IN THE HIGH COURT OF ZIMBABWE

Appellate Division

Held in Salisbury

In the matter between the Commissioner of Taxes, appellant, and Claud Worville Greathead, respondent.

RESPONDENT'S HEADS OF ARGUMENT

General submissions

A. It is respectfully submitted that money obtained from a systematic course of thefts does not constitute gross income for the purposes of subsection (1) of section 8 of the Income Tax Act [Chapter 181].

B. In the premises, the decision in the court a quo is correct.

Submissions in detail

1. The issue in this appeal is whether money stolen as a result of a systematic course of thefts is to be constituted as gross income in terms of subsection (1) of section 8 of the Income Tax Act [Chapter 181]. The respondent had stolen large sums of money over a considerable period, and had not included these sums in his income tax returns for the years in question. The respondent's contention is that such sums do not constitute gross income.
2. There seems to be no authority directly on this point, but it is respectfully submitted that, from analogous principles in other cases, it will be seen that moneys received are only taxable as gross income if they are due and payable to the taxpayer or if he is entitled to them.
3. In Geldenhuys v. Commissioner of Inland Revenue, 1947 (3) S.A. 256 (C), in dealing with a definition of "gross income" substantially in the same terms as the Zimbabwean definition, it was held that the money must be received by the taxpayer in such circumstances as he becomes entitled to it — see page 269. It is true that that case dealt with a usufructuary, but it is respectfully submitted that the principle is applicable to the present case. The principle to be extracted from that case is that, although a person may physically have received money, the money in question is not received by him for the purposes of the definition unless he is entitled to receive it.
4. It is respectfully submitted that the same principle was applied by SCHREINER, J.A., in Commissioner for Inland Revenue v. Genn & Co. (Pty.) Ltd., 1955 (3) S.A. 293 (A), at 301.
5. A similar principle emerges in the English decision of Rose v. Humbles [1970] 2 All E.R. 519, at 524, [1972] 1 All E.R. 314 (CA).
6. In Latergan v. Commissioner for Inland Revenue, 1926 C.P.D. 203, it was held by WATERMEYER, J., that the words "has accrued to or in favour of any person" merely means "to which he has become entitled". In Commissioner for Inland Revenue v. Delfos, 1933 A.D. 242, WESSELS, C.J., at 251, agreed with the Latergan definition, and was apparently supported in this view by CURLEWIS, J.A., at 255, de VILLIERS, J.A., at 260, and STRATFORD, J.A., at 262, were of the view that the expression "has accrued to or in favour of any person" meant that the money had become "due and payable". This controversy persisted for many years until the decision in Hersov's Estate v. Commissioner for Inland Revenue, 1957 (1) S.A. 471 (A), when CENTLIVRES, C.J., at 480-481, expressly disapproved the Latergan definition and approved the concept that "accrued" meant "due and payable". It is respectfully submitted that, whichever approach is adopted, the receipt of moneys which have been stolen do not entitle the receiver to them, nor do they become due and payable to the receiver. In these circumstances, it is respectfully submitted that, on either approach, the moneys in the present case did not accrue to the respondent.
7. There is thus authority for the propositions, firstly, that money stolen by the appellant was not "received" by him because he was not entitled to it, and, secondly, for the proposition that the money did not "accrue to" him either because he was not entitled to it or because it was not due and payable to him. In addition, just as a person who borrows money incurs an obligation to repay it, and thus such borrowed money is not received by nor does it accrue to the borrower — see the Genn & Co. case — the moment a thief steals money he similarly incurs an obligation to repay it and, by parity of reasoning, the stolen money is not received by nor does it accrue to the thief.
8. It is respectfully submitted that a perusal of the definition of "gross income" in section 8 of the Act indicates that a number of situations are dealt with in amplification of the main definition, all of which involve the situation where money is received without an obligation to return it or money is received to which the taxpayer is entitled. The theme running through the definition is that amounts are received by or accrued to a taxpayer if they are earned rather than illegally obtained by the taxpayer.
9. It is respectfully submitted that the result sought for the respondent does not require words to be read into the statute. It is submitted that the situation contended for by the respondent is the natural consequence of the statute as presently phrased, bearing in mind the manner in which the words used in the statute have been judicially interpreted.

