opoly situation exists or may come into existence and is satisfied that such acquisition or monopoly situation is not justified in the public interest, and has not confirmed any arrangement which may have been made in terms of section 11 (1) or 13 (1) (a) in respect of such restrictive practice, [or] acquisition or monopoly situation—

10

(a) the Minister of Finance may, at the request of the Minister, in terms of the Customs and Excise Act, 1964 (Act No. 91 of 1964), by notice in the Gazette suspend, as from the date of the publication of such notice, any duty to be paid upon imported goods of like nature to any goods affected by the operation of that restrictive practice, [or] acquisition or monopoly situation, to the extent and for such period as he may deem fit;

20

(b) the Price Controller may at the request of the Minister fix, under the Price Control Act, 1964 (Act No. 25 of 1964), the maximum price at which any commodity, other than any insurance or banking service, affected by the operation of the said restrictive practice, [or] acquisition or monopoly situation, may be sold by any person to any other person or at which any person may purchase such commodity from any other person;

25

(c) The Minister may by notice in the Gazette—
 (i) declare the said restrictive practice, [or] acquisition or monopoly situation to be unlawful, and require any person who in the opinion of the Minister is concerned in the said restrictive practice or monopoly situation or who in his opinion is or was a party to the said acquisition, to take such action, including steps for the dissolution of any body corporate or unincorporate, or the severance of any connection or of any form of association between two or more persons, including any such bodies, as the Minister may consider necessary to ensure the discontinuance or prevention of that restrictive practice or monopoly situation or the abolition or prevention of that acquisition or to eliminate any undesirable features thereof;

MAINTENANCE AND PROMOTION OF COMPETITION
AMENDMENT ACT, 1986

Act No. 5, 1986

- (b) by the substitution for subsection (5) of the following subsection:

“(5) (a) Whenever after consideration of a report by the board in terms of section 12 (1) as to the result of any investigation undertaken by it in terms of section 10 (1) (c), the Minister is of opinion that it is in the public interest, he may by notice in the Gazette declare any particular type of agreement, arrangement, understanding, business practice or method of trading which was the subject of the investigation to be unlawful, either generally or in respect of any particular area, according as to whether the investigation was of a general nature or was undertaken in relation to a particular area, and prohibit any person from entering into or being or continuing to be a party to any such agreement, arrangement or understanding or from applying any such business practice or method of trading either wholly or to such extent or subject to [such exceptions as may be specified in the notice] any exemption contemplated in paragraph (b), provided the Minister has not less than one month before the date of publication of the notice published the text of the proposed notice in the Gazette, together with a statement of his intention to publish such a notice in the Gazette.

(b) The Minister may, on the recommendation of the board, in a particular case in writing grant exemption from any prohibition contemplated in paragraph (a) to such extent and subject to such conditions as may be specified in the exemption.”; and

- (c) by the substitution for subsection (6) of the following subsection:

“(6) A notice under subsection (5) may at any time after further investigation by the board be withdrawn by the Minister or amended in such a manner as he may deem fit, provided, in the case of such amendment, he has not less than one month before the date of publication of the amending notice published the text of the proposed amending notice in the Gazette, together with a statement of his intention to publish such [a] amending notice in the Gazette.”.

7. (1) This Act is called the Maintenance and Promotion of Competition Amendment Act, 1986. Short title and commencement.

(2) Section 6 (b) is deemed to have come into operation on 1 June 1985.
