In most instances legislation prescribes the procedure for making matters known to public participation.

- The members of the Western Cape Cultural Commission are appointed every three years through a public process. Members of the public have the right to nominate candidates. This public entity is representative of the cultural community of the Western Cape and advises the Minister on policy.
- Policy suggestions can be made directly to the Minister or members of the Western Cape Cultural Commission.

- Notices are published in the media, such as the Provincial Gazette, provincial newspapers and local/community newspapers.
- Workshops are held with concerned and affected groups.
- All projects in execution of the powers and duties of the Language Committee are performed in collaboration and after extensive consultation with the affected communities or interested parties.
- To this end, the business plan for projects make specific provision for information to be furnished outlining the individual and/or organisations that will be consulted or incorporated in the project.
- In formulating a policy, such as the Western Cape Language Policy, every stage of the draft document is widely distributed to interested parties, such as local municipalities, language organisations and provincial government departments and institutions.
- Regular surveys are performed to ascertain the needs of specific sectors in the Western Cape, such as a language audit of the provincial government departments and institutions and local municipalities.

- Individuals and/or organisations are invited to send language-related complaints to the Language Committee for its attention and possible forwarding to the Pan South African Language Board.
- Forums and workshops are held with concerned and affected groups, such as librarians.
- Steering committee meetings are held.
