This Bill seeks to amend the Rent Restriction Act (Cap 183), and to change its title to the Rent Control (Lagos) Act. It provides for the setting up of rent control tribunals, each with its own area of operation in the Federal territory, and for representation thereon of both landlords and tenants. Tribunals are to be empowered under the Bill to review and fix rents; and in so far as it is effective this will operate as a check on arbitrary increases. Tenants in the lower income groups should therefore enjoy more fully any review of salaries and wages made so as to raise their standard of living.

Provisions is also made among other things in the Bill for the Minister in proper case to de-control premises.

BE IT ENACTED by the Legislature of the Federation of Nigeria in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1.—(1) Subject to the following provisions of this section,—

(a) the rent at which premises were let on 1st October nineteen hundred and sixty (in this Act hereafter referred to as "the material date") shall be the standard rent, and where the premises were not let on that date the rent at which they were last let before that date shall be the standard rent therefor; and

(b) if the first letting of premises is after the material date, the standard rent shall be the rent agreed to be paid at such first letting.

(2) In the case of premises let at the material date at a progressive rent payable under a tenancy agreement the maximum rent payable under such tenancy agreement shall be the standard rent, anything in this section to the contrary notwithstanding.

(3) In determining whether premises are separately let, the nature of the property or part thereof at the time of the creation of the tenancy relation to which the question arises, and the purpose for which the premises were let under the tenancy shall be deemed to have been the same as the purpose for which they are or were used at the last-mentioned time.

(4) "Premises" for the purposes of this section, and where used elsewhere in this Act or any enactment amended by this Act unless the context otherwise requires, means a building of any description occupied or used by persons for living or sleeping or other lawful purposes, as the case may be, whether or not at any time it is also occupied or used under any tenancy as a shop or a store, and the expression includes any room or other part of a building of not less than one hundred square feet of floor space separately let or sublet as the case may be, for any such purpose.

(5) Section 3 of the Rent Restriction Act (hereafter as in section 8 of this Act short-titled, and in this Act referred to as the "principal Act") is hereby repealed.

2.—(1) There shall be such number of tribunals to be called the Lagos Rent Tribunals (in this Act hereafter referred to as "the tribunals") to be distinguished by reference to the area of operation, and constituted in accordance with Schedule 1 of this Act; and the provisions of that schedule shall apply to any such tribunal.

(2) A tribunal shall have jurisdiction on application made for the purpose by the landlord or the tenant to determine in respect of premises (whether or not let furnished), any question as to the rent limit or the rent properly payable (in this Act hereafter referred to as "the standard rent") or as to any matter which is or may become material for determining any such question, if the rent claimed in respect of premises or, as the case may be, any particular part thereof, is not more than five hundred pounds per annum; and for such purposes the tribunal may review the rental prescribed in any lease or tenancy agreement in writing.

(3) The tribunal may, on the application of any party interested or of its own motion, sit with assessors in any case where the tribunal is satisfied that it is in the interest of justice so to do; and for such purpose the Minister shall cause to be prepared and maintained a panel of fit persons experienced in land values and rentals properly payable in Lagos. Assessors shall be paid attendance fees at such rate as the Minister after consultation with the Minister of the Federation charged with responsibility for finance may approve, and any such panel may at any time be amended, varied or replaced as the Minister thinks necessary.

(d) the forms and records (other than those made pursuant to rules of the High Court under section 20 of the principal Act) to be used or kept by a tribunal, or as record of payment under any tenancy agreement,
(e) the fees to be paid on applications under this Act, and
(f) generally for matters coming before a tribunal.
(7) Minutes of proceedings and a summary of oral evidence given before a tribunal shall be kept by the chairman; and notices, summonses, or orders issued or made under the hand of the chairman shall be deemed to have been issued or made by the tribunal.

(8) The chairman may in his discretion exclude members of the public; and where the rent claimed does not exceed fifty-two pounds per annum he may require the parties to attend in person and present their respective cases, anything to the contrary in any other enactment allowing representation notwithstanding.

3.—(1) A tribunal on application made to it in the prescribed manner by a landlord or a tenant as the case may be, may fix the standard rent for any premises let on or after the material date where the rent charged at the date of the commencement of this Act does not exceed five hundred pounds per annum; and subject to the provisions of this Act and of the principal Act, where an order is made by a tribunal fixing the standard rent in respect of premises, any amount in money or money's worth in excess of the standard rent—

(a) shall not be demanded or be received by the landlord; or
(b) shall not be tendered or paid by a tenant;

and the excess shall, subject to the next succeeding subsection, be computed and be refunded at the suit of the party aggrieved as the tribunal hearing the case may direct or require.

