'existing asphalt plant' means any plant that was built before the date on which this Notice takes effect;

'new asphalt plant' means any plant that is built after the date on which this Notice takes effect;

'operator or owner' means a person or legal entity that owns, manages, or controls asphalt plant; and

'temporary asphalt plant' means an asphalt plant that is used for the sole purpose of supplying asphalt for a specific road paving contract not exceeding a period of 24 months.

Part 2: General

Application

1. This Notice shall apply to all temporary asphalt plants which are operating anywhere in the country.

Implementation

2. An air quality officer shall be responsible for co-ordinating matters pertaining to this Notice.

Compliance timeframes

3. New temporary asphalt plant must comply with the new temporary asphalt plants emission standards as contained in Part 3 on the date of publication of this Notice.
4. Existing temporary asphalt plant must comply with existing temporary asphalt plants emission standards as contained in Part 3 within 5 years from the date of publication of this Notice in the Gazette.

Emission measurements

5. The concentration or mass of pollutant for which emissions standards have been set in this Notice shall be reported as the average of at least three (3) measurements; measured over a minimum sample period of 60 minutes, under normal operating conditions to obtain a representative sample.
6. The manner in which measurements shall be carried out must be in accordance with the standard sampling and analysis methods listed in Annexure A to this Notice.
7. Methods other than those contained in Annexure A to this Notice may be used with the written consent of the National Air Quality Officer.
8. In seeking the written consent referred to paragraph 7 above, an applicant must provide the National Air Quality Officer with any information that supports the equivalence of the method other than those listed in Annexure A to this Notice.

Reporting requirements

9. The operator of a temporary asphalt plant must—
  - (1) submit at least one (1) emission report every six months to the relevant air quality officer in the format set out in Annexure A to this Notice;
  - (2) provide any additional emission reports as requested by an air quality officer; and
  - (3) produce the record of the measurement results for inspection if requested to do so by an air quality officer.

10. For reporting requirements, emissions shall be measured by stack emission measurement and may be supplemented by means of mass balances or engineering calculations.

Part 3: Emission Standards

Emission Standards

- (1) All temporary asphalt plants must comply with the emission limits and requirements as scheduled in the tables below. All limit values are expressed on daily averages, at specified reference conditions.

National Agricultural Marketing Council

Promoting market access for South African agriculture

REQUEST FOR THE CONTINUATION OF THE STATUTORY LEVY ON LUCERNE SEED AND LUCERNE HAY IN TERMS OF THE MARKETING OF AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS ACT, ACT NO 47 OF 1996

INVITATION TO DIRECTLY AFFECTED GROUPS IN THE LUCERNE INDUSTRY TO FORWARD COMMENTS REGARDING THE REQUEST FROM THE NATIONAL LUCERNE TRUST

The statutory levies on lucerne seed and lucerne hay that were implemented for a period of three years, will lapse on 9 September 2014. These levies (VAT excluded) amount to:

- 60c/kg on clean seed;
- R3/t for lucerne hay not analysed by a NIR Instrument; and
- R5/t for lucerne hay analysed by a NIR Instrument.

The National Agricultural Marketing Council (NAMC) received a request from the National Lucerne Trust (NLT), on behalf of directly affected groups in the lucerne industry, for the continuation and increase of statutory levies, to be promulgated as follows (VAT excluded):

- 80c/kg on clean seed, payable by lucerne seed cleaners;
- R4/t for lucerne hay not analysed by a NIR instrument, payable by the first lucerne hay dealer dealing with such Lucerne hay; and
- R6/t for lucerne hay analysed by a NIR instrument, payable by the owner of the NIR instrument.

The purpose and aims of these statutory levies are to provide financial support for cleaning, grading and classification standards and services, research, information, technology transfer and transformation in the lucerne industry.

As the proposed statutory levies requested by the NLT are consistent with the objectives of the Marketing of Agricultural Products Act, the NAMC will investigate the possible implementation of the relevant statutory levies and make recommendations to the Minister of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries.

Directly affected groups in the lucerne industry are kindly requested to submit any comments or objections with regard to the proposed statutory levies to the NAMC in writing (fax 012 341 1911 or e-mail to lizette@namc.co.za), on or before 13 December 2013, to enable the Council to formulate its recommendation to the Minister in this regard.

