NOTICE 2070 OF 2003

NOTICE IN TERMS OF THE LAND REFORM (LABOUR TENANTS) ACT NO. 3 OF 1996 ('The Act'), SECTION 17 (2) (a) (b)

Farm name: and registration No:	Farm Haig of Lombards'Kop no. 1261 Farm Georgina of Lombards'Kop no. 1261
District:	LADYSMITH

Kindly take note that an application to the Department of Land Affairs has been received from (see attached list) in which he/she/they claim to be a labour tenant(s) on the farm (named above) and applies for the acquisition of a right in land.

This application has been submitted in terms of the Land Reform (Labour Tenants) Act 3 of 1996, sections 16(1) and 17(1).

Also take note that this Act requires you as the owner, within one calendar month of receipt of this notice, or within one calendar month from the date when you are deemed to have received it, to inform me in writing of the following:

1. whether you admit or deny that the applicant(s) is/are a labour tenant(s) within the meaning of the Act and;
2. if you deny that the applicant(s) is/are such a tenant(s), the grounds on which you so deny.

Failure on your part so to deny shall constitute rebuttable evidence that the applicant(s) is/are such a labour tenant(s).

Lastly your attention is drawn to the contents of the provisions of section 17 and 18 of the Act, which are attached to this notice.

Dated at Pietermaritzburg on this 14th Day of April 2003.

Assessment of practical experience in property valuation required for registration as professional valuer or professional associated valuer

4. (1) To assess, for the purposes of section 20(2)(a)(iii) of the Act, the practical experience of work in property valuation of an applicant applying in terms of section 20 of the Act in the category of professional valuer or professional associated valuer, the relative weights set out in Annexure C in respect of the various types of properties listed in item 3, for the different purposes of property valuations so listed, shall be applied to the number of property valuations provided and substantiated by the applicant in his or her application form submitted by him or her, and shall be processed electronically to determine a total weight, which, together with the various types of properties valued by the applicant for different purposes of property valuations shall form the basis for assessment.

(2) In the electronic determination referred to in subitem (1), the number, to a maximum of 100, provided and substantiated by an applicant in each cell reflected in Annexure C, shall be multiplied by the relative weight concerned and the aggregate of the resulting calculations shall be divided by 100 to determine the final outcome.

Application of assessment outcome for purposes of registration as professional valuer or professional associate valuer

5. As a general norm, the minimum outcome reached in the assessment prescribed in item 4, shall -

- (a) in the case of registration as a professional valuer, be a weight of 190 and 10 types of properties valued for five purposes of property valuation;
- (b) in the case of registration as a professional associated valuer without restrictions, be a weight of 130 and eight types of properties valued for five purposes of property valuation; and
- (c) in the case of registration as a professional associated valuer with restrictions, be a weight of 80 and one type of property valued for one purpose of property valuation.

Supervision and control in respect of candidate valuer

6. (1) For the purposes of this Annexure, the professional under the supervision and control of whom a candidate valuer must perform his or her work as provided for in section 19(3) of the Act, shall be a professional valuer or professional associated valuer without restrictions, recorded and confirmed as such by the council ("supervisor").

(2) The supervisor shall countersign all property valuation reports and other documentation relating to work in property valuation, prepared by the candidate valuer, as verification of the fact that the supervisor has exercised the supervision and control contemplated by the said section 19(3) in respect of that work.

(3) Only work in property valuation done under supervision and control in accordance with subitem (1), shall be taken into account by the council for the purposes of the determination referred to in item 4.

(2) The prescribed examination contemplated in section 20(2)(b)(i) of the Act in respect of candidate single residential property assessors is that referred to in subitem (1)(a) of this item.

Practical experience in property valuation required for registration as professional single residential property assessor

2. The practical experience in property valuation contemplated in section 20(2)(a)(iii) of the Act in respect of professional single residential property assessors, is as follows, namely that the applicant concerned -

- (a) has attended the council's Practical Workschool for Professional Single Residential Property Assessors, presented by The South African Institute of Valuers, and has passed the examination conducted at the end thereof; and
- (b) has gained practical experience of work in property valuation in the Republic of the scope, variety, nature and standard set out in this Annexure.

Scope, variety, nature and standard of practical experience in property valuation required for registration as professional single residential property assessor

3. It is the responsibility of a candidate single residential property assessor and his or her supervisor, approved in terms of item 6, to ensure that that candidate gains a sufficient scope, variety, nature and standard of practical experience of work in property valuation by having him or her exposed to as many of the following as possible:-

- (a) Purposes of property valuation:
As set out in item 3(a) of Annexure D.1.
- (b) Types of properties:
 - (i) vacant single residential land;
 - (ii) single dwellings;
 - (iii) individual residential units (sectional title and share block).

Assessment of practical experience in property valuation required for registration as professional single residential property assessor

4. (1) To assess, for the purposes of section 20(2)(a)(iii) of the Act, the practical experience of work in property valuation of an applicant applying in terms of section 20 of the Act in the category of professional single residential property assessor, the relative weights set out in Annexure C in respect of the various types of single residential properties for the different purposes of property valuations listed in item 3, shall be applied to the numbers of property valuations provided and substantiated by the applicant in his or her application form submitted by him or her, and shall be processed electronically to determine a total weight, which, together with the various types of single residential properties valued by the applicant for different purposes of property valuations shall form the basis for assessment.

(2) In the electronic determination referred to in subitem (1), the number, to a maximum of 100, provided and substantiated by an applicant in each cell reflected in Annexure C, shall be multiplied by the relative weight concerned and the aggregate of the resulting calculations shall be divided by 100 to determine the final outcome.

Application of assessment outcome for purposes of registration as professional single residential property assessor

5. As a general norm, the minimum outcome reached in the assessment referred to in item 4, shall be a weight of 80 and one type of property valued for one purpose of property valuation.

Supervision and control in respect of candidate single residential property assessors

6. (1) For the purposes of this Annexure, the professional under the supervision and control of whom a candidate single residential property assessor must perform his or her work as provided for in section 19(3) of the Act, shall be a professional valuer or professional associated valuer without restrictions, recorded and confirmed as such by the council ("supervisor").

(2) The supervisor shall countersign all property valuation reports and other documentation relating to work in property valuation, prepared by the candidate single residential property assessor, as verification of the fact that the supervisor has exercised the supervision and control contemplated by the said section 19(3) in respect of that work.

(3) Only work in property valuation performed under supervision and control in accordance with subitem (1), shall be taken into account by the council for the purposes of the determination referred to in item 4.

Restrictions and conditions

7. (1) A person registered in the category of professional single residential property assessor or candidate single residential property assessor, shall be restricted to the performance of work in property valuation in respect of single residential properties as defined in item 10.

(2) The provisions of subitem (1) shall not derogate from the council's powers under section 20(3) of the Act, in respect of any applicant applying, in terms of section 20(1) of the Act, for registration in the category of professional single residential property assessor or candidate single residential property assessor.

Cancellation or variation of restrictions and conditions

8. A person registered in terms of this Annexure who wishes the restrictions and conditions referred to in item 7 to be cancelled or varied, must comply with all the prescribed academic qualification and practical experience requirements applicable to the registration of a candidate valuer as a professional valuer or as a professional associated valuer, including any other requirements prescribed or determined by the council from time to time.

Transitional provision

9. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of items 1 to 8 of this Annexure, any person -

- (a) who provides proof to the council that he or she has regularly practised, for a continuous period of not less than five years immediately prior to the commencement of these Rules, as an estate agent as defined in section 1 of the Estate Agency Affairs Act, 1976 (Act No.112 of 1976);
- (b) who has received exemption, from a Technikon or similar academic institution offering the National Diploma in Real Estate (Property Valuation), for the subjects referred to in item 1(1)(a);
- (c) who has passed the test of practical competence, proficiency and experience referred to in item 1(1)(b);
- (d) who has, subject to subitem (2) of this item, complied with the provisions of item 2 of this Annexure; and
- (e) who otherwise complies with the provisions of section 20(1) and (2)(a)(i) of the Act, may within a period of six months after the commencement of these Rules, or within such further period as the council may in a particular case allow, apply to the council, on the form prescribed in terms of rule 8, to be registered as a professional single residential property assessor.

(2) In the application of this item, and for the purposes of item 2(b), the provisions of items 3, 4 and 5 shall apply with the necessary changes, and an applicant for registration as a professional single residential property assessor shall be deemed -

- (a) to have been registered as a candidate single residential property assessor; and
- (b) to have performed the work in property valuation provided and substantiated by the applicant in his or her application form, under the supervision and control of a supervisor.

Definition

10. In this Annexure, "single residential property" means vacant single residential land, single dwellings, and individual residential units (sectional title and share block), corresponding to the types of properties referred to in item 3(b).
