Officers of Parliament (Terms of Service) (Amendment)
Regulations, 2022 (No. 2)

IT is hereby notified that, pursuant to section 154(5) of the Constitution, the Committee on Standing Rules and Orders has made the following regulations:—

1. These regulations may be cited as the Officers of Parliament (Terms of Service) (Amendment) Regulations, 2022 (No. 2).

2. The Officers of Parliament (Terms of Service) Regulations, 2018, published in Statutory Instrument 24 of 2018, are amended in section 30 (“Retirement on reaching pensionable age”) by the repeal of subsection (3) and the substitution of the following—

“Retirement on reaching pensionable age

(3) In recognition of long pensionable service in the employ of Parliament, the Committee shall, at any time before the mandatory retirement age—

- (a) advance an officer to the next promotional grade, in the case of an officer who has reached a ceiling within that occupational grade progression;
- (b) advance an officer to the next advancement grade, in the case of an officer who has not reached the ceiling within that occupational grade progression;
- (c) advance an officer to the next promotional grade six months before such retirement, in the case of an officer who is an active veteran of the liberation struggle:

Provided that in either case to both promotional or advancement grade, as the case may be, such promotion or advancement at retirement will only entitle the beneficiary to pensionable emoluments of the next promotional or advancement grade and shall exclude non-pensionable emoluments and other condition of service benefits of the higher grade; and

- (d) in the case of an officer who is an active veteran of the liberation struggle, in addition to provisions of paragraph (c) provide a residential stand, namely: the free transfer to him or her of a piece of land of not more than five hundred square metres, acquired on his or her behalf at any place of his or her choice in Zimbabwe, which acquisition must be done or commenced within six months of the beneficiary's retirement.”.
