CRIMINAL PROCEDURE AMENDMENT ACT, 1987

ACT No. 4 OF 1987

CRIMINAL PROCEDURE AMENDMENT ACT, 1987

ACT

To amend the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977.

(English text signed by the President. Assented to on 10 September 1987).

BE IT ENACTED by the National Assembly of the Republic of Ciskei, as follows:-

1. Amendment of section 23 of Act 51 of 1977. - Section 23 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act) is hereby amended by the addition of the following subsection, the existing section becoming subsection (1):

“(2) On the arrest of any person, the person making the arrest may place in safe custody any object found on the person arrested and which may be used to cause bodily harm to himself or others.”

2. Amendment of section 41 of Act 51 of 1977. - Section 41 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (2) of the following subsection:

“(2) Any person who, when called upon under the provisions of subsection (1) to furnish his name and address, fails to do so or furnishes a false or incorrect name and address, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding R300 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months.”

3. Amendment of section 47 of Act 51 of 1977. - Section 47 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (2) of the following subsection:

“(2) Any person who, without sufficient cause, fails to assist a police official as provided in subsection (1), shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding R300 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months.”

4. Amendment of section 55 of Act 51 of 1977, as amended by section 5 of Act 30 of 1984. - Section 55 of the principal Act is hereby amended —

(a) by the substitution in subsection (2) for the words preceding the proviso of the following words:

“(2) The court may, if satisfied from the return of service referred to in paragraph (b) of section 54(2) that the summons was served on the accused in terms of paragraph (a) of that section and that the accused has failed to appear at the place and on the date and at the time specified in the summons, or if satisfied that the accused has failed to remain in attendance at the proceedings in question, issue a warrant for his arrest and, when he is brought before the court, in a summary manner enquire into his failure so to appear or so to remain in attendance and unless the accused satisfies the court that his failure was not due to any fault on his part, convict him of the offence referred to in subsection (1) and sentence him to a fine not exceeding R300 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months.”;

(b) by the insertion after subsection (2) of the following subsection:

“(2A) If the court issues a warrant of arrest in terms of subsection (2) in respect of a summons which is endorsed in accordance with section 57(1)(a), an endorsement to the same effect shall be made on the warrant in question.”; and

(c) by the substitution for paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of the following paragraph:

“(a) If, in any case in which a warrant of arrest is issued, it was permissible for the accused in terms of section 57 to admit his guilt in respect of the summons on which he failed to appear and to pay a fine in respect thereof without appearing in court, and the accused is arrested under such warrant in the area of jurisdiction of a magistrate's court other than the magistrate's court which issued the warrant of arrest, such other magistrate's court may, notwithstanding any provision of this Act or any other law to the contrary, and if satisfied that the accused has, since the date on which he failed to appear on the summons in question, admitted his guilt in respect of that summons and has paid a fine in respect thereof without appearing in court, in a summary manner enquire into his failure to appear on such summons and, unless the accused satisfies the court that his failure was not due to any fault on his part, convict him of the offence referred to in subsection (1) and sentence him to a fine not exceeding R300 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months.”

5. Amendment of section 56 of Act 51 of 1977. - Section 56 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution in subsection (1) for the words preceding paragraph (a) of the following words:

CRIMINAL PROCEDURE AMENDMENT ACT, 1987

"If an accused is alleged to have committed an offence and a peace officer on reasonable grounds believes that a magistrate's court, on convicting such accused of that offence, will not impose a fine exceeding R300, such peace officer may, whether or not the accused is in custody, hand to the accused a written notice which shall —".

6. Amendment of section 57 of Act 51 of 1977. - Section 57 of the principal Act is hereby amended —

(a) by the substitution for paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of the following paragraph:

"(a) a summons is issued against an accused under section 54 (in this section referred to as the summons) and the public prosecutor or the clerk of the court concerned on reasonable grounds believes that a magistrate's court, on convicting the accused of the offence in question, will not impose a fine exceeding R300, and such public prosecutor or the clerk of the court endorses the summons to the effect that the accused may admit his guilt in respect of the offence in question and that he may pay a fine stipulated on the summons in respect of such offence without appearing in court; or";

(b) by the substitution for subsection (3) of the following subsection:

"(3) (a) An admission of guilt fine shall not be accepted in terms of subsection (1) unless —

- (i) the accused surrenders the summons or written notice in question;
- (ii) where such summons or notice is lost or not available and payment takes place at a police station or local authority, the accused surrenders a copy of such summons or written notice;
- (iii) where the accused is in custody under a warrant endorsed in terms of section 55(2A), the clerk of the court is satisfied that the summons is so endorsed.

