GAZETTE PUBLICATION
STATE OF EMERGENCY (SPECIFIED AREA) PROCLAMATION, 2003

WHEREAS the President is aware that the situation that exists in the area specified in the Schedule to this Proclamation renders necessary the taking of measures which are required for securing public safety and the maintenance of public order in the specified area:

NOW THEREFORE in exercise of the powers conferred on the President under clause (1) of article 31 of the Constitution and section 1 of the Emergency Powers Act 1994 (Act 472) and acting in accordance with the advice of the Council of State it is hereby declared that a state of emergency exists in the part of Ghana specified in the Schedule to this Proclamation.

Unless Parliament by a resolution of the majority of the members rejects this declaration, this Proclamation shall continue in force until the expiration of a period of three months beginning with the date of its being approved by Parliament or until such earlier date as may be specified in the resolution.

It is hereby declared that during the period when the state of emergency is in force the President shall cause to be taken such measures that are reasonably justifiable for dealing with the situation that exists.
