COMMENT

1. After tax earnings has increased by 25 per cent over that achieved during the previous interim reporting period.

2. The interim dividend has been increased to 1,25 cents, representing a 25 per cent increase on the previous interim dividend.

3. During the period under review, the group implemented certain organisational changes, including the adoption of new staff training programmes and a general updating of sales and production methods. Accordingly, and after taking into account the sharp increase in interest rates, expenses increased considerably. However, these will be offset within the current half of the financial year, which usually makes a more significant contribution towards net earnings.

4. Turnover has exceeded budget with the introduction of high-quality ladies garments in particular making a significant contribution to the garment division. The group is presently entering into a new area in franchising its lines to departmental stores. The group's other franchising activities have performed satisfactorily and a new agreement has been entered into with a leading sportswear and outerwear manufacturer.

KOMMENTAAR

1. Die nabelaste verdienste is met 25 persent verhoog bo dié wat gedurende die vorige tussentydse verslagtydperk behaal is.

2. Die tussentydse dividend het tot 1,25 sent gestyg, wat 'n toename van 25 persent bo die vorige tussentydse dividend verteenwoordig.

3. Die groep het sekere organisatoriese veranderinge gedurende die verslagtydperk implementeer, insluitende die aanvaarding van nuwe personeelopleidingsprogramme en 'n algemene opgradering van verkoop- en produksiemetodes. Gevolglik het die uitgawes, nadat die skerp styging in rentekoerse in berekening gebring is, aansienlik toegeneem. Dit sal egter binne die huidige helfte van die boekjaar, wat gewoonlik 'n meer betekenisvolle bydrae tot die netto verdienste lewer, neutraliseer word.

4. Danksy die bekendstelling van kwaliteitsdameskledingstukke, wat 'n betekenisvolle bydrae tot die kledingstukafdeling gelewer het, het die omset die voorspelde bedrag oorskry. Die groep is tans besig om tot die bevoorrading van sy produktereeks in afdelingswinkels toe te tree. Die groep se ander bevoorradingsbedrywighede het bevredigende resultate gelewer en 'n nuwe ooreenkoms is met 'n toonaangewende vervaardiger van sport- en boklere gesluit.

Final—28 February 1989	30,00
Dividends per share (cents)	5,80	5,53
Interim—31 August 1988	2,80
Final—28 February 1989	3,00
Average weighted number of first series debentures in issue during the year (000)	24 326	24 000
Number of shares in issue (000)	100	100

NOTES

1. The extraordinary items comprise surpluses on the sale of three subsidiaries of R268 000 less losses on disposal of certain listed investments of R30 000. The net surplus, together with R113 000 set aside for amortisation of leasehold property, has been transferred to non-distributable reserves.

2. No historically comparative figures have been reflected as this is HIGATE's first full year of operations. The prospectus forecast for the corresponding period is recorded for information purposes.

COMMENT

1. Earnings for the first full year under review have exceeded the prospectus forecast for 1988/89 by 5 %. Net property income was slightly ahead of forecast and the higher than expected interest on cash resources enhanced these earnings further.

2. During the year under review HIGATE invested R13,3 million in new acquisitions and developments of existing properties leaving R8 million available for future investment. This sum takes into account the proceeds of the sale of three properties during the year for R3 million which yielded capital surpluses of R0,3 million. A further small property has been sold in March 1989, for R0,7 million.

3. Of the R8 million available for investment, R5,7 million has been committed for further acquisitions and developments in the coming year.

4. HIGATE's developed property portfolio continued to be effectively fully let throughout the year under review which will continue for the year ahead.

5. HIGATE has no borrowings other than the debentures.

6. In order to improve the spread of dates upon which leases fall due for review or renewal, negotiations have been concluded with major tenants to reschedule leases. Previously 71 % of the leases fell due for review in 1992. These leases have been rescheduled to fall due for review more evenly over three years beginning in 1991.

PROSPECTS

It is expected that the current letting market will continue to be bouyant in the coming year. Rental levels have continued to rise since January 1988 which bodes well for future reviews within the HIGATE portfolio. It is expected that the remaining funds available for investment will be suitably invested in properties during the year ahead.

The increase in the interest rate payable to debentureholders in 1989/90 is expected to approximate the escalation rates in HIGATE's leases.

INTEREST DECLARATION

Notice is hereby given of the declaration of interest payment No. 3 of 30,0 cents per first series unsecured variable rate subordinated debenture, in respect of the period 1 September 1988 to 28 February 1989. The interest is payable to first series debentureholders, registered as such in the books of HIGATE, at the close of business on 14 April 1989. Interest cheques will be posted on 28 April 1989. The debenture transfer register will be closed from 17 April to 21 April 1989, both days inclusive. The financial statements of the Group will be posted to debentureholders on or about 28 April 1989.