10. The respondent does not contend that the mere fact that the moneys in question have been received by unlawful activity disentitles them from being treated as income for the purposes of the Act. However, it is the respondent's contention that the cases referred to by the appellant deal with situations where a profit is being taxed as a result of such unlawful activities — see Minister of Finance v. Smith [1927] AC. 193 (PC). It is the respondent's contention that it is not the origin of the money which is important, but whether or not the taxpayer has a right to receive it or to retain it. In a case such as Minister of Finance v. Smith, the purchasers of the liquor could not be sued for the purchase-price, as the contract was illegal; however, once having paid for the liquor, they were not entitled to seek the repayment of it from the supplier of the liquor. In a case of a thief, that situation does not apply.
11. In these circumstances, and for the reasons advanced by SQUIRES, J., in the court a quo, it is respectfully submitted that the learned judge came to the correct conclusion as to whether or not stolen moneys in the present circumstances fell within the definition of "gross income". It is respectfully submitted that the appeal be dismissed.
12. In the event of the appeal being dismissed, the respondent respectfully requests that this honourable court direct that his costs of the appeal shall be allowed as a deduction in terms of paragraph (gg) of subsection (2) of section 15 of the Income Tax Act [Chapter 181] on the same basis as was allowed in the recent decision in Commissioner of Taxes v. C., 1981 (2) S.A. 298 (ZA).

Dated at Salisbury this 19th day of May, 1981.—A. P. de Bourbon, counsel for the respondent. 2404f

GOVERNMENT GAZETTE

Conditions for Acceptance of Copy

FAILURE to comply with any of the following conditions will result in the rejection of copy, and no responsibility can be accepted if such rejection should affect any date contained in such copy or any requirement of publication on a specific date.

Persons drafting any kind of notices are strongly advised to follow the guidance offered in—

- (a) the Instructions Relating to the Drafting and Typing of Legislation (Attorney-General's Circular 1 of 1978); and
- (b) the Manual of Style for the Drafting and Preparation of Copy, published by the Department of Printing and Stationery; which two booklets are intended for complementary use.

In these conditions, other than where a particular kind of copy is specified, "copy" means copy for all matter contained in the Gazette itself and for subsidiary legislation issued as supplements to the Gazette.

1. (1) Other than by prior arrangement, only original typing is accepted.

(2) Carbon-copies are not normally acceptable, other than in cases where the original typing has to be legally retained elsewhere, as, for example, in the case of a proclamation.

(3) Computer print-outs are not accepted automatically, as discussion may be necessary with regard to the extra time and costs involved.

2. (1) All copy must be clear and legible, and there must be double or one and a half spacing between the lines.

(2) Any corrections or alterations made by the originator must be clearly effected in blue or black ink, using editorial marks—not proof-reader's marks:

Provided that any copy containing extensive alterations will be rejected.

3. (1) Copy must appear on one side only of each sheet of paper.

(2) Except as is provided in subsection (2) of section 8, paper must not exceed 210 millimetres in width.

(3) If copy comprises two or more sheets of paper, all sheets must be numbered consecutively, in arabic figures, preferably in the top right-hand corner.

(4) Where any matter is added after the copy has been prepared, and such additional matter results in one or more sheets being inserted between those already numbered, all sheets must be renumbered from there onwards — not, for instance, 7, 7a, 7b, 8, et cetera.

4. Photographic copy or copy produced on a duplicating-machine may be accepted if it is abundantly clear.

5. (1) Should any copy—

- (a) exceed 10 pages of typing on A4 paper; or
- (b) contain tabular or other matter which involves complicated setting;

it will be classed as "lengthy" copy, and will be required to be submitted not less than 21 days before the date of closing for the Gazette in which it is to be published.

