Short title and commencement

11. This Act is called the Public Audit Amendment Act, 2018, and comes into operation on 1 April 2019.

MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE PUBLIC AUDIT AMENDMENT BILL, 2018

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 The Public Audit Act, 2004 (Act No. 25 of 2004) (hereinafter referred to as the “principal Act”), gives effect to section 188 and 189 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996 (the “Constitution”) by establishing and assigning supreme auditing functions to the Auditor-General. Considering the provisions contained in the Constitution, read with the principal Act, the Auditor-General enjoys a large degree of independence, which allows for freedom to select the most effective ways to execute its constitutional mandate.

1.2 However, the principal Act does not give the Auditor-General the authority to implement its recommendations to investigate undesirable audit outcomes or to recover any losses suffered by the State. In this regard, the Auditor-General depends on the executive to implement these recommendations.

1.3 During the past 13 years since the commencement of the principal Act, the Auditor-General’s efforts to assign consequences for poor financial and performance management through its audit reports had yielded mixed results. Year on year the Auditor-General reports astronomical amounts of unauthorised, irregular and fruitless and wasteful expenditure.

2. OBJECTS OF THE BILL

Hence, the purpose of the Public Audit Amendment Bill, 2018 (hereinafter referred to as the “Bill”), seeks to amend the principal Act so as to, inter alia, provide for additional functions for the Auditor-General to recover losses suffered by the State as well as to refer undesirable audit outcomes for investigation; to clarify the mandate of the Auditor-General to perform international audit work and to conduct performance audits; and to align the Auditor-General's governance arrangements to current best practice.

3. CONTENTS OF THE BILL

3.1 Clause 1 of the Bill inserts new definitions into the principal Act.

3.2 Clause 2 of the Bill inserts a new subsection (3A) into section 4 of the principal Act which empowers the Auditor-General to prescribe criteria on how to exercise his discretion when performing discretionary audits referred to in section 4(3) of the principal Act. Clause 2 of the Bill also amends section 4(4) of the principal Act to provide that the Auditor-General's discretion applies notwithstanding any other contrary law.

3.3 Clause 3 of the Bill amends section 5 by providing for additional functions for the Auditor-General.

Clause 3 amends section 5(1) of the principal Act by inserting provisions which mandates the Auditor-General to conduct performance audits and to provide audit and audit related services to international associations, bodies, institutions or organisations provided that certain conditions are met.

Clause 3 also inserts new subsections (1A) and (1B) into section 5 of the principal Act. The new subsection (1A) empowers the Auditor-General to refer any undesirable audit outcome to an appropriate body for investigation. The new subsection (1B) empowers the Auditor-General to recover from the responsible accounting officer, accounting officers, accounting authority or accounting authorities, as the case may be, any losses suffered by the State in the absence of a satisfactory explanation as to why such loss was not recovered.

Furthermore, clause 3 amends section 5(2) of the principal Act by providing for the establishment and functions of a remuneration committee.

- 3.4 Clause 4 of the Bill amends section 7(1A) of the principal Act by providing that the Independent Commission, when considering the remuneration of the Auditor-General, must also consult the newly established remuneration committee.
- 3.5 Clause 5 of the Bill amends section 10 of the principal Act by providing that the Auditor-General must now also submit reports on performance audits and international audits, which may now be conducted, submit reports on any matters referred to an appropriate body for investigation, submit reports on the certificates issued to recover losses and also on the details of the monies recovered and the monies deposited into the National Revenue Fund and Provincial Revenue Fund.
- 3.6 Clause 6 of the Bill amends section 20(2) of the principal Act to revise the content of the audit report in relation to financial statements.
- 3.7 Clause 7 of the Bill amends section 23 of the principal Act by providing for agreement on the maximum amount or percentage of the audit fees to be defrayed from the vote of National Treasury.
- 3.8 Clause 8 of the Bill amends section 34 of the principal Act to provide that the Auditor-General must, in determining the remuneration, allowances and benefits of employees, consider the recommendations of the remuneration committee.
- 3.9 Clause 9 of the Bill amends section 40(1) of the principal Act by providing that the Auditor-General, instead of the Deputy Auditor-General, must establish and appoint the members of the audit committee.

3.10 Clause 10 of the Bill amends section 52 of the principal Act by specifying the categories of regulations that must or may be made by the Auditor-General.

3.11 Clause 11 provides for the short title and the commencement date.

4. ORGANISATIONAL AND PERSONNEL IMPLICATIONS

It is projected that three additional staff members would need to be appointed in order to implement the additional functions.

5. FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS FOR THE STATE

The estimated cost to implement the additional powers of the Auditor-General is estimated at R33 956 979 million per annum for the first three financial years following the commencement of the Bill. This figure will be adjusted as the new processes mature over time. The remaining amendments will not have a cost implication for the State.

6. DEPARTMENTS, BODIES OR PERSONS CONSULTED

The following stakeholders were consulted:

- The Auditor-General;
- National Treasury

7. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

7.1 The Committee proposes that the Bill must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure established by section 75 of the Constitution since it contains no provisions to which the procedures set out in section 74 or 76 of the Constitution apply.

7.2 The Committee is of the opinion that it is not necessary to refer this Bill to the National House of Traditional Leaders in terms of section 18(1)(a) of the Traditional Leadership and Governance Framework Act, 2003 (Act No. 41 of 2003), since it does not contain provisions pertaining to customary law or customs of traditional communities.