(2) Where in respect of premises let on or after the material date application is made to a tribunal to review the standard rent, the tribunal may relate the standard rent to the locality where the premises are situated, and for such purpose may prescribe units of occupation by a tenant in respect of premises in no case less than one hundred square feet of floor space with or without dividing walls or partitions; and the standard rent shall be adjusted as to the locality and the number of units of occupation accordingly, so however that where premises—

(a) are let furnished the tribunal may fix in respect of a unit of occupation the standard of furniture requisite and necessary according to the locality and the class or general standard of living of a tenant,

(b) are let unfurnished each unit of occupation shall be reasonably suitable for the use or the declared intended use by the tenant.

(3) It is hereby declared for the avoidance of doubt that in the application of subsection (1) of this section and of section 7 of the principal Act (which authorises the deduction of moneys overpaid in certain cases) any amount overpaid shall, notwithstanding the provisions of any enactment or rule of law to the contrary, in any case after the passing of this Act, be irrecoverable—

(a) in respect of moneys for any period in excess of three years paid before the date of the last overpayment under the provisions of any deed; and

(b) in respect of moneys for any period in excess of twelve months paid before the date of the last overpayment in any other case, and if any amount involved is thereafter deducted, it shall not be allowed as a set-off in favour of the tenant or sub-tenant liable in respect of the premises.
(4) Every order of a tribunal fixing the standard rent of premises shall be signed by the chairman and be issued under the seal of the tribunal, and when so signed and issued shall have effect for a period of three years from the date of the order or the date of determination of any appeal, as the case may be, as if it were an order of a magistrates' court and may be enforced accordingly. Any such order unless sooner revoked, shall bind all persons including any landlord, tenant, subtenant, or mortgagee as such of the premises at any time during the currency of the order.

(5) When determining the standard rent for particular premises, the tribunal hearing the application shall take into consideration any repairs made or agreed to be made by the landlord or, as the case may be by the tenant, at the date of the application to fix the standard rent; and any repairs shall, for such purpose, be deemed to have been made at the material date, and the standard rent shall be adjusted according as to whether they were made by the landlord or by the tenant.

(6) For the purposes of this section—
(a) "repairs" means anything reasonably necessary to be done to put in order for, or keep premises fit for human habitation, and includes structural alterations of any description; and
(b) any such repairs shall be made by the landlord if the tenant is under no liability, express or implied, to make them.

(7) Section 11 of the principal Act is hereby repealed.

4.—(1) Any person aggrieved by a decision of a tribunal determining the standard rent may appeal to a magistrates' court presided over by a chief magistrate. The chief magistrate shall have jurisdiction to hear the case notwithstanding any issue raised as to title where the standard rent determined by a tribunal in the case on appeal is less than fifty-two pounds per annum.

(2) An appeal shall be heard as nearly as may be as if it were an appeal by way of case stated in the High Court, and may be determined accordingly; but no appeal as of right shall thereafter lie in respect of premises where the standard rent as fixed by the tribunal is less than fifty-two pounds per annum.

5.—(1) The Minister may by order direct that the provisions of the principal Act as amended by this Act shall cease to apply to premises described by class or otherwise howsoever in the order, and such premises shall be decontrolled accordingly.

(2) Section 16 of the principal Act is hereby repealed.

6.—(1) Premises containing less than one hundred square feet of floor space shall not be let as any part of a dwelling-house without the consent in writing of the Minister.

7.—The provisions of the Adaptation of Laws (Miscellaneous Provisions) Order 1964 in so far as they relate to the Rent Restriction Act shall be deemed never to have been made, and accordingly and to that extent, such order is hereby revoked.
8.—(1) The Act short-titled the Rent Restriction Act shall be amended to and may hereafter be cited as the Rent Control (Lagos) Act (in this section and elsewhere in this Act referred to as “the principal Act”) and,—

(a) there shall be substituted for the words “certain areas” in the long title of the principal Act the word “Lagos”; and

(b) in section 1,

(ii) subsection (2) and (3) shall be repealed, and

(iii) subsection (4) shall be re-numbered as subsection (2), and shall be amended by the substitution therein for the words “A governor in Council” of the words “The Minister”.

(2) The principal Act is further amended to the extent set out in Schedule 2 of this Act.

9. Any order made under the provisions of any enactment hereby repealed and in force on the commencement of this Act shall, unless inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, continue in force and have effect as if made under and for purposes of this Act.

10.—(1) In this Act unless the context otherwise requires—

“the Minister” means the Minister of the Government of the Federation charged with responsibility for rent control;

“prescribed” means prescribed by this Act or by regulations made for the purpose of this Act;
