in this regard in November 1984. Accordingly, the matter is now in the hands of our attorneys.

DIVIDEND

Owing to the present financial condition of the company, the directors regret that no interim dividend will be paid. The attitude of the Board to the final dividend declaration will be determined by the circumstances of the company and the state of the economy at that time.

PROSPECTS

Trading conditions will become increasingly competitive, especially during the Christmas season. This critical trading period enjoyed relatively high sales during last year's mini-boom, but in the present deteriorating economic climate the prospects are not as bright. Although turnover to September 1984 was 16.6 % up on the same period last year, by the end of November turnover was up by only 7.5 %.

Through careful management of working capital and continual tightening of expenses, the group will strive towards reducing the present level of borrowings and thereby reduce the interest burden.