(b) A copy referred to in paragraph (a)(ii) may be obtained by the accused at the magistrate's court, police station or local authority where the copy of the summons or written notice in question known as the control document is filed.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) an accused who has been arrested under a warrant referred to in paragraph (a)(iii) may pay the admission of guilt fine in question to the clerk of the court where he appears in consequence of his arrest."; and

(c) by the substitution for paragraph (b) of subsection (5) of the following paragraph:

"(b) An admission of guilt fine determined under paragraph (a) shall not exceed the maximum of the fine prescribed in respect of the offence in question or the amount of R300 whichever is the lesser."

7. Amendment of section 72 of Act 51 of 1977, as amended by Act 12 of 1983. - Section 72 of the principal Act is hereby amended —

(a) by the substitution for paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of the following paragraph:

"(a) release the accused from custody and warn him to appear before a specified court at a specified time on a specified date in connection with such offence or, as the case may be, to remain in attendance at the proceedings relating to the offence in question, and the said court may, at the time of such release or at any time thereafter, impose any condition referred to in section 62 in connection with such release;";

(b) by the substitution for paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of the following paragraph:

"(b) in the case of an accused under the age of eighteen years who is released under paragraph (a), place the accused in the care of the person in whose custody he is, and warn such person to bring the accused or cause the accused to be brought before a specified court at a specified time on a specified date and to have the accused remain in attendance at the proceedings relating to the offence in question and if a condition has been imposed in terms of paragraph (a) to see to it that the accused complies with that condition.";

(c) by the substitution for subsection (2) of the following subsection:

"(2) (a) An accused who is released under subsection (1)(a) and who fails to appear or, as the case may be, to remain in attendance at the proceedings in accordance with a warning under that paragraph, or who fails to comply with a condition imposed under subsection (1)(a), shall be guilty of an offence and liable to the punishment prescribed under subsection (4).

(b) Any person in whose custody an accused is placed under subsection (1)(b) and who fails in terms of a warning under that subsection to bring the accused before court or to have the accused remain in attendance, or who fails to see to it that the accused complies with a condition referred to in subsection (1)(a), shall be guilty of an offence and liable to the punishment prescribed under subsection (4).";

(d) by the substitution for paragraph (b) of subsection (3) of the following paragraph:

“(b) A court which releases an accused under subsection (1) shall, at the time of releasing the accused, record or cause the relevant proceedings to be recorded in full, and where such court is a magistrate’s court or a regional court, any document purporting to be an extract from the record of proceedings of that court and purporting to be certified as correct by the clerk of the court and which sets out the warning relating to the court before which, the time at which and the date on which the accused is to appear or the conditions on which he was released, shall, on its mere production in any court in which the relevant charge is pending, be prima facie proof of such warning.”; and

(e) by the substitution for subsection (4) of the following subsection:

“(4) The court may, if satisfied that an accused referred to in subsection (2)(a) or a person referred to in subsection (2)(b), was duly warned in terms of paragraph (a) or, as the case may be, paragraph (b) of subsection (1) and that such accused or such person has failed to comply with such warning or to comply with a condition imposed, issue a warrant for his arrest, and may, when he is brought before the court, in a summary manner enquire into his failure and, unless such accused or such person satisfies the court that his failure was not due to fault on his part, sentence him to a fine not exceeding R300 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months.”.

8. Amendment of section 74 of Act 51 of 1977. - Section 74 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (7) of the following subsection:

“(7) The court, if satisfied from evidence placed before it that a parent or guardian has been warned to attend the proceedings in question and that such parent or guardian has failed to attend such proceedings, or that a parent or guardian has failed to remain in attendance at such proceedings, may issue a warrant for the arrest of such parent or guardian and, when he is brought before the court, in a summary manner enquire into his failure to attend or to remain in attendance, and, unless such parent or guardian satisfies the court that his failure was not due to fault or his part, sentence him to a fine not exceeding R300 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months.”.

9. Amendment of section 75 of Act 51 of 1977 as substituted by section 3 of Act 56 of 1979. - Section 75 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of the following paragraph:

“(c) any other court which has jurisdiction and which has been designated by the attorney-general or any person authorized thereto by the attorney-general, whether in general or in any particular case, for the purpose of such summary trial.”.