(CDM case no.: 017848)

The Chairperson Competition Tribunal

NOTICE 1165 OF 2013*MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

Entered into between

THE COMPETITION COMMISSION

(Hereinafter referred to as "the Commission")

a juristic person established in terms of the provisions of section 19 of the Competition Act, 1998 (Act No. 89 of 1998), as amended, herein duly represented by Mr. Tembinkosi Bonakele, in his capacity as the Commissioner of the Commission

And

THE MPUMALANGA GAMBLING BOARD

(Hereinafter referred to as "the Board")

a statutory body established in terms of section 2 of the Mpumalanga Gambling Act, 1995 (Act No 5 of 1995) as amended, herein duly represented by Mr Bheki Mlambo in his capacity as the Chief Executive Officer of the Board. (Hereinafter jointly referred to as "the Parties")

Whereas the Commission, in terms of section 21 of the Competition Act, 1998, is responsible for, inter alia:

- investigating and evaluating alleged contraventions of Chapter 2;
- granting or refusing applications for exemptions in terms of Chapter 2; and
- authorize, with or without conditions, prohibit or refer mergers of which it receives notice in terms of Chapter 3.

Whereas in terms of section 3 of the Mpumalanga Gambling Act, 1995 the Board may exercise powers, perform functions and carry out duties assigned to it in terms of that Act or any other law.

The parties recognise the need for the Commission to conclude similar agreements with the National Gambling Board as well as with other provincial gambling boards in view of the fact that casinos, racing, gambling and wagering are matters of concurrent national and provincial legislative competence in terms of the Constitution;

Whereas the parties recognise that the Board is required by sections 22(1)(b)(i), 33B, 34 and 36(1) of the Mpumalanga Gambling Act, 1995, as amended, read with section 54 of the National Gambling Act, 2004, to consider competition issues when considering an application for a licence or an application for the transfer of a licence.

Whereas concurrent jurisdiction between the parties with regard to certain conduct has been established by section 3 (1A) (a) of the Competition Act, 1998.

Whereas the Competition Act in section 21(1)(h), read with sections 3(3)(b) and 82(1) and (3) of that Act, requires the parties to enter into an agreement in order to –

- identify and establish procedures for the management of areas of concurrent jurisdiction; and
- co-ordinate and harmonise the exercise of jurisdiction over competition matters within the gambling industry;

Whereas the Commission and the Board intend to establish and maintain a co-operative relationship for the provision of mutual assistance and advice in order to ensure the consistent application of the relevant legislation;

Therefore the parties agree to regulate their relationship in accordance with the terms of this Agreement as set out hereunder.

1. Objective and Scope

The objective of this Agreement is to establish a formal basis for –

- 1.1. co-operation in the exercise of concurrent jurisdiction over competition matters within the gambling industry;
- 1.2. managing areas of concurrent jurisdiction;
- 1.3. promoting co-operation between the parties in general, including in respect of the setting of standards or conditions that affect competition in the gambling industry, cooperation during investigations, taking into account the provisions of Clause 6 herein below, market inquiries and/or research studies that the parties may agree to undertake; and

3. Approval of merger transactions

(A) Application for merger approval: Concurrent Jurisdiction

- 3.1. Where a transaction appears to the Board or the Commission to require the approval of both parties, the parties may consult each other in terms of clause 3.2 below.
- 3.2. The parties may consult each other for purposes of evaluating the manner in which the transaction may be managed. In doing this, the parties must have regard to the principle that:
- 3.2.1. the Commission is to exercise primary authority in the review of mergers within the gambling industry in order to give effect to the Competition Act; and
- 3.2.2. the Board has primary authority to exercise powers and perform duties assigned to it in terms of the Mpumalanga Gambling Act, 1995, as amended, in order to give effect to its relevant legislation, including but not limited to the consideration of applications for transfers of licences and or acquisitions of businesses of licensees.

(B) Application for merger approval: No concurrent jurisdiction

- 3.3. Where an application to the Commission or the Board requires the approval of either party, but not both, the following shall apply -
- 3.3.1 if the Board is the party whose approval is required, it may, when considering competition issues as required by section 22(1)(b)(i) of the Mpumalanga Gambling Act, read with section 54 of the National Gambling Act, consult with and obtain input from the Commission so as to ensure the consistent application of competition principles to the transaction in question.
- 3.3.2 if the Commission is the party whose approval is required, it may, if it deems it necessary to take into account regulatory aspects that affect or relate to the gambling industry regulated by the Board, consult with and obtain input from the Board so as to ensure the consistent application of the gambling legislation to the transaction in question.

4. Investigation of complaints into prohibited practices

- 4.1. Where a complaint is lodged about a practice in respect of which the parties have concurrent jurisdiction, the following process shall be followed -
- 4.1.1. the party that receives the complaint ("the recipient regulator") shall ensure that the said complaint is made available to the other party within seven (7) days after a formal decision to investigate the complaint has been taken;

Handwritten signatures and initials, including a stylized 'S', 'B', 'MB', and 'BML'.

