REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

HIGH ALERT: SCAM WARNING!!!

TO ALL SUPPLIERS AND SERVICE PROVIDERS OF THE GOVERNMENT PRINTING WORKS

It has come to the attention of the GOVERNMENT PRINTING WORKS that there are certain unscrupulous companies and individuals who are defrauding unsuspecting businesses disguised as representatives of the Government Printing Works (GPW).

The scam involves the fraudsters using the letterhead of GPW to send out fake tender bids to companies and requests to supply equipment and goods.

Although the contact person's name on the letter may be of an existing official, the contact details on the letter are not the same as the Government Printing Works. When searching on the Internet for the address of the company that has sent the fake tender document, the address does not exist.

The banking details are in a private name and not company name. Government will never ask you to deposit any funds for any business transaction. GPW has alerted the relevant law enforcement authorities to investigate this scam to protect legitimate businesses as well as the name of the organisation.

Example of e-mails these fraudsters are using:

PROCUREMENT@GPW-GOV.ORG

Should you suspect that you are a victim of a scam, you must urgently contact the police and inform the GPW.

GPW has an official email with the domain as @gpw.gov.za

Government e-mails DO NOT have org in their e-mail addresses. All of these fraudsters also use the same or very similar telephone numbers. Although such number with an area code 012 looks like a landline, it is not fixed to any property.

GPW will never send you an e-mail asking you to supply equipment and goods without a purchase/order number. GPW does not procure goods for another level of Government. The organisation will not be liable for actions that result in companies or individuals being resultant victims of such a scam.

Government Printing Works gives businesses the opportunity to supply goods and services through RFQ / Tendering process. In order to be eligible to bid to provide goods and services, suppliers must be registered on the National Treasury's Central Supplier Database (CSD). To be registered, they must meet all current legislative requirements (e.g. have a valid tax clearance certificate and be in good standing with the South African Revenue Services - SARS).

The tender process is managed through the Supply Chain Management (SCM) system of the department. SCM is highly regulated to minimise the risk of fraud, and to meet objectives which include value for money, open and effective competition, equitability, accountability, fair dealing, transparency and an ethical approach. Relevant legislation, regulations, policies, guidelines and instructions can be found on the tender's website.

Fake Tenders

National Treasury's CSD has launched the Government Order Scam campaign to combat fraudulent requests for quotes (RFQs). Such fraudulent requests have resulted in innocent companies losing money. We work hard at preventing and fighting fraud, but criminal activity is always a risk.

How tender scams work

There are many types of tender scams. Here are some of the more frequent scenarios:

Fraudsters use what appears to be government department stationery with fictitious logos and contact details to send a fake RFQ to a company to invite it to urgently supply goods. Shortly after the company has submitted its quote, it receives notification that it has won the tender. The company delivers the goods to someone who poses as an official or at a fake site. The Department has no idea of this transaction made in its name. The company is then never paid and suffers a loss.

OR

Fraudsters use what appears to be government department stationery with fictitious logos and contact details to send a fake RFQ to Company A to invite it to urgently supply goods. Typically, the tender specification is so unique that only Company B (a fictitious company created by the fraudster) can supply the goods in question.

Shortly after Company A has submitted its quote it receives notification that it has won the tender. Company A orders the goods and pays a deposit to the fictitious Company B. Once Company B receives the money, it disappears. Company A's money is stolen in the process.

Protect yourself from being scammed

- If you are registered on the supplier databases and you receive a request to tender or quote that seems to be from a government department, contact the department to confirm that the request is legitimate. Do not use the contact details on the tender document as these might be fraudulent.
- Compare tender details with those that appear in the Tender Bulletin, available online at www.gpwonline.co.za
- Make sure you familiarise yourself with how government procures goods and services. Visit the tender website for more information on how to tender.
- If you are uncomfortable about the request received, consider visiting the government department and/or the place of delivery and/or the service provider from whom you will be sourcing the goods.
- In the unlikely event that you are asked for a deposit to make a bid, contact the SCM unit of the department in question to ask whether this is in fact correct.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE AND CONSTITUTIONAL DEVELOPMENT

NO. 1975

1 April 2022

EXTRADITION ACT, 1962 (ACT NO. 67 OF 1962)EXTRADITION TREATY BETWEEN THE REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA
AND THE UNITED ARAB EMIRATES

I, Ronald Lamola, Minister of Justice and Correctional Services, hereby give notice in terms of section 2(3) ter of the Extradition Act, 1962 (Act No. 67 of 1962), that the Parliament of the Republic of South Africa has on 27 November 2018 agreed to the ratification of the Extradition Treaty between the Republic of South Africa and the United Arab Emirates as set out in the Schedule. The said Treaty entered into force on 10 July 2021.

