1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1. The purpose of these Guidelines is to guide investment of pension funds pursuant to the provisions of the National Pensions Act, 2008 (Act 766) as amended, and Occupational and Personal Pension Schemes (General) Regulations, 2011 (L.I. 1990). These Guidelines shall apply to all pension funds.
- 1.2. In developing these Guidelines, the National Pensions Regulatory Authority (NPRO) has provided minimum standards aimed at achieving the following objectives:
 - a) ensure safety of assets and fair returns on the funds;
 - b) give contributors a range of investment options;
 - c) enhance the ability of trustees and fund managers to make sound investment decisions; and
 - d) create an environment that enables pension funds to impact positively on the Ghanaian economy.
- 1.3. These Guidelines are not intended to be all encompassing and shall be used with reference to the Act, the Regulations accompanying the Act, and other directives as may be issued by the NPRO.
- 1.4. Trustees, fund managers and relevant service providers shall at all times comply with governance principles and any other Guidelines approved by the NPRO from time to time.

2. LIMITATIONS AND PROHIBITIONS

- 2.1. Trustees and fund managers shall not violate the provisions in this section. They shall not:
 - a) breach the provisions under Sections 178 and 179 of the Act;
 - b) make any investment of pension funds that will result in the trustee, pension fund manager or scheme gaining management control of a company in which the investment has been made;
 - c) acquire any securities which are unpaid or partly-paid for except for purposes of entering into a Private Equity arrangement within the meaning of these Guidelines; and
 - d) enter into underwriting or sub-underwriting contracts in relation to the subscription or purchase of any investment, except for secondary offerings under arrangement(s) that require multiple underwriters.

- e) Invest more than 5 percent of the pension funds in securities in any country other than Ghana. Such investment outside Ghana shall comply with Section 177 of the Act.

3. SPREAD OF INVESTMENTS

- 3.1. The total amount invested in securities and other permissible investments (excluding an investment permitted under Section 5.6 of these Guidelines) issued by any one person shall not exceed 10 per cent of the pension fund.
- 3.2. Not more than 10 per cent of the shares of a particular class, or the total amount of corporate debt securities, issued by one person may be acquired for the purposes of a pension fund.

4. PURCHASE OF SECURITIES THAT CARRY UNLIMITED LIABILITY

- 4.1. A trustee shall not invest pension funds in securities that carry unlimited liability.

5. PERMISSIBLE INVESTMENTS

- 5.1. Pension funds may be invested in:-

- a) investments that satisfy the requirements of sub sections 5.2 to 5.6 of these Guidelines;
- b) Collective Investment Schemes that satisfy the requirements of Section 6 of these Guidelines; and
- c) Alternative Investments that satisfy the requirements of Section 7 of these Guidelines.

5.2. Government of Ghana Securities

- 5.2.1. Pension funds may be invested in Government of Ghana securities.
- 5.2.2. Government of Ghana securities shall include:
 - a) Treasury Bills;
 - b) Treasury Notes;

- c) Treasury Bonds (Including Infrastructure Bonds and Eurobonds); and
 - d) Any other securities issued by the Government from time to time.
- 5.2.3. Allocation for Government of Ghana securities shall have a balance between long term and short term securities. A minimum of 35% of a Scheme's investments in Government of Ghana Securities shall be invested in long-term securities.
- 5.2.4. For the purposes of this section, long term Government of Ghana Securities are securities with maturity of two (2) years or more at the time of purchase.

5.3. Local Government and Statutory Agency Securities

Pension funds may be invested in Local Government and Statutory Agency securities.

- 5.3.1. Local Government and Statutory Agency securities shall include:
