PROCEDURE FOR ADVERTISING IN THE GOVERNMENT GAZETTE OF THE REPUBLIC OF NAMIBIA

1. The Government Gazette (Estates) containing advertisements, is published on every Friday. If a Friday falls on a Public Holiday, this Government Gazette is published on the preceding Thursday.

2. Advertisements for publication in the Government Gazette (Estates) must be addressed to the Government Gazette office, Private Bag 13302, Windhoek, or be delivered at Justitia Building, Independence Avenue, Second Floor, Room 219, Windhoek, not later than 12h00 on the ninth working day before the date of publication of this Government Gazette in which the advertisement is to be inserted.

3. Advertisements are published in this Government Gazette for the benefit of the public and must be furnished in English by the advertiser or his agent.

4. Only legal advertisements shall be accepted for publication in the Government Gazette (Advertisements) and are subject to the approval of the Executive Director, Ministry of Justice, who may refuse the acceptance of further publication of any advertisement.

5. The Ministry of Justice reserves the right to edit and revise copy and to delete there from any superfluous detail.

6. Advertisements must as far as possible be typewritten. The manuscript of advertisements must be written on one side of the paper only and all proper nouns plainly inscribed. In the event of any name being incorrectly printed as a result of indistinct writing, the advertisement can only be reprinted on payment of the cost of another insertion.

7. No liability is accepted for any delay in the publication of advertisements/notices, or for the publication of such on any date other than that stipulated by the advertiser. Similarly no liability is accepted in respect of any editing, revision, omission, typographical errors or errors resulting from faint or indistinct copy.

8. The advertiser will be held liable for all compensation and costs arising from any action which may be instituted against the Government of Namibia as a result of the publication of a notice with or without any omission, errors, lack of clarity or in any form whatsoever.

9. The subscription for the Government Gazette is N$5,141-00 including VAT per annum, obtainable from Solitaire Press (Pty) Ltd., corner of Bonsmara and Brahman Streets, Northern Industrial Area, P.O. Box 1155, Windhoek. Postage must be prepaid by all subscribers. Single copies of the Government Gazette are obtainable from Solitaire Press (Pty) Ltd., at the same address, at the price as printed on copy. Copies are kept in stock for two years only.

10. The charge for the insertion of notices is as follows and payments can be made via electronic fund transfer (EFT) or cash payments at the Magistrates' Office, Windhoek.

IMPORTANT - DO NOT IGNORE THIS DOCUMENT

Upon receipt of this notice you should obtain legal advice to help you understand this document and your rights and obligations under the preservation of property order.

WHY YOU HAVE RECEIVED THIS NOTICE

The High Court has made a preservation of property order over property pursuant to section 51 of the Prevention of Organised Crime Act 2004. A copy of the preservation of property order, as well as the preservation of property application, is attached to this notice. The order describes the properties that has been preserved and may contain directions relating to the seizure of those properties, it may also contain other orders that the court considers appropriate.

You have received this notice because the Prosecutor-General considers that you might have an interest in the properties which are the subject of the preservation order.

The preservation of property order has been made for the purpose of securing the property in order to satisfy any forfeiture order that might be pursuant to Part 3 of Chapter 6 of the Prevention of Organised Crime Act 2004.

WARNING

The preservation of property order prohibits any person from dealing, in any manner, with the property to which the order relates. A person who intentionally refuses or fails to comply with a court order made under this Act commits an offence punishable by a fine not exceeding N$ 300,000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 15 years.

7. The positive balance in First National Bank account number 62275675167 held in the name of Erastus G. Heita.
8. The positive balance in Nampost Limited account number 911824805588 held in the name of Erastus G. Heita,

Take notice that:

1. The Prosecutor General has obtained a preservation of properties order (the order), a copy of which is attached to this notice, in terms of section 51 of POCA in respect of the properties.
2. If you have an interest in the properties, you should understand that it is now at risk. You are advised to obtain legal advice on whether your interest can be protected and, if so, on how to protect it;
3. You are notified that the Prosecutor General will, within 120 days of publication of this notice in the Government Gazette, apply to the High Court under section 59 of POCA for an order declaring the properties forfeited to the State. The order will remain in force until the application for a forfeiture order is finalised, and until any forfeiture order that has been made is satisfied;
4. If you intend to oppose the application for a forfeiture order, or you intend to apply for an order excluding your interest from a forfeiture order in respect of the properties, you must enter an appearance in terms of the order. The requirements for such an appearance are set out in the order and are also dealt with in sections 52 (3), (4) and (5) of POCA. An appearance must comply with these requirements;
5. Your attention is specifically drawn to the 21 calendar days' time limit prescribed in section 52 (4) for the entry of an appearance referred to in paragraph 4 above;

6. If you enter an appearance in terms of the order you will be entitled to be given 21 days' notice of the application by the applicant for a forfeiture order in respect of the properties;
7. If you fail to enter an appearance in terms of the order or to comply with the above requirements, you will not be given notice of the application for a forfeiture order and you will not be entitled to appear at the hearing of the application. In such a case, the court may grant a default order forfeiting the properties to the State under section 64 of POCA;
8. You may, on good cause shown apply for variation or rescission of the order in terms of section 58 of POCA and or apply for legal and living expenses in terms of section 57 of POCA.
9. You are specifically advised that even if you intend to apply for reconsideration of the preservation order in this case, you must, in addition, comply with paragraph 4 and 5 above if you intend to oppose the forfeiture application at a later date. Failure to do so can result in a forfeiture order being granted against the properties by default and without further notice to you.

