GUIDELINES REGARDING APPLICATIONS FOR PERMITS IN TERMS OF ITEM 470.03/00.00/01.00 FOR REBATE OF THE CUSTOMS DUTIES ON GOODS FOR USE IN THE MANUFACTURE, PROCESSING, FINISHING,
EQUIPPING OR PACKING OF GOODS EXCLUSIVELY FOR EXPORT
(JANUARY 2004)

1. The provision under item 470.03/00.00/01.00 of Schedule 4 to the Customs and Excise Act (Act 91 of 1964) provides for rebate of the full duty on goods for use in the manufacture, processing, finishing, equipping or packing of products exclusively for export, subject to permits issued by the International Trade Administration Commission (ITAC).
2. The purpose of the provision under item 470.03/00.00/01.00 is to promote economic development in general and export in particular by limiting the anti-export bias created by customs duties on imported products.
3. The ITAC's general policy is to recommend rebate permits in terms of the provision under item 470.03/00.00/01.00 in cases where the products imported are not available from SACU sources in sufficient quantity or of acceptable quality or of acceptable specification or not at a price competitive with the landed cost without customs duty of the imported products.
4. It is expected of the applicants to investigate the possibility of obtaining the required products from SACU manufacturers and to apply for rebate permits provided for by the provision under item 470.03/00.00/01.00 in only those cases where the SACU industry cannot meet the requirements. As a result the ITAC normally accepts the validity of the applicant's explanation of the reasons why the product should be imported, but general information regarding each permit issued is published quarterly in the Government Gazette to allow SACU manufacturers to react by offering to the export manufacturers the relevant product or to develop products which meet the requirements of the export manufacturer.

5. In cases where disputes arises as a result of the publication of the information regarding permits issued, the ITAC will investigate in detail the availability of the SACU product and it's competitiveness relative to the imported product. When assessing the issue whether a SACU product's price is competitive with the imported product price, the ITAC may also take into account the impact of the price on the competitiveness of the export product. In cases where the SACU product's price is higher than the landed cost without customs duty the ITAC may under exceptional circumstances decided not to issue a permit. The exceptional circumstances will be cases where the absence of a permit will not weaken the competitiveness of the export product meaningfully while it will potentially contribute meaningfully to the SACU industry concerned.
6. Interested parties should note the existence of the provision under item 521.00/00.00/01.00 of Part 1 of Schedule 5 to the Customs and Excise Act which provides for drawback of the full duty less the duty in Section B of Part 2 of Schedule 1 on imported goods used in the manufacture, processing, finishing, equipment or packing of any goods exported, subject to permits issued by the ITAC.¹
7. Drawback in terms of item 521.00/00.00/01.00 is of assistance to firms who import products with payment of the duty and who subsequently use the products in the way described in the provision in respect of products exported. The rebate provision under item 470.03/00.00/01.00 is aimed at assisting exporters who import products specifically with the objective to use the imported products in the manufacture, processing, finishing, equipping or packing of goods exclusively for export. Applications for rebate permits in terms of the provision under item 470.03/00.00/01.00 should not be lodged with the ITAC unless the applicant is in possession of a firm export order or if the outcome of the application is needed to finalize an agreement regarding an export order.

¹ Section B of Part 2 provides for ad valorem excise duties and ad valorem customs duties on imported goods of the same class or kind".

8. Interested parties should also note the following provisions:
 - Rebate of the full duty on goods for processing provided such goods do not become the property of the importer (item 470.01/00.00/01.00)
 - Rebate of the full duty on goods for repair, cleaning or recondition (item 470.02/00.00/01.00)
 - Rebate of the full duty on parts for goods temporarily imported for repair, cleaning or reconditioning (item 470.02/00.00/02.00)
9. The rebate provisions mentioned in the previous paragraph are not subject to permits issued by the ITAC. Interested parties who wish to use these provisions should approach SARS.
10. Applications for rebate permits in terms of the provision under item 470.03/00.00/01.00 must be addressed to the Chief Commissioner, International Trade Administration Commission, Private Bag X753, Pretoria or delivered by hand to the said chief commissioner officer at the SABS Building, No 1 Dr Lategan Road, Groenkloof, Pretoria.
11. Applicants should apply for rebate permits issued in terms of the provision under item 470.03/00.00/01.00 before importing the products. Rebate permits can only be used to claim rebate on imports that took place after the date of the permit.
12. Applications for permits in terms of the provision under Item 470.03/00.00/01.00 must be submitted according to the attached application form and in harmony with the guidelines set out in this document. If the space provided in the application form is insufficient, please use the format of the application form to submit the requested information.
13. If an application is deficient, the application will not be further processed and the applicant will be informed accordingly. An application will be regarded as deficient if one or more of the following is applicable:
 - The application is not in the format of the application form

- The application does not comply with the guidelines set out in this document
- All the information requested in the application form is not submitted
- The application contains conflicting information
- The application contains incorrect information.

Applicants who submitted deficient applications should submit duly completed application forms to replace deficient application forms, should they wish to proceed.