10. Amendment of section 77 of Act 51 of 1977. - Section 77 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (6) of the following subsection:

“(6) (a) If the court finds that the accused is not capable of understanding the proceedings so as to make a proper defence, the court shall direct that the accused be detained in a mental hospital or a prison pending the signification of the decision of the President, and if the court so directs after the accused has pleaded to the charge, the accused shall not be entitled under section 106(4) to be acquitted or to be convicted in respect of the charge in question.

(b) If the court makes a finding in terms of paragraph (a) after the accused has been convicted of the offence charged but before sentence is passed, the court shall set the conviction aside and if the accused has pleaded guilty it shall be deemed that he has pleaded not guilty.”.

11. Amendment of section 78 of Act 51 of 1977. - Section 78 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (6) of the following subsection:

“(6) If the court finds that the accused committed the act in question and that he at the time of such commission was by reason of mental illness or mental defect not criminally responsible for such act —

(a) the court shall find the accused not guilty; or

(b) if the court so finds after the accused has been convicted of the offence charged but before sentence is passed, the court shall set the conviction aside and find the accused not guilty, by reason of mental illness or mental defect, as the case may be, and direct that the accused be detained in a mental hospital or a prison pending the signification of the decision of the President.”.

CRIMINAL PROCEDURE AMENDMENT ACT, 1987

12. Amendment of section 112 of Act 51 of 1977. - Section 112 of the principal Act is hereby amended —

(a) by the substitution for paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of the following paragraph:

“(a) the presiding judge may, if he is of the opinion that the offence does not merit the sentence of death, or the presiding judge, regional magistrate or magistrate may, if he is of the opinion that the offence does not merit punishment of imprisonment or any other form of detention without the option of a fine or of a whipping or of a fine exceeding R300, convict the accused in respect of the offence to which he has pleaded guilty on his plea of guilty only and —

- (i) impose any competent sentence, other than the sentence of death or imprisonment or any other form of detention without the option of a fine or a whipping or a fine exceeding R300; or
- (ii) deal with the accused otherwise in accordance with law;” and

(b) by the substitution in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) for the words preceding the proviso of the following words:

“the presiding judge shall, if he is of the opinion that the offence merits the sentence of death, or the presiding judge, regional magistrate or magistrate shall, if he is of the opinion that the offence merits punishment of imprisonment or any other form of detention without the option of a fine or of a whipping or of a fine exceeding R300, or if requested thereto by the prosecutor, question the accused with reference to the alleged facts of the case in order to ascertain whether he admits the allegations in the charge to which he has pleaded guilty, and may, if satisfied that the accused is guilty of the offence to which he has pleaded guilty, convict the accused on his plea of guilty of that offence and impose any competent sentence.”.

13. Amendment of section 145 of Act 51 of 1977, as amended by section 15 of Act 12 of 1983. - Section 145 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the deletion of the proviso to subsection (2).

14. Amendment of section 154 of Act 51 of 1977. - Section 154 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (5) of the following subsection:

“(5) any person who publishes any information in contravention of this section or contrary to any direction or authority under this section or who in any manner whatever reveals the identity of a witness in contravention of a direction under section 153(2), shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding R1 500 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year or to both such fine and such imprisonment.”.

15. Substitution of section 170 of Act 51 of 1977, as amended by section 11 of Act 56 of 1979. - The following section is hereby substituted for section 170 of the principal Act:

“170. Failure of accused to appear after adjournment or to remain in attendance. - (1) An accused at criminal proceedings who is not in custody and who has not been released on bail, and who fails to appear at the place and on the date and at the time to which such proceedings may be adjourned or who fails to remain in attendance at such proceedings as so adjourned, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to the punishment prescribed under subsection (2).

(2) The court may, if satisfied that an accused referred to in subsection (1) has failed to appear at the place and on the date and at the time to which the proceedings in question were adjourned or has failed to remain in attendance at such proceedings as so adjourned, issue a warrant for his arrest and, when he is brought before the court, in a summary manner enquire into his failure so to appear or so to remain in attendance and, unless the accused satisfies the court that his failure was not due to fault on his part, convict him of the offence referred to in subsection (1) and sentence him to a fine not exceeding R300 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months.”.

16. Amendment of section 183 of Act 51 of 1977. - Section 183 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (2) of the following subsection:

“(2) Any person who fails to comply with the provisions of subsection (1), shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding R300 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months.”.