Mr R.O Lamola, MP

Minister of Justice and Correctional Services

SCHEDULE
EXTRADITION TREATY BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT
OF THE REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA
AND
THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED ARAB EMIRATES
AND

Preamble

THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA and THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED ARAB EMIRATES, hereinafter referred to as “the Parties”.

Recalling the friendly relations that exist between the two countries;

Desirous of strengthening and reinforcing cooperation between the two countries in combating crime; and

Deeply concerned about the magnitude of and rising trend in acts of international terrorism and organized crime.

HAVE AGREED as follows

Article 1

Obligation to Extradite

The Parties agree to extradite to each other, pursuant to the provisions of this Treaty and subject to their respective domestic laws relating to extradition, persons whom the authorities in the Requesting State have charged with or convicted of an extraditable offence.

Article 2

The Central Authorities

1. The Central Authority of each Party shall make and receive requests pursuant to this Treaty:
 - a) for the Government of The Republic of South Africa the Central Authority shall be the Director General of the Department of Justice and Constitutional Development.

- b) for the Government of the State of the United Arab Emirates the Central Authority shall be the Ministry of Justice; and
2. The Central Authorities shall communicate with one another through diplomatic channels for the purpose of this Treaty.

Article 3

Extraditable Offence

1. Extradition shall be granted under this Treaty if:
- a) the conduct, according to the laws of both Parties, constitutes an offence punishable pursuant to the laws of both Parties for deprivation of liberty for a period of at least one year or by more severe penalty; or
 - b) the request for extradition relates to a person convicted of an offence referred to in paragraph (a) of this Article who is sought for the enforcement of a sentence, and a period of at least six months of such penalty remains to be served.
2. An offence shall also be an extraditable offence if it consists of attempting, conspiring to commit or aiding, abetting, inducing, or procuring the commission of, or being an accessory before or after the fact to any offence set out in paragraph 1 of this Article.
3. For the purposes of this Article, an offence shall be an extraditable offence whether or not the laws of the Parties place the offence within the same category of offences or describe such offence by the same terminology.
4. If the extradition of a person is sought for an offence against a law relating to taxation, customs duties, exchange control or any other revenue matter, extradition may be granted despite the fact that the laws of the Requested Party do not impose the same kind of taxes or duties as imposed under the laws of the Requesting Party.
5. If the request for extradition includes several separate offences each of which is punishable under the laws of both Parties, but some of which do not fulfill the other conditions set out in paragraph 1 of this Article, the Requested Party may grant extradition for the latter offences provided that the person is to be extradited for at least one extraditable offence.

6. If the legal characterization of the offence for which a person has been extradited is modified during the criminal proceedings against such person, that person may not be proceeded against unless the elements constituting the offence would have allowed extradition according to their modified characterization.

Article 4

Mandatory Refusal of Extradition

1. Extradition shall not be granted in any of the following circumstances:
 - a) if the offence for which extradition is requested is considered by the Requested Party as an offence of a political nature. In the application of the provisions of this Treaty the following offences shall not be considered as an offence of a political nature:
 - i) attempted assault, assault, attempted murder and murder against the President of the State or Deputy President or Head of the Government or any member of their families, or any member of the Supreme Council of the State of the United Arab Emirates or any member of their families; or
 - ii) any offence relating to terrorism; or
 - iii) any offence within the scope of a multilateral international convention to which both Parties are members and which obligates the Parties to extradite the person sought or submit the case to its competent authorities for the purposes of prosecution.
 - b) if there are substantial grounds for believing that a request for extradition for an ordinary criminal offence has been made for the purpose of prosecuting or punishing a person on account of that person's race, religion, nationality or political beliefs;

- c) if the offence for which extradition is requested is an offence under military law, which is not an offence under other criminal laws of the Parties;
- d) if the person sought has been finally acquitted or convicted in the Requested Party for the same offence for which extradition is requested and, if convicted, the sentence imposed has been fully enforced or is no longer enforceable; or
- e) if the prosecution or enforcement of the sentence in connection with the offence specified in the request for extradition is barred by lapse of time or for any other reason in accordance with the national law of either Party.

Article 5

Discretionary Refusal of Extradition

1. Extradition may be refused in any of the following circumstances:
 - a) if the courts of the Requested Party have jurisdiction to prosecute the person for the offence for which extradition is requested, and the Requested Party shall prosecute that offence;
 - b) if the offence for which extradition is requested is punishable by death under the law of the Requesting Party, and if in respect of such offence the death penalty is not provided for by the law of the Requested Party, extradition shall be refused unless the Requesting Party gives assurances that the death penalty will not be carried out if it is imposed;
 - c) if the person sought has been finally acquitted or convicted in a third state for the same offence for which extradition is requested and, if convicted, the sentence imposed has been fully enforced or is no longer enforceable; or
 - d) if extradition will lead to humanitarian hardships for the person to be extradited.