- 4.1.2. where the recipient regulator deems it appropriate, the recipient regulator may inform the complainant(s) that the matter will be discussed jointly by the Commission and the Board in terms of this Agreement;
- 4.1.3. the parties may consult with each other in order to establish how the matter may be managed and/or resolved; and
- 4.1.4. In evaluating how the complaint may be managed, the parties must have regard to the principle that –
  - 4.1.4.1. the Commission is to exercise primary authority to detect and investigate alleged prohibited practices in order to give effect to the Competition Act; and
  - 4.1.4.2. taking into account the powers and roles of the National Gambling Board and other provincial gambling boards, the Board has primary authority to exercise powers and perform duties assigned to it in terms of the Mpumalanga Gambling Act, read with the National Gambling Act.

In the event that the matter is dealt with by the Commission, representatives from the Board may participate in the matter through, inter alia, attending meetings when required, providing inputs during the case investigation, and making representations at the Competition Tribunal hearing if necessary;
- 4.1.5. In the event that the matter is dealt with by the Board, representatives from the Commission may participate in the matter through, inter alia, attending meetings when required, providing inputs during the case investigation, and making representations at the Board's proceedings if necessary;
- 4.2. If the complaint relates to a matter where either the Commission or the Board has jurisdiction, but there is no concurrent jurisdiction, the following shall apply –
  - 4.2.1. the recipient regulator or the complainant must lodge the complaint with the party that has jurisdiction;
  - 4.2.2. if upon receiving a complaint, the recipient regulator is of the view that it does not have jurisdiction over the matter; the recipient regulator shall advise the complainant(s) accordingly and recommend that the complainant(s) refer the matter to the relevant regulator;
  - 4.2.3. if the Board is the party that has jurisdiction, if it deems it necessary to take into account considerations of competition, it may consult with and obtain input from the Commission so as to ensure the consistent application of competition principles to the matter in question; and 4.2.4. If the Commission is the party that has jurisdiction, it may if it deems it necessary to take into account regulatory aspects that are subject to the jurisdiction of the Board, consult with and obtain input from the Board so as to ensure the consistent application of the regulation principles to the matter in question.

4.3. The decision by the regulatory authority that has jurisdiction over the complaint to consult the other regulatory authority shall be discretionary and voluntary.

5. Exchange of Information

NOTICE 1166 OF 2013*COMPETITION COMMISSION OF SOUTH AFRICA*TERMS OF REFERENCE FOR MARKET INQUIRY INTO THE PRIVATE HEALTHCARE SECTOR

(Market Inquiry Commencement Date: 06 January 2014)

Notice is hereby given that the Competition Commission ("Commission") will conduct a market inquiry into the private healthcare sector ("healthcare inquiry") in terms of Chapter 4A of the Competition Act, 89 of 1998 (as amended) ("Competition Act"). The terms of reference for the healthcare inquiry, set out below, indicates the scope of the healthcare inquiry as well as the time within which it is expected to be completed.

This notice is published in terms of section 43B(2) of the Competition Act.

Members of the public are invited to provide information to the healthcare inquiry in accordance with guidelines for participation to be determined by the Commission. These guidelines will be made available on the Commission's website at www.compcom.co.za before the date of commencement of the inquiry.

Copies of the terms of reference are also available at the Competition Commission offices at the DTI Campus, Mulayo (Block C), 77 Meintjies Street, Sunnyside, Pretoria; or on the Commission's healthcare inquiry website at www.healthinquiry.co.za.

TERMS OF REFERENCE FOR THE MARKET INQUIRY INTO PRIVATE HEALTHCARE*1. LEGAL BASIS FOR THE MARKET INQUIRY

The Competition Commission ("the Commission") will conduct a market inquiry into the private healthcare sector in terms of Chapter 4A of the Competition Act, 89 of 1998 (as amended) ("the Act") and in keeping with the purpose and functions of the Commission set out in section 2 and section 21 of the Act respectively<sup>a</sup>.

Section 21 of the Act calls on the Commission to, inter alia, "implement measures to increase market transparency" and "advise, and receive advice from, any regulatory authority". In order to fulfil these functions, and in line with the purpose of the Act, Chapter 4A of the Act enables the Commission to conduct market inquiries in respect of the "general state of competition in a market for particular goods or services, without necessarily referring to the conduct or activities of any particular named firm”<sup>b</sup>. A market inquiry is thus a general investigation into the state, nature and form of competition in a market, rather than a narrow investigation of specific conduct by any particular firm.