IMPORTANT - DO NOT IGNORE THIS DOCUMENT

Upon receipt of this notice you should obtain legal advice to help you understand this document and your rights and obligations under the preservation of property order.

WHY YOU HAVE RECEIVED THIS NOTICE

The High Court has made a preservation of property order over property pursuant to section 51 of the Prevention of Organised Crime Act 2004. A copy of the preservation of property order, as well as the preservation of property application, is attached to this notice. The order describes the property that has been preserved and may contain directions relating to the seizure of that property. It may also contain other orders that the court considers appropriate.

You have received this notice because the Prosecutor-General considers that you might have an interest in the property which are the subject of the preservation order.

The preservation of property order has been made for the purpose of securing the property in order to satisfy any forfeiture order that might be pursuant to Part 3 of Chapter 6 of the Prevention of Organised Crime Act 2004.

WARNING

The preservation of property order prohibits any person from dealing, in any manner, with the property to which the order relates. A person who intentionally refuses or fails to comply with a court order made under this Act commits an offence punishable by a fine not exceeding N$ 300,000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 15 years.

CASE NUMBER: HC-MD-CIV-MOT-POCA-2021/00436

In the ex parte application of:

THE PROSECUTOR-GENERAL Applicant

IN RE: A Mercedes-Benz C200 with licence number N93719W, engine number 11195532101900 and chassis number WD-C2030452R010160, held under the criminal case number Rundu CR 8/9/2016 in Pol 02/09/2016.

IN THE APPLICATION FOR A PRESERVATION OF PROPERTY ORDER IN TERMS OF SECTION 51 OF
THE PREVENTION OF ORGANISED CRIME ACT 29
OF 2004

Notice in terms of section 52 of the Prevention of Organised Crime Act 29 of 2004 (POCA)

This notice is addressed to all persons who might have an interest in a Mercedes-Benz C200 with licence number N93719W, engine number 11195532101900 and chassis number WDC2030452R010160, held under the criminal case number Rundu CR 8/9/2016 in Pol 02/09/2016, registered in the name of Mirijam Nghituvali Nadula Nakutwima, herein referred to as “the property”.

Take notice that:

1. The Prosecutor - General has obtained a preservation of property order (the order), a copy of which is attached to this notice, in terms of section 51 of POCA in respect of the property.
2. If you have an interest in the property, you should understand that it is now at risk. You are advised to obtain legal advice on whether your interest can be protected and, if so, on how to protect it;
3. You are notified that the Prosecutor - General will, within 120 days of publication of this notice in the Government Gazette, apply to the High Court under section 59 of POCA for an order declaring the property forfeited to the State. The order will remain in force until the application for a forfeiture order is finalised, and until any forfeiture order that has been made is satisfied;
4. If you intend to oppose the application for a forfeiture order, or you intend to apply for an order excluding your interest from a forfeiture order in respect of the property, you must enter an appearance in terms of the order. The requirements for such an appearance are set out in the order and are also dealt with in sections 52 (3), (4) and (5) of POCA. An appearance must comply with these requirements;
5. Your attention is specifically drawn to the 21 calendar days' time limit prescribed in section 52 (4) for the entry of an appearance referred to in paragraph 4 above;
6. If you enter an appearance in terms of the order you will be entitled to be given 21 days' notice of the application by the applicant for a forfeiture order in respect of the property;
7. If you fail to enter an appearance in terms of the order or to comply with the above requirements, you will not be given notice of the application for a forfeiture order and you will not be entitled to appear at the hearing of the application. In such a case, the court may grant a default order forfeiting the property to the State under section 64 of POCA;
8. You may, on good cause shown apply for variation or rescission of the order in terms of section 58 of POCA and or apply for legal and living expenses in terms of section 57 of POCA.
9. You are specifically advised that even if you intend to apply for reconsideration of the preservation order in this case, you must, in addition, comply with paragraph 4 and 5 above if you intend to oppose the forfeiture application at a later date. Failure to do so can result in a forfeiture order being granted against the property by default and without further notice to you.
10. Whenever this order states that you must deliver or serve any notice, affidavit or other process document on the applicant, you must deliver or serve them on the applicant at the following address:
