Manuel, Minister van Handel en Nywerheid, trek hierby kragtens artikel 22 (1) (a) (i) van die Wet op Standaarde, 1993 (Wet No. 29 van 1993), en op aanbeveling van die Raad van die Suid-Afrikaanse Buro vir Standaarde, met ingang van die datum twee maande na die publikasie van hierdie kennisgewing, die verpligte spesifikasie vir buigsame koorde vir krag-en verligtingstoestelle gepubliseer by Goewermentskennisgewing No. 790 van 22 April 1983 in en vervang dit deur die verpligte spesifikasie vir buigsame koorde vir elektriese toestelle soos in die Bylae uiteengesit.

T. A. MANUEL,

Minister van Handel en Nywerheid.

BYLAE

VERPLIGTE SPESIFIKASIE VIR DIE VEILIGHEID VAN BUIGSAME KOORDE VIR ELEKTRIESE TOESTELLE

1. Bestek

1.1 Hierdie spesifikasie dek buigsame koorde wat bedoel is vir die aansluiting van elektriese krag na toestelle wat met 'n elektriese toevoer teen spannings van hoogstens 300 V na aarde werk en bedoel is vir huishoudelike en soortgelyke gebruik of vir gebruik deur leke in die handel en nywerheid en op plase.

1.2 This specification does not cover telephone cords or other flexible cords used exclusively to connect power or signals at voltages below 50 V.

2. Definition

For the purposes of this specification, the following definition applies:

flexible cord: An electric cable of which the conductors, insulation and covering are such that they afford flexibility, and in which each conductor has a rated area not exceeding 4 mm².

3. General requirements

Flexible cords shall be so designed and constructed that protection against electrical shock and other hazards is assured, provided that the cords are used in applications for which they were intended.

The cords shall be such that they—

- (a) can be safely connected,
- (b) will meet the expected mechanical requirements,
- (c) give adequate protection against inadvertent electrical contact,
- (d) will not produce harmful temperatures, vapours or radiation under normal or foreseeable abnormal conditions of use, and
- (e) are resistant to influences of expected environmental conditions, so as not to endanger persons, domestic animals and property.

NOTE: Compliance with the specific requirements given in clause 4 will ensure compliance with these general requirements.

4. Specific requirements

Flexible cords shall comply with the following requirements of SABS 1574, Electric cables—Flexible cords, as published by Government Notice No. 216 (Government Gazette No. 14579), dated 19 February 1993:

- Conductor material—4.2.1.
- Insulation material—4.2.2.1.
- Core identification—4.2.3.
- Material of protective covering—4.2.5.1.
- Overall diameter—4.2.5.3.
- Heat resistance—4.3.
- Voltage withstand (5 min test)—4.4.2.
- Flexing test—4.5.1.
- Marking—6.2.

1.2 Hierdie spesifikasie dek nie telefoonkoorde of ander buigsame koorde wat uitsluitlik gebruik word vir die aansluiting van krag of seine teen spannings laer as 50 V nie.

2. Woordbepaling

Die volgende woordbepaling geld vir die doel van hierdie spesifikasie:

buigsame koord: 'n Elektriese kabel waarvan die geleiers, isolasie en bekleding van so 'n aard is dat buigsamheid aan die kabel verleen word en elke geleier 'n aangeslane oppervlakte van hoogstens 4 mm² het.

3. Algemene vereistes

Buigsame koorde moet so ontwerp en gemaak wees dat beskerming teen elektriese skok en ander gevare verseker word, mits die koorde vir doeleindes gebruik word waarvoor hulle bestem is.

Die koorde moet so wees dat hulle—

- (a) met veiligheid verbind kan word,
- (b) aan die verwagte meganiese vereistes sal voldoen,
- (c) toereikende beskerming teen toevallige elektriese kontak verleen,
- (d) nie skadelike temperature, dampe of uitstraling tydens normale of voorsienbare abnormale gebruikstoestande sal voortbring nie, en
- (e) bestand is teen invloede van verwagte omgewingstoestande sodat persone, huisdiere en eiendom nie in gevaar gestel word nie.

OPMERKING: Voldoening aan die spesifieke vereistes in klousule 4 sal voldoening aan hierdie algemene vereistes verseker.

4. Spesifieke vereistes

Buigsame koorde moet voldoen aan die volgende vereistes van SABS 1574, Elektriese kables—Buigsame koorde, soos gepubliseer by Goewermentskennisgewing No. 216 (Staatskoerant No. 14579), van 19 Februarie 1993:

- Geleimateriaal—4.2.1.
- Isolasiemateriaal—4.2.2.1.