2. Extradition may be refused unless the Requesting Party undertakes or gives such assurances as considered sufficient by the Requested Party that the person sought will not be:
 - a. Detained without trial;
 - b. Tortured in any way; or
 - c. Treated or punished in a cruel, inhumane or degrading way.

Article 6

Nationality

1. No Party shall extradite its nationals to the other Party, unless it is permitted by its national laws.
2. If the Requested Party denies extradition of its nationals, it shall submit the case to its competent authority for conducting the appropriate proceedings. The Requesting Party shall send all related documents or evidence to the Requested Party. The Requesting Party shall be notified of any action taken in this respect, upon its request.

Article 7

Temporary and Deferred Extradition

1. If the extradition is granted in the case of a person who is being prosecuted or is serving a sentence in the territory of the Requested Party, the Requested Party may, to the extent permitted by its national laws, temporarily surrender the person sought to the Requesting Party for the purpose of prosecution. The person so surrendered shall be kept in the custody of the Requesting Party and shall be returned to the custody of the Requested Party after the conclusion of the proceedings against that person, in accordance with conditions to be determined by agreement between the Parties.
2. The Requested Party may defer the extradition proceedings against a person who is being prosecuted or serving a sentence in the territory of that Party. The deferment may continue until the prosecution of the person sought has been concluded or until such person has served any sentence imposed.

Article 8

Rule of Specialty

1. A person who has been extradited shall not be prosecuted, sentenced, detained or re-extradited to a third state for any offence committed prior to the surrender other than that for which that person was extradited, nor shall the person's liberty be restricted for any other reason, except in the following cases:
 - a) where the Requested Party consents; or
 - b) where the person, having had an opportunity to leave the Requesting Party has not done so within thirty (30) days of final discharge, or has voluntarily returned to that Party after having left it.

NO. 1977

1 April 2022

COMPETITION COMMISSION SOUTH AFRICA

NOTICE IN TERMS OF SECTION 10(7) OF THE COMPETITION ACT 89 OF 1998, (AS AMENDED): DAY HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION – CONDITIONAL EXEMPTION GRANTED

1. On 10 February 2021, the Day Hospital Association (“DHA”) and its members, hereinafter jointly referred to as (“the Applicants”) filed an application for an exemption (“the Application”) in terms of Section 10(3)(b)(ii) of the Competition Act No 89 of 1998, as amended (“the Competition Act”). The exemption was requested for a period of five (5) years.
2. The DHA is a representative body of independent, registered, and private day hospitals across South Africa. Its’ members currently form part of the National Hospitals Network exemption (“NHN exemption”). The DHA independently submitted the current exemption application to the Commission for the same conduct exempted under the NHN exemption i.e.: (1) Collective Bargaining, (2) Centralised Procurement and (3) Alternative Reimbursement Models. According to the DHA, the reason for this separate application, is that the NHN exemption which permits the NHN to bargain collectively with medical schemes on behalf of its members in relation to tariffs and other matters, is not sufficient for members of the DHA since the business model of a day hospital requires a unique approach.
3. In their Application, the Applicants have relied on the objectives set out in Section 10(3)(b)(ii) of the Competition Act which allows an exemption of agreements and/or practices that promote the effective entry into, participation in or expansion within a market by small and medium businesses, or firms controlled or owned by historically disadvantaged persons.
4. The scope of the application for exemption is in terms of a commercial agreement and/or practices in the industry as they relate to:

Collective Bargaining

- 4.1. According to the DHA, should the exemption be granted, it will be able to negotiate prices with medical schemes enabling its members to collectively implement such prices.

Centralised Procurement

- 4.2. The DHA has submitted that should the exemption be granted, it will be able to engage in centralised procurement through a 'request for proposal' to suppliers for the surgical cost basket in exchange for participation in the preferred provider list.
- 4.3. According to the DHA, suppliers adding value will be instrumental to the success of the DHA. This will ensure the highest standards of goods, at the lowest possible prices and will essentially support its' objective to deliver the highest quality of care, at the most cost-efficient price.

Alternative Reimbursement Models

- 4.4. The DHA is of the view that alternative reimbursement model ("ARM"), which is a form of payment restructuring that incorporates quality and total cost of care into reimbursement rather than a traditional fee-for-service structure, could pertain to a specific clinical condition, a care episode, or a population group. If allowed, the DHA will also be able to engage in global fee negotiations with medical schemes and the state.
5. The exemption application was brought in terms of section 10(1) in conjunction with sub-sections 10(2) and 10(3) of the Competition Act. Section 10(1) of the Competition Act allows a firm to apply to the Commission to exempt an agreement, a practice and a category of agreements from the provisions of Chapter 2 of the Competition Act. The DHA relied on the objective set out in Section 10(3)(b)(ii) of the Competition Act, which allows an exemption of agreements and/or practices that promote the effective entry into, participation in or expansion within a market by small and medium businesses or firms controlled or owned by historically disadvantaged persons.