17. Amendment of section 188 of Act 51 of 1977. - Section 188 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (1) of the following subsection:

CRIMINAL PROCEDURE AMENDMENT ACT, 1987

“(1) Any person who is subpoenaed to attend criminal proceedings and who fails to attend or to remain in attendance at such proceedings, and any person who is warned by the court to remain in attendance at criminal proceedings and who fails to remain in attendance at such proceedings, and any person so subpoenaed or so warned who fails to appear at the place and on the date and at the time to which the proceedings in question may be adjourned or who fails to remain in attendance at such proceedings as so adjourned, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to the punishment contemplated in subsection (2).”

18. Amendment of section 250 of Act 5 of 1977. - Section 250 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (3) of the following subsection:

“(3) Any person who is the holder of the necessary authority and who fails without reasonable cause to produce forthwith such authority to the person making the demand under subsection (2) for the production thereof, or who fails without reasonable cause to submit such authority to a person and at a place and within such a reasonable time as the person making the demand may specify, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding R300 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months.”

19. Amendment of section 285 of Act 51 of 1977. - Section 285 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the addition to subsection (2) of the following paragraph, the existing subsection becoming paragraph (a):

“(b) The court which tries any person on a charge of contravening subsection (4)(a) shall, subject to subsection (5), cause a notice as contemplated in paragraph (a) to be served on that person.”

20. Amendment of section 292 of Act 51 of 1977. - Section 292 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (1) of the following subsection:

“(1) When a court may sentence a person to a whipping, the whipping may be imposed in addition to or in substitution of any other punishment to which such person may otherwise be sentenced: Provided that a whipping shall not be imposed in addition to any sentence of imprisonment, with or without the option of a fine, unless the whole or part of that imprisonment is suspended.”

21. Amendment of section 293 of Act 51 of 1977. - Section 293 of the principal Act is hereby amended —

- (a) by the deletion of subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (a);
- (b) by the addition to paragraph (a) of the following subparagraphs:
 - “(v) murder, where the sentence of death is not imposed;
 - (vi) arson or malicious injury to property;

22. Amendment of section 294 of Act 51 of 1977. - Section 294 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the addition to subsection (1) of the following paragraph, the existing subsection becoming paragraph (a):

“(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) a male person of or over the age of 17 years but under the age of 21 years may be sentenced to a whipping in terms of that paragraph in addition to any other sentence excluding imprisonment, with or without the option of a fine, unless the whole of that imprisonment is suspended.”

23. Amendment of section 297 of Act 51 of 1977 as amended by section 11 of Act 30 of 1984. - Section 297 of the principal Act is hereby amended —

(a) by the substitution for item (cc) of subparagraph (i) of paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of the following item:

“(cc) the performance without remuneration and outside the prison of some service for the benefit of the community under the supervision or control of an organization or institution which, or person who, in the opinion of the court, promotes the interests of the community (in this section referred to as community service);”

- (b) by the insertion after subsection (1) of the following subsection:

CRIMINAL PROCEDURE AMENDMENT ACT, 1987

"(1A) A condition relating to the performance of community service shall only be imposed —

- (a) if the person concerned is 15 years or older; and
- (b) for the performance of that service for a period of not less than 50 hours.";
- (c) by the substitution in subsection (8) for the words following upon paragraph (b) of the following words:

"on condition that the person concerned perform community service or that he submit himself to instruction or treatment or to the supervision or control of a probation officer or that he attend or reside at a specified centre for a specified purpose, may, whether or not the court is constituted differently than it was at the time of such postponement or suspension, at any time during the period of postponement or suspension on good cause shown amend any such condition or substitute any other competent condition for such condition, or cancel the order of postponement or suspension and impose a competent sentence or put the suspended sentence into operation, as the case may be."; and

- (d) by the insertion after subsection (8) of the following subsections:

"(8A) (a) A court which under this section has imposed a condition according to which the person concerned is required to perform community service, to undergo instruction or treatment or to attend or reside at a specified centre for a specified purpose, shall cause to be served upon the person concerned a notice in writing directing him to report on a date and time specified in the notice or (if prevented from doing so by circumstances beyond his control) as soon as practicable thereafter, to the person specified in that notice, whether within or outside the area of jurisdiction of the court, in order to perform that community service, to undergo that instruction or treatment or to attend that centre or to reside thereat, as the case may be.

(b) A copy of the said notice shall serve as authority to the person mentioned therein to have that community service performed by the person concerned or to provide that instruction or treatment to the person concerned or to allow the person concerned to attend that centre or to reside thereat.

(8B) Any person who —

(a) when he reports to perform community service, to undergo instruction or treatment or to attend or reside at a specified centre for a specified purpose, is under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs or the like; or