14. At least four weeks should be allowed for the processing of an application.
15. An application for a rebate permit in terms of the provision under item 470.03/00.00/01.00 should have a bearing on only one export product. For this purpose the description of the export product should not be wider than the description of the relevant tariff subheading. In cases where distinct different products are classifiable under the same tariff subheading and the applicant wishes to apply for rebate permits with a view to export the different products, separate applications should be submitted for each product notwithstanding the fact that the products are classifiable under the same tariff subheading.
16. Normally the applicant is responsible for the import and export of the products covered by an application. The ITAC also consider applications in respect of which two firms will be responsible for the import, the export and the activities covered by the application (The activities referred to are as required by the provision under item 470.03/00.00/01/00) namely "manufacture, processing, finishing, equipping or packing of goods exclusively for export").

17. An application which involves more than one firm results in administrative difficulties and as a result permits in respect of situations in terms of which more than two firms are involved will only be supported in exceptional circumstances. In assessing the merits of such application the ITAC will specifically attend to the issue whether the rebate applied for will make a meaningful contribution to the price competitiveness of the product concerned.
18. It is advisable that the SARS be consulted with regard to the tariff classification, description for customs tariff purposes and the statistical unit for customs tariff purposes of the each of the products to be imported and the product to be exported as required in terms of questions 4 and 6 of this application form.
19. Before the application is submitted to the ITAC it is imperative that applicants consult with SARS regarding the requirements of SARS in respect of the administration of permits issued in terms of the provision under item 470.03/00.00/01.00. Amongst other it is required that applicants should register with SARS.

20. Rebate permits will be forwarded to successful applicants by the ITAC by registered mail or can be collected at the ITAC's offices at SABS Building, (No 1 Dr Lategan Road, Groenkloof, Pretoria,) by a person in possession of written proof that he/she acts on behalf of the applicant. If the applicant indicates in the application form that the permit will be collected by hand, officials of the ITAC will inform the applicant by fax or e-mail of the date on which the permit will be available for collection. Note the control sheets which form part of a permit and it will be used by SARS to record the import and export transactions which are relevant in terms of the permit concerned.
21. If the ITAC decided not to approve an application, the applicant will be informed in writing of the decision and the reasons for the decision.
22. Regarding the periods allowed in permits for import and export and the period between import and export, the following guidelines are applicable in the cases of regular users of permits issued in terms of provision under item 470.03/00.00/01.00.
 - (a) A period for import of 12 months from the date of the permit, or such shorter period as requested by the applicant, or a shorter period that is regarded as justified by the ITAC, will be allowed.
 - (b) The period between import and export should be reasonable in terms of the time needed to manufacture, process, finish, equip or pack the export product.
 - (c) A period of export that ends not later than three months after the import period, or such shorter export period as requested by the applicant, or a shorter period that is regarded by the ITAC as justified, will be allowed.
23. In respect of applicants who apply for permits for the first time, the guidelines regarding the periods allowed in permits are the same as in the case of applicants who regularly use the provision concerned with the following exception:

- The import period allowed will be six months or a shorter period as requested by the applicant, or a shorter period that is regarded by the ITAC as justified.
24. Guidelines set out under paragraph 22 and paragraph 23 are aimed at improving control and deviation from these guidelines will only be permitted under exceptional circumstances. Applicants, who apply for permits which do not meet the guidelines, should submit detailed information and argument in support of the requested deviation.
25. If an applicant wishes to apply for amendment of a permit issued in terms of the provision under item 470.03/00.00/01.00, such application together with the permit should be submitted to the ITAC. The application should describe in detail the amendment requested and the reasons why the amendment is requested. If the amendment requested results in amendment of any other information supplied in the application form, which resulted in the issuing of the permit, details of such amendments must be submitted. If the ITAC concluded that the requested amendment is justified, the ITAC will issue a new permit and it will be made available to the applicant in accordance with the procedure described under 20. If the application is not successful, the permit will be returned to the applicant in accordance with the procedure described under 20 and the applicant will be informed in writing of the decision and the reasons for the decision.
26. Request for information regarding permits issued submitted by interested parties in terms of the Promotion of Access to Information Act No 2 of 2000 will be dealt with as follows:
- (i) Information regarding the following will be regarded as non confidential and will be revealed on request of an interested party to the interested party;
 - (a) Name and address of the applicant and where applicable name and address of the exporter;
 - (b) Descriptions of products in respect of which rebate was allowed as stated under 4 of the application form;

- (c) Descriptions of products exported as stated under 6 of the application form
 - (d) The position regarding the availability from industries in SACU of the products on which rebate was allowed as described under under 11, 12 and 13 of the application form.
 - (ii) Request for more information than the information mentioned under (i) will be conveyed to the applicant and, where applicable the exporter, and the information will only be revealed if the applicant and, where applicable the exporter, agrees to reveal the information.
27. If necessary to assess an application the ITAC or officials of the ITAC will reveal the information referred to under 26(i) to other parties.