6. The Commission's investigation revealed that:
- 6.1. the conduct of DHA's members would result in a contravention of Section 4 of the Competition Act, as the application relates to information exchange agreements and/or practices between parties in a horizontal relationship;
- 6.2. the sought conduct will contribute to "the promotion of the effective entry into, participation in or expansion within a market by small and medium businesses or firms controlled or owned by historically disadvantaged persons" within the private healthcare sector.
7. After consideration of the exemption application, the Commission has decided to grant DHA a conditional exemption for a period of 5 years (five) years, commencing from 1 June 2022. The DHA will use the period between the approval date and 31 May 2022 to set up infrastructure, operations, and strategy required to implement the conduct exempted by the Commission. The exemption will be subject to monitoring mechanisms which the Commission has put in place to ensure that the objectives set out in the application are met by the exemption. The Conditions and Monitoring Mechanisms are attached below as Error! Reference source not found.
8. Notice is hereby given in terms of Section 10(7) of the Competition Act regarding the Commission's decision to grant this exemption. The Applicants and any other person with a substantial material interest affected by this decision may lodge an appeal to the Competition Tribunal in the prescribed manner in terms of Section 10(8) of the Competition Act. B. BACKGROUND NOTE

The following background information is hereby furnished in order to assist interested parties to comment on the new version of the Regulations.

- 2.1 The first set of Regulations came into operation on 07 November 2014 (Government Notice No. R. 852 of 3 November 2014). The purpose of the Regulations was to provide for financial assistance to declared TRC victims and their relatives and dependants in respect of the following categories: Adult education and training; further education and training; higher education; and skills development.
- 2.2 The Regulations have since been amended on four occasions. The first amendments, which extended the forms of assistance, were published in Government Notice No. R. 691 of 18 July 2017. The second amendments, which provide for uncapped amounts to be paid to students in respect of tuition fees and financial assistance to students with disabilities in respect of assistive devices and human support, were published in Government Notice No. R. 1373 of 14 December 2018. The third amendments, which, among others, extended the period of application of the Regulations for one year (which would have ended early in November 2020), were published in Government Notice No. R. 1286 of 4 October 2019. The fourth amendments, which, among others, extended the period of application of the Regulations for one more year (which ended in November 2021), and to deal with the impact of Covid-19 on the Regulations, were published in Government Notice No. R. 1194 of 6 November 2020.
- 2.3 The period of application of the Regulations was limited to five years for the following reasons:
 - (a) To ascertain whether there is after the five year period still money in the President's Fund (the Fund), established in terms of section 42 of the Promotion of National Unity and Reconciliation Act, 1995, that may be used for education assistance for victims; and
 - (b) if there is still money available for education assistance, to identify and address problems experienced in practice in the application of the Regulations.
(This process is referred to as the review process.)
- 2.4 During the review process, certain challenges and areas of improvement were identified by the TRC declared victims, the TRC Unit, the Department of Higher Education and Training (the DHET) and the National Student Financial Aid Scheme (the NSFAS), regarding the Regulations.

- 2.5 The Regulations expired in the beginning of November 2021. The Department intended to have the new version of the Regulations ready to be promulgated in November 2021. However, due to certain circumstances these regulations could not be ready in time for promulgation. Therefore, a set of interim regulations were prepared and published in Government Notice No. R. R1814 of Government Gazette No. 45997 on 04 March 2022. These regulations will apply for the 2022 academic year only.
- 2.6 The new version of the Regulations, in respect of which the Department has invited comments on, retains various provisions of the previous set of regulations and also includes certain amendments, amongst others, which seek to—
- (a) expand the forms of assistance that may be provided to students;
 - (b) simplify the application process of students as well as the payment process to students;
 - (c) align (to the extent that it is necessary and appropriate) some of the provisions of the regulations with the existing policies, practices and systems of the functionaries which are involved in the application process; and
 - (d) ensure that government is getting more value for money spent on the students.
- 2.7 It is intended that the new version of the Regulations will apply for a period of eight (8) years, starting at the beginning of the 2023 academic year. The last intake of new students for assistance in terms of the Regulations will be in 2023.
- 2.8 The assistance provided for in the Regulations will be paid from the President's Fund, established in terms of section 42 of the Act, which is responsible for the payment of reparation to victims and their relatives and dependants.