The Commission is initiating an inquiry into the private healthcare sector because it has reason to believe that there are features of the sector that prevent, distort or restrict competition.<sup>c</sup> The Commission further believes that conducting this inquiry will assist in understanding how it may promote competition in the healthcare sector, in furtherance of the purpose of the Act.<sup>d</sup>

One of the prerequisites to commence a market inquiry is that the Commission must develop and publish Terms of Reference (“ToR”) for the market inquiry. These terms of reference must include, “at a minimum, a statement of the scope of the inquiry and the time within which it is expected to be completed”<sup>e</sup>. In accordance with these provisions, this ToR sets out the scope of the market inquiry, as well as the expected timelines for the inquiry.

Although the ToR delimits the scope of the market inquiry as currently envisaged, additional and related matters not identified herein may arise during the conduct of the inquiry. If the Commission believes that the ToR should be amended in any way, either through the addition of new matters or exclusion of matters currently identified herein, the ToR may be amended in terms of section 43B(5) of the Act.

2. THE PRIVATE HEALTHCARE SECTOR

This inquiry will examine the private healthcare sector, which encompasses numerous interrelated markets. In this document, “private healthcare sector” refers to that portion of healthcare services that are funded by private patients themselves, either through medical schemes, insurance or through out-

<sup>c</sup> According to section 43B (1)(i) of the Act, the Commission may initiate a market inquiry if it has reason to believe that any feature or combination of features of a market for any goods and services prevents, distorts or restricts competition within the market.

<sup>d</sup> The purpose of the Act, as set out in section 2, is to “promote and maintain competition in the Republic in order –

- (a) to promote the efficiency, adaptability and development of the economy;
- (b) to provide consumers with competitive prices and product choices;
- (c) to promote employment and advance the social and economic welfare of South Africans;
- (d) to expand opportunities for South African participation in world markets and recognize the role of foreign competition in the Republic;
- (e) to ensure that small and medium-sized enterprises have an equitable opportunity to participate in the economy; and
- (f) to promote a greater spread of ownership, in particular to increase the ownership stakes of historically disadvantaged persons.”

of-pocket payments.<sup>f</sup> The private healthcare sector is distinguished from the public healthcare sector, which is funded predominantly by public funds and is operated by the state.

Due to the many interrelated aspects of the various markets that comprise the private healthcare sector, competition in one market affects that in another. This implies that one can only fully understand the nature and dynamics of competition and associated matters such as cost, pricing and demand, by evaluating the dynamics within and relationship between the various markets that comprise the private healthcare sector. The achievement of the inquiry's objectives thus requires the consideration of a range of markets, including healthcare financing and suppliers of healthcare goods and services.

For purposes of analysing competition, these markets can be more narrowly defined through a detailed evaluation of the relevant product/service and geographic markets, taking into account supply- and demand-side substitution. The use of the term "market" in this ToR is thus best viewed as a preliminary hypothesis that will be refined during the course of the inquiry as more information becomes available.

The ambit of the inquiry is defined in more detail in section 5 of this ToR. The remainder of this section provides some background on healthcare markets in general, as well as cursory highlights of the South African healthcare sector. It also sets out considerations of the South African healthcare sector that are relevant to this inquiry.<sup>g</sup>

2.1. Healthcare in South Africa

The South African healthcare sector is characterised by many challenges related to uneven distribution of coverage and access to funding, poor infrastructure and human resource constraints. These challenges are particularly pertinent in the public sector:

- In 2012, 42.5 million<sup>1</sup> South Africans were dependent on the public sector for the provision of healthcare services, whilst 8.7 million<sup>2</sup> were serviced by the private sector.<sup>h</sup>
- In 2011/2012, the per capita expenditure on healthcare in the private sector was R13 800, whilst per capita expenditure in the public healthcare sector was R2 880.<sup>3</sup>

<sup>g</sup> These terms of reference clarify why the Commission believes there are features of the interrelated markets in the healthcare sector that prevent, distort, or restrict competition. The Commission believes that it is both fair and prudent to provide this rationale, but emphasises that it will refine and sharpen its understanding of the general state of competition in these interrelated healthcare markets during the course of the inquiry.

INQUIRY: Private Healthcare Sector*

- In 2011/2012, private sector funding equated to 48.6% (R120.8 billion) of total healthcare expenditure and covered 17% of the population, whilst public sector funding equated to 49.3% (R122.4 billion) of the total healthcare expenditure and covered 83% of the population. The remaining 2.1% of healthcare expenditure in 2011/2012 (R5.3 billion) could be attributed to donor and NGO spend.<sup>4</sup>
- According to the latest available information, the number of beds in the public sector was equivalent to about 2.1 per 1 000 of the population, whilst in the private sector the ratio was 3.5 per 1 000 of the population<sup>5</sup>.

South Africans are also facing what is referred to as a “quadruple burden of disease”: The first burden is the HIV/AIDS pandemic; the second is that of injury, both accidental and non-accidental; the third consists of infectious diseases such as tuberculosis, diarrhoea and pneumonia, and the fourth is the growing prevalence of lifestyle diseases<sup>i</sup> related to relative affluence.

Similar to the challenges faced by many other developing countries, South Africa thus has to come to grips with diseases of poverty and affluence simultaneously.

2.1.1. The South African Private Healthcare sector

As stated above, the private healthcare sector is made up of several interrelated markets involving the financing of healthcare, healthcare goods (such as medical devices and pharmaceutical products) and healthcare services provided by hospitals, practitioners and other intermediaries/agents.

2.1.2 Financing of healthcare/Financing mechanisms

Financing mechanisms refer to the institutional framework that exists to support risk pooling (i.e. insurance) and the purchase of healthcare goods and services. This framework principally includes health insurance entities such as medical schemes and private insurance companies, supported by administration and managed care companies. Direct purchases of healthcare goods and services also constitute a form of personal healthcare financing.

At the end of 2012 there were 92 registered medical schemes in South Africa, of which 25 were open schemes and 67 were restricted (closed) schemes. Only 30 medical schemes had more than 30,000 beneficiaries<sup>6</sup>. Closed medical schemes are restricted to a defined population, usually the employees of a company or industry. Open medical schemes are open to anyone that can afford the contributions.

The Board of Healthcare Funders ("BHF") is an industry body representing more than 85% of the medical schemes in South Africa<sup>j</sup>. Medical schemes and administrators are subject to oversight by the Council for Medical Schemes ("CMS").

Medical schemes are responsible for the bulk of private healthcare expenditure. It is estimated that medical schemes contributed R98.1 billion (~81.2%) to total private healthcare expenditure in 2012 and provided coverage to 8.7 million beneficiaries<sup>7</sup>. The next largest contributor to private healthcare expenditure was out-of-pocket contributions, estimated at R18.2 billion (~15.1%) in 2012. Private insurance and employers were responsible for a further R4.6 billion (~3.8%) of private healthcare expenditure.<sup>k8</sup>

Medical schemes are required to comply with the Medical Schemes Act, 131 of 1998, designed to achieve the following:

- Open enrolment; whereby all open membership schemes must accept all applicants;
- Community rating; whereby schemes are not permitted to determine contribution rates based on the health status of beneficiaries; and
- Mandated minimum benefits; whereby schemes must cover certain medical conditions fully, either directly or through a Designated Service Provider ("DSP").<sup>l</sup>

Medical schemes are predominantly administered on an outsourced basis. A fair degree of consolidation has occurred over the past 15 years: at the end of 2012, three administrators controlled 78.2% of the total market based on the number of beneficiaries.<sup>9</sup>

Managed care companies can be closely affiliated with administrators (a subsidiary of the same holding company) or even part of the same company. In only a few instances are they more closely affiliated with healthcare providers. In 2012, expenditure on managed care companies accredited by the Council for Medical Schemes in terms of the Medical Schemes Act, totalled R2.3 billion compared to R6.5 billion for third-party administration<sup>10</sup>. Outsourced managed care and administration services

<sup>j</sup> Note that although BHF represents 85% of schemes, this does not translate to the same proportion of beneficiaries. For example, the largest open medical scheme, Discovery Health Medical Scheme is not listed as a member of BHF according to the BHF website. Date Last Accessed: 14 May 2013.

therefore totalled R8.8 billion in 2012, representing 7.5% of medical scheme Gross Contribution Income ("GCI").

Managed care intermediaries represent that part of the healthcare funding framework responsible for the development of innovative contracts with healthcare service suppliers. Although there has been growth in the business provided to these intermediaries, the sector-wide impact on private healthcare costs is not clear.

2.1.3 Suppliers of healthcare goods and services

Suppliers of healthcare goods and services include (1) healthcare professionals; (2) health facilities such as hospitals and clinics; (3) retail medicine distributors, such as pharmacies and dispensaries; (4) product manufacturers for medical consumables, medical devices, and medicines; and (5) logistics service suppliers for the distribution of medical products to health facilities and retail outlets.

According to the Department of Health, there were 27 784 medical practitioners (including specialists) working in the public and private sector in South Africa in 2010.<sup>11</sup> Primary care providers (GPs, dentists, and specialists) operate independently. They play a vital role in directing patients along the healthcare pathway. In theory, primary care providers act as "gatekeepers" responsible for making referrals to specialists, ordering medical tests and prescribing medication.

