G.(i) United Kingdom honours, including their South African variants, awarded to South Africans at the request of the South African Government prior to 1953 (e.g. during the World Wars and Korean War)

Worn according to the list of precedence then prevailing.

G.(ii) Other Foreign (a) Orders, (b) Decorations and (c) Medals, as well as Orders of Chivalry as set out in the Register of Orders of Chivalry

In Order of date of seniority, as Orders, Decorations and Medals, and in order of date of award within each category, provided that such honours may not be worn without the approval of the President, which approval shall be granted only if they have been conferred by the Heads of State or by the governments of States recognized by the South African Government, as such, or by the authorized authorities of International organizations by agreement between recognized governments, such as , for example, the UN, AU, EU, and NATO.

H. Orders, Decorations and Medals of International and Intergovernmental Bodies

On condition that these awards are not worn without the approval of the President.

I. Awards of Provincial and Local Authorities and Statutory Bodies

On condition that these honours are not worn with national awards without the approval of the President.

J. Awards from Private Institutions

These awards are not worn with official awards.

NOTE: (a) An asterisk in the final column indicates that although the award is known to have been instituted, no warrant has yet been traced.

(b) Those honours which were instituted, but are known not to have been awarded, have not been included.

(c) In the absence of full information relating to the honours of the former Independent and National States, there might well be among those recorded for them, some which were not awarded.