ANNEXURE • BYLAEBUSINESS PRACTICES COMMITTEE*REPORT IN TERMS OF SECTION 10 (1) OF THE HARMFUL BUSINESS PRACTICES ACT, 1988*(ACT No. 71 OF 1988)*Report No. 43*SUN TELEMARKETING PROMOTIONS CC*1. INTRODUCTION

The Business Practices Committee (the Committee) operates in terms of section 2 of the Harmful Business Practices Act (Act No. 71 of 1988) (the Act). The purpose of the Act is to provide for the prohibition or control of harmful business practices. The latter is defined as any business practice which, directly or indirectly, has or is likely to have the effect of harming the relations between businesses and consumers, unreasonably prejudicing any consumer or deceiving any consumer. The raison d'être of the Committee, and the Act for that matter, is thus the interest of the consumer and specifically the consumer who is or is likely to be unreasonably prejudiced or deceived.

2. THE COMPLAINT

The business practices of Sun Telemarketing Promotions CC (Sun) came to the attention of the Committee during September 1994. The Committee was informed that certain information given to a prospective buyer about "mini vacations" was false. The telephone marketers (called telemarketers) made statements about Sun to consumers (telephone subscribers) that were untrue. It was alleged that Sun sold fictitious products and debited the credit cards of consumers without their permission.

3. SUN TELEMARKETING PROMOTIONS CC3.1 The member

Gideon Frederick Pitout (Pitout) (ID 5910185070005) is the only member of Sun. He employed several telemarketers on a part-time basis. Filipe Pombo (Pombo) (ID 6409225040085) was the sales manager and he supervised all telemarketers.

3.2 The modus operandi of Sun Telemarketing Promotions CC

Pitout was a former franchisee of Meal for Two. Meal for Two sells a promotional package which entitles the buyer to enjoy two meals for the price of one at selected restaurants. The franchise agreement between Pitout and Meal for Two was terminated on the grounds of alleged misrepresentations by Pitout to the public.

Pitout started Sun and traded under a variety of names including G F P Marketing, International Travel Club and H S Marketing. Sun through its network of telemarketers promoted several different products such as mini vacations, also marketed as "free" accommodation by the telemarketers, time-share, restaurants and hotels. The trading name of the business was changed so often that clients were never sure with which business they were dealing.

Clients of Meal for Two were telephoned by the telemarketers of Sun and thanked for their support for Meal for Two in the past. The clients were told that Meal for Two would like to show its appreciation for their support and had arranged exclusive accommodation for the whole family of the clients. The names of these clients had been obtained from lists used by Pitout and his telemarketers when they operated the Meal for Two franchise.

A product called Flexi-Club Mini Vacation was also offered to clients. Sun telemarketers operated from an office in Johannesburg from where they sold the mini vacations to buyers. The buyer could pay by cash or by credit card. If the client used his credit card, the number would be noted and the transaction completed.

The investigating officers of the Committee who visited the premises of Sun heard telemarketers misrepresenting Sun to clients as Meal for Two. The telemarketer was not aware of the presence of the investigating officers. Information given to potential clients about the "mini holiday" scheme was exaggerated and misrepresented.

3.3 Formal investigation by the Committee

The Committee gave notice of its intention to undertake an investigation in terms of section 8 (1) (a) of the Act in a notice published in Government Gazette No. 16197 of 6 January 1995. In response to this notice various complaints were received confirming that the sales promotion used by Sun's telemarketers corresponded with the instructions set out in the sales script (Annexure A).

Files containing completed application forms for the Meal for Two card were found in the office of Sun. Most of the forms contained credit card numbers of clients. It was alleged that the numbers were kept by the business for future reference. This enabled Sun, in some cases where clients refused to accept the product, to debit their credit card accounts without permission, which they did. The bank repossessed the card imprinter and the speedpoint used by Sun after receiving complaints from clients that their credit card accounts were being debited without their permission. Although the imprinter and speedpoint were withdrawn Pitout continued to carry on business by means of cheque and cash transactions.

The following are excerpts from complaints received by the Committee:

"They contacted me by telephone, informing me that the package they were offering was an update to the package from Meal for Two offering me more hotels and restaurants and other specials".

"My credit card was debited and I did not receive the goods for which I had paid".

"I was checking my credit card and found that there was a transaction that went through under the name of Sun Telemarketing Promotions for the amount of R350,00. Knowing that I had not had any communication with this company, I immediately contacted my bank to try and cancel this transaction. As a result of Mr Pitout, I have lost a lot of money".

Confusion set in when clients started to query debits to their credit cards, and realized that no reservations had been made at the resorts or hotels they had selected.

Information at the Committee's disposal indicates that clients were led to believe that the accommodation could be booked at any time of the year at any five star resort on their list. (Annexure B). Sun claimed that the accommodation they sold was a product of Flexi-Club, called a "mini vacation". Flexi-Club denied that Sun had permission to sell their products or to use their name and logo on brochures and vouchers presented to clients.

Flexi-Club acquires holiday accommodation in different resorts. Members of the club buy points and may utilise available accommodation based on the value of the points bought. Flexi-Club, in order to encourage clients to occupy the resorts during low season, make packages available whereby holiday makers are required to pay only the levy and administration fees in respect of the specific resort visited.