The three largest private hospital groups by number of beds are Netcare Limited, Life Healthcare Limited and Mediclinic Southern Africa Proprietary Limited, accounting for approximately 87.8%<sup>12m</sup> of private hospital beds. A further 12.2% of private hospital beds are provided by smaller independent players.

The South African medical devices, pharmaceuticals and consumables industries consist of smaller local and larger multinational companies that can be classified into importers, retailers, wholesalers, manufacturers and exporters. Pharmaceutical products can include ethical medicines, generic medicines, over-the-counter drugs and biologicals. Hospital medical equipment and supplies comprises various devices, tools, instruments and medical consumables used in hospitals and healthcare institutions.

While South Africa relies largely on imports to meet the country's demand for medicines, devices and consumables, there are some South African providers that service the local market. Activities in the pharmaceutical, devices and consumables industry include the manufacture, distribution, wholesale and retail sale of products.

2.1.4 Agents

Agents include all market participants that provide advice to consumers on the purchasing of insurance and healthcare goods and services. This principally includes financial advisors or brokers and medical doctors (general practitioners and specialists).

3. RATIONALE FOR A MARKET INQUIRY

Access to health care services is enshrined in the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa as a fundamental human right.<sup>n</sup> Section 27(2) imposes an obligation on the state to take reasonable measures to achieve the progressive realisation of this right. Private healthcare provision takes place within the context of this constitutional commitment to the provision of universal healthcare services to all people in South Africa.

The latest CMS annual report indicates that 8.7 million South Africans were serviced by the private healthcare sector during 2012.<sup>13</sup> The 2012 General Household Survey indicates that users of private healthcare facilities were largely satisfied with the service they receive in the private sector.<sup>o14</sup>

However, prices in the private healthcare sector are at levels which only a minority of South Africans can afford, evidenced by the (small) share of the population with access to private healthcare. Various concerns have indeed been raised about the functioning of private healthcare markets in South Africa as a result of the fact that healthcare expenditure and prices across key segments are rising above headline inflation. These increases in prices and expenditure frame the Commission's inquiry into the sector.

Various explanations have been put forward to explain the above-inflation increases in prices in private healthcare. These explanations range from information asymmetries and distorted incentives inherent in healthcare markets, though varying degrees of market power at different levels of the value chain, to changes in utilisation. Given the large number of possible explanations for these increases, there is a need for an inquiry into the factors that drive the observed increases in private healthcare expenditure and prices in South Africa. The market inquiry into private healthcare will evaluate the various explanations for cost, price and expenditure increases in the private healthcare sector and will identify competitive dynamics at play. Through this analysis, the inquiry aims to identify all factors that prevent, distort or restrict competition, including any evidence of market failure, regulatory failure or competition concerns. This will provide a factual basis upon which the Commission can make evidence-based recommendations that serve to promote competition in the interest of a more affordable, accessible, innovative and good quality private healthcare.

<sup>n</sup> Section 27(a) of the Constitution states that "everyone has the right to have access to health care services, including reproductive healthcare"

The following sections contain an overview of initial observations on the private healthcare sector in South Africa. Note that all statements contained herein are subject to review during the inquiry.

3.1. Structural features of the healthcare sector

The healthcare sector typically involves a wide range of funding mechanisms, prioritisation and rationing mechanisms, role-players, stakeholder interests, and government regulations. The delivery of healthcare is facilitated by agency relationships,<sup>p</sup> especially those between patient and doctor and patient and medical funder.<sup>q</sup>

The private healthcare sector is prone to various forms of market failure affecting both the purchasing and supply of health services.<sup>15</sup> This sector is characterized by many areas of imperfect information, specifically asymmetric information. In many cases, the consumer (patient) is not price sensitive, as the service (medical treatment) is either paid for by a medical scheme or by government.<sup>16</sup> In these instances, competition based on price is less relevant and quality becomes the significant competitive factor.<sup>17</sup>

The consumer (patient) is also in a unique position, as the services purchased are not traditional economic goods, but often an emotional and necessary purchase of which he or she has very little knowledge. Due to the complexity of healthcare products or services, consumers are often advised by agents, in the form of doctors and brokers, on what they should buy. This further diminishes the relationship between costs, household budget constraints, and consumer preferences. The intermediation of agents in the purchasing decisions of consumers makes health markets vulnerable

<sup>p</sup> An "agency relationship" refers to a situation wherein one party (the agent) acts on behalf of another party (often referred to as the "principal"). In an agency relationship, the principal expects the agent to act in their best interest, but the agent has limited influence and understanding to evaluate whether this is the case.

to conflicts of interest, particularly where the interests of consumers do not converge with those of agents.

The functioning of these relationships and the nature of the incentives in the medical value chain, will determine the eventual price, quality and outcomes that patients experience.