NOTICE 140 OF 2004SOUTH AFRICAN LAW REFORM COMMISSION
DISCUSSION PAPER ON ASSISTED DECISION-MAKING

The South African Law Reform Commission has released for general information and comment a Discussion Paper dealing with assisted decision-making for adults with impaired decision-making capacity.

Making decisions is an important part of human life. Although we take it for granted that adults can make decisions about their personal welfare, financial affairs and medical treatment, some adults cannot make such decisions for themselves because of diminished capacity as a result of mental illness, intellectual disability, physical disability or an incapacity related to ageing in general. A legitimate expectation of the law is that it should establish a structure within which appropriate autonomy and self-determination is recognised and protected. Such a structure should provide appropriate substitute decision-making devices and the necessary protection from abuse, neglect and exploitation.

At present the law deals with decision-making incapacity by way of curatorships. The curatorship system has been criticised on the ground that it suffers from a number of serious and frustrating difficulties. An individual can also allow another to act on his or her behalf through a power of attorney. A power of attorney however terminates on the incapacity of the person who granted the power. The latter is a major cause for concern: Frequently care givers are under the impression that the power granted by a person in their care will be effective until that person dies, even in cases where the person had severely diminished mental capacity and is therefore incompetent in the eyes of the law.

Against the above background the Commission on a preliminary basis proposes that a change to the law is necessary. The detail of the Commission's proposals is reflected in the proposed draft legislation included in the Discussion Paper.

The Discussion Paper is obtainable free of charge from the Commission upon request (contact Mr Jacob Kabini). Written comments or suggestions should reach the Commission by 31 March 2004 at the following address:

PRE-AMBLE

This pre-ambles as far as is relevant, forms part of these rules.

Registered persons and architectural practices are subject to the disciplinary supervision of the council.

The rules lay down standards of professional conduct and practice and whereas not every non-compliance with a provision may necessarily constitute grounds for disciplinary proceedings, failure to follow the guidance of the rules, will be taken into account should it become necessary to examine the conduct or competence of a registered person.

It is an overriding obligation under the rules that in carrying out professional work, a registered person is expected to act competently and with integrity.

The fact that a course of conduct is not specifically referred to in the rules does not mean that it cannot form the basis of disciplinary proceedings. In this context, the council will investigate any complaint of unacceptable professional conduct i.e. conduct which falls short of the standard required of a registered person, or of serious professional incompetence.

It is therefore expected that a registered person shall refrain from conduct, which would in the opinion of the council be detrimental to the esteem, dignity and/or professionalism of the architectural profession or would tend to bring the architectural profession into disrepute.

If an architectural practice is in breach of any provision of or any rule published in terms of the Act which would have constituted improper or unprofessional conduct if committed by a registered person in the carrying on of his or her profession as a natural person in private practice, the council shall proceed against the principal officer of the practice.

The council shall consider any complaint in terms of these rules whether such conduct took place before or after their promulgation.

RULE 1 TECHNICAL COMPETENCE AND PROFESSIONAL WORK

- 1.1 A registered person shall only undertake professional work for which he or she is qualified and trained and able to provide adequate professional financial and technical resources.
- 1.2 Where work is carried out on behalf of a registered person by an employee or by anyone else acting under a registered person's direction or control, such registered person shall be responsible for ensuring that that person is competent to perform the task and, if necessary, is adequately supervised.

RULE 2 PROMOTION OF SERVICES

- A registered person may only promote his or her professional services in a truthful and responsible manner.
- 2.1 In advertising or promoting his or her services, a registered person shall not make untruthful or misleading statements.
- Credit for work done during a period as a principal or employee of another architectural practice should make reference to such practice and be clearly described.
- 2.2 The business style of an architectural practice should not be misleading or capable of being confused with that of another practice.
- 2.3 Services rendered shall be described in a factual manner that is related only to the work of the professional disciplines represented in a practice.
- 2.4 In offering a service combining consulting services with contracting services, it should be made clear to a potential client that the consulting services are not independent of the combined services.
- 2.5 A registered person shall declare to any potential client any business interest, including any interest in the business of trading in land or business of property developers, property auctioneers, estate agents or building contractors or subcontractors or of suppliers in or to the building industry, or in a design/build practice the existence of which interest, if not so declared, would raise or may be likely to raise doubts about his or her integrity as an independent professional person.

RULE 3 MANAGEMENT OF PROFESSIONAL WORK

A registered person shall not:

- 3.1 undertake to perform work for remuneration unless the registered person has clearly set out the terms of the appointment, which must inter alia include the following:

 - the allocation of responsibilities;
 - the limitation of responsibilities;
 - the fee or method of calculating it;
 - provisions for termination; and
 - details of professional indemnity insurance

Conditions for such permission are that a registered person shall be present in such office for at least one full day per week during normal office hours and that the time of attendance is prominently displayed outside the office. Permission will normally be granted to allow time for the replacement of a registered person who has resigned or who has left for some reason or to allow time for the employment of staff where an office has to be established in an area because of the award of a project.
- 4.7 The council may order that a practice be dissolved if any partner, member or shareholder who is not a registered person has been guilty of any act which, had he or she been a registered person, would have constituted a breach of any provision of the Act or these rules.