According to Flexi-Club, the arrangement with Sun entailed the selling of temporary membership to members of the public. The only advantage for Flexi-Club was that the client would pay the levy as mentioned above. An oral agreement existed between Sun and Flexi-Club for the selling of the said membership. Pitout, however, allegedly ignored some of the conditions contained in the agreement. During a meeting with the Committee on 20 December 1994 Pitout indicated that he had a written agreement with Flexi-Club. To date no such agreement has been submitted to the Committee, in spite of repeated requests to Pitout.

Clients were not informed that a levy had to be paid for the "mini vacation". The mini vacation was marketed as "free" accommodation, but the cost of such accommodation could exceed R350 excluding the levy. Pitout failed to adhere to the agreement and used the Flexi-Club logo on his vouchers and brochures. This led the clients to believe that the certificates issued to them and the "mini vacations" were supported by Flexi-Club (Annexure C). Complaints received also reflected this misrepresentation.

4. EVALUATION OF THE BUSINESS PRACTICE

The facts set out above indicate that the elements of a harmful business practice as defined in section 1 of the Act are contained in the activities of the parties involved in the investigation.

A consumer code for mail-order marketing was introduced by the Business Practices Committee and the Direct Marketing Association of South Africa (SADMA). The Code is intended to protect the interests of both consumers and the industry and promote an equitable balance between these interests. The following provisions for telemarketing are set out in the code:

Telemarketing firms must comply with all provisions of this Code in addition to the following:

- (a) In the case of all the telephone marketing contacts, the name of the sponsor and the primary purpose(s) of the contact should be promptly disclosed. No one should make offers or solicitations in the guise of research or a survey when the real intent is to sell products or services or to raise funds.

- (b) All offers should be clear, honest and complete so that the recipient of the call will know the exact nature of what is being offered and the commitment involved in the placing of an order.
- (c) Prior to commitments by consumers, all telemarketers should disclose the cost of the merchandise or service, all terms, conditions, payment plans and the amount or existence of any extra charges such as shipping and handling.
- (d) Any consumer who has offered to purchase an article should have the right to cancel such an order within 72 hours after placing such order, or before delivery of the article to the consumer has taken place, whichever is the later.

Clients were misled by the telemarketers of Sun into believing that they were dealing with Meal for Two. Consequently they bought the product, relying on the goodwill of Meal for Two. Pitout admitted to the Committee at a meeting held on 20 July 1994 that Sun had stopped trading as Meal for Two in July 1994. Clients were not informed about this until late in 1994.

The Committee has noted that Sun did not comply with the above-mentioned provisions of telemarketing in the Code. Although the Code is not a regulation the Committee will apply the provisions of the Code in order to determine whether the contravention constitutes a harmful business practice. Contravention of the Code coupled with the evidence received has led the Committee to the view that there can be no doubt that Sun's activities were harmful to the public.

Complaints received by the Committee further indicated that people actually went to resorts where they believed accommodation had been reserved. Upon arrival at the resorts, clients learnt that the resort managements had no agreement with Sun. In fact, they had never heard of Sun Telemarketing Promotions CC.

5. CONCLUSION

To enable the economy to function optimally, it is necessary for consumers to make informed choices based on reliable information. In this particular instance consumers did not get any value for their money. They were misled into believing that they could get a two-week accommodation package anywhere, at anytime. The brochure sent to clients listed twelve time-share resorts and four hotels. When the accommodation was offered to clients, telemarketers stated that five star resorts were available and that no additional costs would have to be incurred. This was not true. Not all the resorts were five star and the accommodation at any of the hotels in Annexure B was subject to an additional amount of R65 per person per day, including breakfast.

6. RECOMMENDATIONS

In view of the above, the Committee recommends that the Minister—

- (a) in terms of section 12 (1) (b) of the Act declares unlawful the business practice of Gideon Frederick Pitout (Pitout) and Filipe Pombo (Pombo) whereby they or their agents or employees misrepresent that—
 - (i) they are a particular company, firm or business when they are not registered, or trading as such;
 - (ii) they have a contractual relationship with Meal for Two, Flexi-Club, or with any other business, if they do not have a written agreement with Meal for Two, Flexi-Club or with such other business; or
 - (iii) consumers will receive free accommodation, if such accommodation includes an expense to be incurred by consumers; and
- (b) in terms of section 12 (1) (c) of the Act order Messrs Pitout, Pombo and their agents or employees to—
 - (i) refrain, at any time from conducting the harmful business practice;
 - (ii) cease to have any interest in, or at any time obtain any interest in any business or type of business which applies the harmful business practice or to derive any income from it;
 - (iii) observe the Business Practices Committee's Consumer Code for Direct Marketing in undertaking telemarketing activities; and
 - (vi) refrain from participating in, or soliciting or accepting telephonically authorised credit card transactions.

Chairman: Business Practices Committee.