3.2 Regulation in the healthcare sector

Given the complexity of the healthcare sector, the role of agents, and the asymmetries of information that exist, different views exist with regards to the level of intervention and regulation that is desirable in healthcare.

The purpose of regulation is often to achieve a number of goals that cannot be accomplished by the private market operating on its own, for example ensuring coverage for vulnerable groups based on their income and health status. The specific instruments used vary by country.

Many countries have a “mixed” healthcare system, including publicly-delivered services, social insurance funds, and regulated private markets. Industrialized countries are less pluralistic in nature and tend to favour one or other predominant approach to financing and delivering healthcare. Although there are no model (“best practice”) systems, regulatory regimes do fall into families. For instance, regulated private markets, such as those of the Netherlands and Germany, achieve solidarity and certain macro-level cost-containment goals through non-market mechanisms. Public schemes, such as those of the United Kingdom, are able to internalize solidarity goals by having a single fund, and manage costs through explicit contracting. The specific configuration of instruments required to achieve a sustainable health system will, however, depend on local circumstances.

In South Africa, factors such as the country’s disease profile, income levels, healthcare infrastructure and demographic profile add additional layers of complexity and will influence policy decisions. However, many of the recognised international health market imperfections are evident in the South African private health sector and inform the need for this inquiry.

3.3 Expenditure increases in the private healthcare sector

Expenditure increases have been raised as a concern in the private healthcare sector in South Africa. Various views have been expressed as to the reasons for these trends<sup>18</sup>. This inquiry will investigate the extent of increases in cost, prices, and expenditure and how these increases relate to competition.

INQUIRY: Private Healthcare Sector

A preliminary view of expenditure increases is presented below; using claims data collected from medical schemes over the period 2003 – 2012 (inclusive). The data suggests that two categories; hospitals and specialists, accounted for 60% of all claims expenditure. These categories contributed to expenditure increases in the following ways:<sup>19</sup>

Hospitals, which constitute 36.7% of all claims expenditure (in 2012):

- Real per capita expenditure increase from 2003 to 2012: 40.7%
- Real expenditure increase from 2003 to 2012: R16.4 billion

Specialists, which constitute 23.3% of all claims expenditure (in 2012):

- Real per capita expenditure increase from 2003 to 2012: 55.7%
- Real expenditure increase from 2003 to 2012: R11.7 billion

These indicative trends suggest that private healthcare expenditure is increasing. Numerous factors may explain these increases, including utilisation, type of disease, benefit design, and the interaction between the regulatory environment and the sector. The veracity of this data and the underlying drivers of increased expenditure must be evaluated during the inquiry.

Trends in medical scheme claims and Gross Contribution Income (GCI) per medical scheme beneficiary also indicate an upward trend:

Source: Council for Medical Schemes: Annual Reports from 1991 to present

TERMS OF REFERENCE FOR MARKET
INQUIRY: Private Healthcare Sector

Despite the substantial real increases experienced in hospital and specialist claims, trends in medical schemes' GCI, which reflects contribution changes charged to medical scheme members, indicates that all of these increases were probably not passed on to members. Instead, schemes could have compensated by reducing other benefits or paying the difference from other sources such as reserves. The potential reasons for these trends will have to be investigated as part of this inquiry.

Finally, we consider the experience of households in South Africa with respect to healthcare prices. According to Statistics South Africa, the price increases that households have experienced in their healthcare prices (including medical insurance), as measured by the Consumer Price Index (CPI), exceeded headline CPI inflation by an annual average of 4.3 percentage points between 2009 and 2013 year to date. This indicates that prices for healthcare services experienced by consumers have been rising at a faster rate than average consumer prices in the economy<sup>20</sup>.

Medical insurance inflation as measured for households, has also exceeded headline CPI inflation by an average of 5.4 percentage points per annum between 2009 and 2013 year to date. As a result, the share of medical insurance paid by households as a share of their total expenditure has increased from 3.4% in 2005/06 to 7.2% in 2010/11<sup>21</sup>.

These indicative trends suggest that healthcare prices paid by households are increasing. The data and the underlying drivers of increased expenditure will be evaluated during the inquiry.

*TERMS OF REFERENCE FOR MARKET
INQUIRY: Private Healthcare Sector3.4 Consolidation in key markets

In addition to the changes in prices and expenditures within the private healthcare sector, there has also been consolidation in a number of key markets:

- Hospital groups: 3 groups share 87.8% of the total number of beds in the national private hospital market<sup>f</sup>;
- Administrators: 3 entities represent 78.2% of the total number of beneficiaries of medical schemes on a national basis; and
- Medical schemes: 3 schemes cover 55.5% of all beneficiaries of medical schemes<sup>22</sup>.