(2) Lengthy copy may be accepted at less than 21 days' notice if—

- (a) the work involved is of a straightforward and non-tabular nature; and
- (b) the total volume of work on hand for the time being permits its acceptance.

6. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these conditions, any copy—

- (a) which is of national importance, and which is originated as a matter of urgent necessity, may, by prior arrangement, be accepted late for the current week.
- (b) may, due to shortage of staff or to technical considerations, be delayed until conditions permit its processing.

7. Copy must not be submitted as part of a letter or a requisition. It must appear on a separate sheet of paper, on which there is no instruction or other extraneous matter.

8. (1) In cases where notices have to be published in tabular form, copy must be drafted exactly as it is to appear.

If printed forms for any such notices are unavailable, advertisers must prepare their own forms. While it is not necessary to include the preamble, the box-headings must be there, and, where applicable, the number of the form; for example, "Insolvency Regulations—Form 3".

(2) In the case of copy for tabular notices, the provision of subsection (2) of section 3 does not apply.

9. Copy for all advertisements, whether sent by post or delivered by hand, must be accompanied by a requisition or a letter which clearly sets out—

- (a) the name and address of the advertiser, and
- (b) the debtor's code-number, if any; and
- (c) the required date or dates of publication.

10. (1) If a typographical error occurs in the Gazette, it is rectified as soon as possible by a correcting notice, without charge to the ministry or department concerned, subject to the following conditions—

- (a) that such error is reported to the editor within three months from the date of publication; and
- (b) that the relevant copy, upon re-examination, is proved to be abundantly clear; and
- (c) that the correction of such error is legally necessary.

(2) If a drafting error is not detected before publication, the originating ministry or department is required to draft its own correcting notice, take it to the Attorney-General for vetting, and pay for such notice to be published.

(3) For the removal of doubt—

- (a) a typographical error is made by a typographer;
- (b) a typist's error is classed as a drafting error by reason of the fact that the officer responsible for drafting failed to check the typist's work.

GOVERNMENT GAZETTE

Authorized Scale of Charges, Times of Closing and Subscription Rate

Charges

Notices published in the normal columns: $2 per centimetre or part thereof single column. Taking the depth of such matter, normally spaced, approximately 25 words occupy one centimetre; but this can only be a rough guide, as a heading may occupy two centimetres, and certain notices unavoidably contain white space, which must be included in the chargeable depth.

Notices which have to appear in tabular form across the full width of the page, such as lost insurance policies, deceased estates, insolvent estates, company liquidations, notices in terms of the Insolvency Act [Chapter 303], changes of companies' names, et cetera: $5 per entry.

Except in the case of approved accounts, remittances must accompany all copy for advertisements. Failing this, copy will be returned with an assessment of charges.

Times of closing

The Gazette closes for the receipt of copy for all notices to be published in the normal columns, and for statutory instruments, at 11 a.m. on the Tuesday preceding the Friday of publication.

Copy for all notices to be set in tabular form must be received by 4 p.m. on the Monday preceding the Friday of publication.

Any copy which is received after the respective closing-times will automatically be held over for insertion in the Gazette of the following week, in which case no responsibility can be accepted if the purport of the notice is thereby nullified.

When public holidays occur, the normal closing-times are varied, and such variations are notified in the Gazette in advance.

All copy must be addressed to the Department of Printing and Stationery, and either posted to P.O. Box 8062, Causeway, or delivered direct, to the department, in Gordon Avenue, between Sixth Street and Epton Street. Envelopes should be marked: Gazette copy—urgent.

Regular advertisers and subscribers are requested to advise immediately of any change of address.

Subscription rate

The annual subscription rate for the Gazette is $12, payable, in advance, to the Controller of Printing and Stationery, and may commence with the first issue of any month.