Concerns have been expressed around the levels of concentration within the South African private healthcare sector.<sup>23</sup> This potentially stems from a series of mergers within the industry.<sup>24</sup> The nature and effects of consolidation that has already taken place, as well as the likely consequences if it continues; will also have to be evaluated during the inquiry.

4. PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES OF THE MARKET INQUIRY

The purpose of the market inquiry is:

- To conduct an analysis of the interrelationship between various markets in the private healthcare sector, including examining the contractual relationships and interactions between and within the health service providers, the contribution of these dynamics to total private expenditure on healthcare, the nature of competition within and between these markets, and ways in which competition can be promoted;
- To assess the impact of Commission's interventions in private healthcare through enforcement action and merger regulation; including any impact this has had on prices, bargaining mechanisms, consolidation and competition in the healthcare sector;
- To inquire into the nature of price determination in the private healthcare sector in South Africa; and
- To establish a factual basis for recommendations that support the achievement of accessible, affordable, high quality, and innovative private healthcare in South Africa.

<sup>f</sup> This number is based on publicly available information, but is contested. The actual numbers and market shares will be reviewed during the inquiry.

The main objectives of the market inquiry are to:

- Evaluate the nature of price determination in private healthcare with reference to:
  - the extent of competition between different categories of providers and funders;
  - the extent of countervailing bargaining power between different providers and funders; and
  - the level and structure of prices of key services, including an assessment of profitability and costs;
- Evaluate and determine what factors have led to observed increases in private healthcare prices and expenditure in South Africa;
- Evaluate how consumers access and assess information about private healthcare providers, and how they exercise choice;
- Conduct a regulatory impact assessment that reviews the current regulatory framework and identify gaps that might exist. Examples include the interpretation of Prescribed Minimum Benefits ("PMBs"), the introduction of a risk equalization fund etc.;
- Make recommendations on appropriate policy and regulatory mechanisms that would support the goal of achieving accessible, affordable, innovative and quality private healthcare; and
- Make recommendations with regard to the role of competition policy and competition law in achieving pro-competitive outcomes in healthcare, given the possibly distinctive nature of the market.

5. SUBJECT MATTER OF THE INQUIRY

The market inquiry will probe the private healthcare sector holistically to determine the factors that restrict, prevent or distort competition and underlie increases in private healthcare prices and expenditure in South Africa. Decisions on the subject matter of the inquiry were informed by the Commission's preliminary research, consideration of stakeholder comments on the draft ToR, the main categories of private healthcare expenditure, and consideration of areas of the inquiry that would make the greatest impact within the Commission's limited resources. The Commission has delineated the current scope of the inquiry as best it can on the basis of the information available to it at this stage. The scope set out below provides an indication of the questions that will be asked, based on the Commission's preliminary theories of harm. These statements in no way imply that any conclusions have been reached; they will all be evaluated and tested during the inquiry.

6. THE PROPOSED MARKET INQUIRY PROCESS

The Commission will evaluate the subject matter of the inquiry through an inquisitorial process of public hearings and a review of secondary material, obtained via information requests, consultations and summons, as required. All interested and affected parties are also invited to submit information relevant to the inquiry in accordance with the guidelines for participation to be determined by the Commission. Guidelines for participation in the inquiry will be made available on the Commission's website.

A panel comprising three to five experts will preside over the hearings, review submissions, examine evidence and oversee the drafting of the inquiry report and recommendations. The panel of experts will report to the Competition Commissioner.

A team of researchers and analysts will support the panel. This team will assume primary responsibility for producing position papers, reviewing submissions and briefing the panel prior to the public hearings. The support team will also assist the panel with hearings and with drafting the inquiry report.

The participants in the market inquiry process will include firms, industry associations, government departments, public entities, patient groups, civil-society based organisations, patients, and any other stakeholders that may be able to provide information relevant to the market inquiry. Members of the public will be invited to participate in the inquiry during the information gathering phase of the inquiry, as well as during the public hearings and are encouraged to participate fully in the inquiry process.

The Commission is committed to the principles of fairness, transparency, and integrity and will conduct the inquiry in accordance with these principles. It is the Commission's view that the benefit of a market inquiry is that it lends itself to greater transparency than an investigation of a prohibited practice. The Commission will thus take all reasonable steps to ensure that all interested parties understand the Commission's thinking on the subject matter of the inquiry as it develops. To give effect to the Commission's commitment to transparency, the Commission will also release "issues statements" or interim reports throughout the market inquiry for public consideration and comment. The Commission will allow stakeholders fair and reasonable opportunity to provide input into the inquiry process.
